Tiger History

From Cobb and Jennings to Sparky, Trammell and Whitaker, 96 Years of Tiger Tradition

The 1996 season saw the Detroit Tigers complete their 96th year of American League play. One of the most successful franchises in the history of the major leagues, the Tigers have posted the second most all-time American League wins (7,622, second to the New York Yankees 8,184) and their .515 winning percentage trails only the Yankees and A's among current league members.

Joining Boston, Chicago and Cleveland as the only charter members of the American League, the Tigers history actually pre-dates the beginnings of the league itself. Detroit professional baseball began in 1881 when the city sported a franchise, known alternately as the Wolverines or simply the Detroits, for the first of eight seasons in the National League. The 1887 club won the NL title and went on to take 10-of-15 games from the American Association champion St. Louis club in a cross-country playoff series.

After the National League club moved to Cleveland after the 1888 season, Detroit was home to various minor league clubs through 1900. It was at this time that the foundation for today's Tigers was laid.

In 1894, baseball legend Ban Johnson, who later would go on to serve 27 years as the American League's first President, awarded Detroit a slot in the reorganized Western League. It was a significant move because just six years later Johnson changed the name to the American League and gained major league status for the circuit in 1901.

It was also in those early years that the Detroit baseball club first became known as the Tigers. Extensive research dates the name to 1895, credited to an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press.

"Strouther's Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely," read a headline in the paper on April 16, 1895. The same page also listed a series of baseball notes, headed by "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." The name caught on, and the Detroit Tigers were officially christened.

Ty Cobb and Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis

Under Johnson's leadership, the American League in 1901 declared that it would conduct business as a major league. Unlike most of its predecessors, the fledgling league thrived, and the Detroit Tigers played a major role as the game took on its modern shape.

The Tigers prepared to take the field for their first official American League game on April 24, 1901. A standing room only crowd was anticipated at Bennett Park, but unpredictable weather postponed the opening until the next day, April 25.

On that historic day in front of 10,000 fans, the Tigers entered the ninth inning trailing Milwaukee, 13-4, but a series of hits and miscues followed, narrowing the score to 13-12 with two runners on. With two out, Tiger Frank "Pop" Dillon rapped a two-run double off reliever Bert Husting to complete a 14-13 comeback win.

Owned by hotel man and Wayne County Sheriff James D. Burns, the first-year Tigers posted a record of 74-61, finishing in third place. The next season, the club was sold and plunged to seventh place as rumors swirled of a possible franchise relocation. Though the club didn't fare particularly well on the field in succeeding years, the franchise weathered the storm and stabilized near the middle of that first decade.

The 1905 season was a remarkable one for the organization in that it marked the first in a Detroit uniform for Tyrus Raymond Cobb, the most famous Tiger of all. Acquired in exchange for pitcher Eddie Cicotte and $700 from Augusta of the Sally League (plus an additional $50 for "immediate delivery"), Cobb played the first of his 3,033 major league games on August 30, 1905. He would remain with the Tigers for 22 years, and when he retired in 1928, he had collected more records than any player in major league history.

The 1907 season saw the emergence of two individuals, neither of them players, who would both play significant roles in turning the fortunes of the young Tigers. One was Frank Navin, who began as a bookkeeper with the franchise in 1902 before acquiring a full half interest ownership in the club and becoming team president. After Ban Johnson's retirement in 1927, Navin came to be regarded by many as the most powerful man in the American League. The other was Hughie Jennings, a keen judge of talent who would lead the club to three consecutive league championships as one of the most colorful managers in major league history.

That same 1907 season the Tigers won their first pennant, taking the American League by one and one-half games with a mark of 92-58. A disappointing loss to the Cubs in the World Series followed.

The next two years the Tigers repeated their regular season successes, winning league titles both seasons, but as in 1907, the club was defeated by Chicago and Pittsburgh, respectively, in the Fall Classic.

It would be years before the Tigers would be able to erase the memories of their postseason struggles in World Series play. The period from 1910-34, however, is not lacking of interest as it featured some remarkably talented teams and individuals that fell just short of taking the next step.

In 1911, Cobb finished with a personal-best batting average of .420, finishing just shy of the all-time American League single season record of .422 set by Nap Lajoie in 1901. In 1912, the club moved into its new ballpark, named after Frank Navin, but the campaign was marked by a one-game players' strike in retaliation for a suspension levied on Cobb for taking a punch at a fan in New York. The May 18 strike forced the Tigers to put together a team of sandlot players for one game, a 24-2 loss at Philadelphia.

Three seasons later in 1915, Jennings and his club posted a regular season record of 100-54, but the Red Sox claimed the pennant with 101 wins. The next season marked the beginning of the career of first baseman Harry Heilmann, a future Hall-of-Famer who would spend 15 years in Detroit, while 1917 saw the end of 15 seasons in the Tiger outfield for fellow Cooperstown inductee Sam Crawford.

By 1920, the Tigers had plunged to seventh place, Jennings was released and Cobb was named manager. The highlight of Cobb's tenure was 1924, the same season that Hall-of-Famer Charlie Gehringer first wore the Tiger uniform, when the club remained in the race until the season's final week with a record of 86-68. In 1926, under

Cobb's tutelage, Hall-of-Famer Heinie Manush

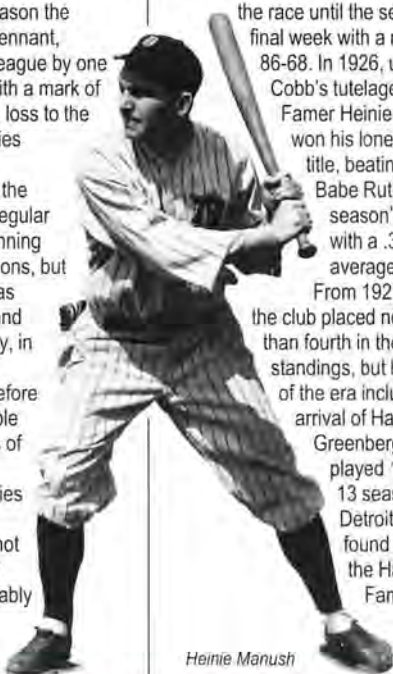

won his lone batting title, beating out

Babe Ruth on the season's final day with a .378 average.

From 1927 to 1932, the club placed no higher than fourth in the league standings, but highlights of the era included the arrival of Hank Greenberg who played 12 of his 13 seasons in Detroit and found his way to the Hall of Fame in 1956.

After five

Heinie Manush

seasons with Bucky Harris at the helm, Navin attempted to hire Babe Ruth as manager in 1934. Unable to land him, Navin turned to Mickey Cochrane, who was purchased from Philadelphia for $100,000.

With Cochrane as catcher/manager, the Tigers soared to a 101-53 record in 1934 for the first of two consecutive league pennants. Schoolboy Rowe set a record with 16 consecutive pitching wins, but in the World Series the Tigers once again failed to capture the postseason magic, dropping a seven-game decision to St. Louis.

The following season the long-awaited title dreams came true for Tiger fans and players. After winning the American League by three games, Detroit took six games to mow down the Chicago Cubs in the 1935 World Series, with Cochrane making a daring dash from second in the ninth inning of Game Six to score the winning run on a single by Goose Goslin. For their victory, each player was awarded a share of $6,544.

On November 13, 1935, Frank Navin was stricken by a heart ailment and died at the age of 64. Walter Briggs, Sr., already half-owner of the club, purchased the remainder of the team and became president.

In 1940 under manager Del Baker, Detroit earned its sixth pennant with a 90-64 mark and went on to face Cincinnati in the fall classic. A 21-game winner in the regular season, righthander Bobo Newsom pitched the Tigers to wins in two games of the Series but fell in Game Seven as the Reds captured the title.

A strange end to the 1945 season marked the Tigers successful surge to their eventual second World Series title. With little hope of making it to the post-season, the Washington Senators scheduled their season to close a week early to make their park available for pro football. The Senators, however, played inspired baseball all the way but were forced to sit and watch during the season's final week as the Tigers nosed them out of a pennant. In the ensuing World Series, the Tigers, managed by Steve O'Neill, knocked off the Cubs in seven games with Hall-of-Famer Hal Newhouser winning twice.

After a pair of second-place finishes in 1946 and '47 and the acquisition of Hall-of-Famer George Kell, the Tigers watched as a fresh influx of talent from the minors matured and nearly captured the 1950 pennant, falling just three games short after leading the pack for 119 days and finishing with a 95-59 record.

The following decade was highlighted by the emergence of young outfielder Al Kaline who, with a .340 batting average in 1955, became the youngest player in league history to win a batting title.

The Tiger front office was also seeing sweeping change after the death of Briggs, Sr. in 1952. After a four-year presidency by his son, Walter Briggs, Jr., the Briggs stock was sold to a syndicate of 11 radio/television executives led by John Fetzer, Fred Knorr and Kenyon Brown. In 1960, Fetzer purchased the entire team and became entrenched as club president.

After finishing just one game out of first place in 1967, the Tigers were poised and loaded with talent entering the 1968 campaign. Under manager Mayo Smith the club took the lead on May 10 and never relinquished it, finishing a whopping 12 games ahead of second-place Baltimore. Denny McLain was the hero of the campaign with a 31-6 record, winning the AL MVP and Cy Young Awards, and he remains the only pitcher since 1934 to win 30 or more games in a season.

In a tight World Series, Mickey Lolich pitched the club to three wins, the final win coming on just two days rest as the Tigers captured the crown and Lolich was named Series MVP.

Detroit next visited the postseason by winning the American League East in 1972 under Billy Martin with a 92-

70 mark. The club was unable to capture the pennant, however, as the Oakland A's won the best-of-five series in five games.

From 1974 through 1980, the Tigers never finished above fourth place, despite playing better than .500 for each of three seasons from 1978 through 1980. In the meantime, Mark "The Bird" Fidrych captured the public's imagination with his debut in 1976, and 1977 marked the beginning of a string of an American League record 1,918 appearances together by Tiger middle infielders Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker.

The 1979 season saw another significant change in leadership when, on June 14, Sparky Anderson took over the club's managerial reigns. For the next 16 seasons Anderson would lead the Tigers from the dugout, claiming two division titles and a World Championship along the way.

In 1981, the Tigers posted a 60-49 record, but saw their playoff push stopped by a mid-season strike that divided the season into two halves.

The 1983 club was led by Jack Morris' 20 wins and posted a 92-70 record, good for second place. That season's success led to great optimism among fans and players entering the 1984 campaign, and no one was disappointed.

With Jack Morris tossing his first no-hitter on April 7, the club vaulted into the division lead by winning their first nine games and going 35-5 through May 24, the best 40-game start in major league history. The Tigers went on to a 104-58 mark, 15 games in front of the pack and continued by sweeping the Royals in the Championship Series. After defeating the Padres four-games-to-one in the World Series, the Tigers became the first major league team since the 1955 Dodgers to hold first place wire-to-wire and finish by winning the championship. In addition, a club-record 2,704,794 fans passed through the turnstiles.

The Tigers returned to glory in 1987 in dramatic fashion. After struggling to an 11-19 start the club closed strong and looked ready to make a move after first-place Toronto lost four straight entering the final weekend of play. Trailing the Blue Jays by just one game with a three game set in Motown against Toronto to close the regular season, the Tigers took the first two, 4-3 on Friday and 3-2 in 12 innings the next day. With a one-game lead, Detroit's Frank Tanana out dueled the Jays Jimmy Key on Sunday as Larry Herndon's solo homer proved the only scoring in a 1-0 triumph. After the dramatic ending to the regular season, Detroit bowed out of the playoffs to Minnesota, losing a best-of-seven series in five contests.

An inspired charge in 1991 kept the club in contention through mid-September before finishing in a second-place tie.

The following year included the most recent change in ownership for the team as Mike Ilitch purchased sole interest in the team from Tom Monaghan, and other structural changes were not far down the road.

From 1992 through 1995, the club finished with just one winning record, in 1993 when it was 84-78. The decision was made to rebuild through scouting and player development, and club leadership set the wheels in motion. President John McHale, Jr., himself a recent addition to the team, hired General Manager Randy Smith during the 1995 off-season, and together they engineered a plan for retooling the major and minor league operations. Many more changes have followed, including the hiring of Manager Buddy Bell and the finalization of plans for a new downtown stadium scheduled to open in 1999.

Tiger Stadium

Reaching for the Future —
Embracing the Legacy

For more than 100 years, the corner of Michigan and Trumbull just outside of downtown Detroit has been synonymous with Tigers baseball.

On April 28, 1896, baseball was first played on the site that now is Tiger Stadium, making "The Corner" the oldest home to pro baseball in the world. The Tigers defeated the Columbus Senators that day, 17-2, at Bennett Park. The stadium, which at the time seated 8,000, was named after Charlie Bennett, a catcher on Detroit's National League team in the 1880s who was crippled in a freak streetcar accident.

The first major league game for the Tigers was also played at Bennett Park on April 25, 1901 when Detroit made its American League debut and defeated Milwaukee, 14-13 in front of an overflow crowd of 10,000. In those early days, fans often ringed the outfield behind ropes and for 15 cents one could sit in illegal "wildcat" bleachers that were erected on top of houses behind the outfield wall.

By 1911, the Tigers were a very popular entertainment option in the city, and little Bennett Park was challenged to accommodate the nearly half-million fans that passed through its gates annually. As a result, team owner Frank Navin decided to raze the old stands and build a new facility to bring the Detroit franchise in line with the other American League clubs. At a cost of about $300,000, Navin Field was built on the same location as the previous park, though home plate was moved from what now is right field to its present location.

On April 20, 1912, the new facility opened with some 26,000 fans jammed into a park with a listed capacity of 23,000. In the game the Tigers rallied past Cleveland 6-5 in 11 innings, but much attention was diverted in newspapers the next morning by news of the sinking of the Titanic.

With the essential layout remaining the same today, the opening of Navin Field in 1912 is widely recognized as the beginning of Tiger Stadium. Fenway Park also opened on April 20 of that season, giving Detroit and

Bennett Park

Future site of the Tigers new stadium, slated to open in 1999. The Fox Theatre is to the right.

Boston the two oldest major league ballparks (followed by Chicago's Wrigley Field in 1914).

In 1924, the original stands from first-to-third base were double-decked (increasing capacity to 30,000) and a press box was built on the roof. Further improvements were slated to be made with $150,000 in World Series proceeds from the 1935 champions, including the addition of a second level to the bleachers and rightfield pavilion. Before this could be accomplished, however, Navin passed away and Walter Briggs gained complete ownership of the club. One of his first moves was to carry out Navin's wishes, and the improved facility with room for 36,000 was unveiled to the public on Opening Day in 1936.

Nearly before the expansion was complete, Briggs decided further improvements were necessary. In 1938, Cherry Street, the northern boundary of the park, was closed, enabling the completion of larger, double-decked stands in left and centerfield that essentially enclosed the park. It was renamed Briggs Stadium, and seating was increased by nearly half to 53,000, giving the facility the basic structure that remains today.

Also in 1938, the Detroit Lions began a relationship with the stadium, playing their home games at the facility. From 1934 (the beginning of the Lions) through 1937, the Lions' home was at the University of Detroit Stadium, a facility that they returned to for one season in 1940. Other than that, each Lions home contest from 1938 through 1974 was played at the corner of Michigan and Trumbull.

In 1948, a field lighting system was installed, making the stadium the last in the American League to install lights. Then in 1961, when John Fetzer assumed club ownership, the name of the facility was officially changed to Tiger Stadium.

Since that time, several improvements to the infrastructure have been made. Renovations in 1979 and 1980 resulted in the addition of an electronic scoreboard and new seats and bleachers. In 1993, "Tiger Plaza" was constructed, featuring a food court, souvenir shops, patio area and ticket booth at the corner of Michigan and Trumbull. This past season, seating in the bleachers was restructured which resulted in a more intimate capacity of 46,945.

As time went by, however, it became clear that a new facility was needed to replace the aging and venerable old park. A partnership between the Tigers, the city of Detroit, Wayne County and the State of Michigan has made this a reality with the new facility scheduled for completion by 1999.

The new stadium is slated to be an anchor in a new downtown sports complex that will also feature a domed stadium for the Lions. The complex will be located east of Woodward Avenue across from the city's famed Fox Theatre.

The baseball stadium's financing will include $145 million from the Tigers, the highest team-based financing for any Major League Baseball facility since the Dodgers built Dodger Stadium in 1962.

City of Detroit

The Motor City Stands on the Verge of its Renaissance

Although it is located on less than three percent of the state's land, metropolitan Detroit boasts a population of roughly 4.5 million people, equal to half of Michigan's population. Like many great cities, the city has battled a variety of urban troubles in recent decades. However, city leaders have taken giant strides in placing the city on the verge of a renaissance to enhance the glory of its history.

The oldest city in the Midwest, Detroit was founded on July 24, 1701, when Antoine de la Mothe Cadillac landed on what is now the Civic Center downtown and started a fur trading center. In 1790, Detroit was turned over to the British as a spoil of the French and Indian War, and it was not until 1796 that George Washington forced the British out of the city and the American flag was raised over Fort Pontchartrain. Detroit was incorporated as a city in 1815.

A city of less than 300,000 in 1900, the emergence of the auto industry turned Detroit into a great commercial center in a matter of just a few years. In 1896 entrepreneur Henry Ford built his first car in the city, arguably the most important event in the history of Detroit's development. Ford Motor Company was established in 1903, but two years later there were 150 American cities that were home to automobile manufacturing plants. In

Detroit's Renaissance Center

1913, it was Ford again who sent Detroit to the front of the manufacturing pack, introducing the assembly line and revolutionizing the auto industry. Before long the city was established as the auto capital of the world with Ford, General Motors, Chrysler and Volkswagen of America all headquartered in the area.

With the growth of manufacturing, the little city on the river experienced dramatic development during the first two decades of the century. With Ford, the Dodge brothers and many others leading the charge in business development, the city's population exploded, and Detroit became the nation's fifth-largest city.

In the 1950s the city's population shifted to a metropolitan one. In fact, Northland Mall (constructed in 1954) in Southfield was the first shopping mall in the country, representing a swing to the new suburban lifestyle.

While the suburbs were growing,

The Detroit skyline, fronted by the Detroit River.

there were still great developments within the city limits. In 1959 Berry Gordy turned his tiny New Center-area home into a recording studio, developing what remains today one of the most popular musical styles in the "Motown Sound." Stevie Wonder, Diana Ross, Smokey Robinson and others called Detroit home, helping Gordy establish the city as a musical giant.

Other downtown projects included the opening of Cobo Hall, Detroit's main convention center, in 1960. In 1971 Henry Ford II announced plans for the construction of the largest privately-financed project in the world. Designed to bring people and growth back to the city, his plan became a reality in 1977 as the Renaissance Center opened.

In 1980 the nation's eyes once again were focused on Detroit as the city played host to the 32nd Republican National Convention at the new Joe Louis Arena downtown, named for the boxing hero who grew up in the city.

One of America's greatest sports cities, the metro area boasts teams in each of the four major sports in the Tigers, Red Wings (hockey), Lions (football) and Pistons (basketball).

Civic and government leaders have made urban renewal a top priority for Detroit, and the area around Woodward Avenue has been home to many of the city's most exciting projects in recent years. In 1987, current Tigers and Red Wings owner Mike Ilitch purchased the Fox Theatre and began renovations to what had once been a grand venue hosting top events. With more than $50 million invested in its development, the Fox is now the top-grossing theatre in the country, and its renovation has spurred retail development throughout the corridor.

Woodward is also home to the recently renovated Orchestra Hall and a wide variety of cultural institutions, including one of the country's top museums in the Detroit Institute of the Arts. And though much has already been accomplished, the area is slated to become home to a pair of new stadiums for the Tigers and Lions, the first downtown project of its kind in American history.

Motown in Motion

Known for being a leader in the auto industry, it probably comes as no surprise that Detroit is home to the nation's first traffic light (1915), first mile of paved road (1909) and first urban freeway (1942). The city however, is much more diverse than most people realize. Did you know that Detroit ...

- Is one of the five largest ports in the country, carrying nearly 30 million tons of cargo each year
- Is the home of the typewriter, patented by William Austin Burt in 1829
- Has the largest annual fireworks display in the world
- Has the largest NAACP membership of any U.S. city
- Is home to the largest sit-down fundraising dinner of its kind in the country - the NAACP Freedom Fund Dinner (10,000 guests)
- Is home to the largest free jazz festival in North America, the Montreux Detroit Jazz Festival
- Is home to the country's oldest state fair, the Michigan State Fair (first held in 1849)
- Was the first city to assign individual telephone numbers (1879)
- Is home to the tallest hotel in North America, the Westin Hotel Renaissance Center
- Is the only geographic location in which Canada is south of the U.S.

John McHale, Jr.

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Entering his third season with the Tigers, John McHale, Jr., joined the club on January 11, 1995, as its President and CEO.

- Is the 14th President in Tiger history, succeeding Mike Ilitch in the position.
- Was instrumental in the formulation and execution of plans for Detroit's new baseball stadium, scheduled to be opened in 1999...teamed with city and state leaders in negotiations and campaigns to assure that the project would become a reality.
- Prior to coming to Detroit, he spent more than three years with the Colorado Rockies organization...joined the Rockies three months after Denver was approved by major league owners to receive a franchise.
- Served first as Rockies Executive Vice President, Baseball Operations, a position he was named to in October of 1991...was responsible for overseeing all baseball-related activities.
- In January of 1993, he held the title of Executive Vice President, Operations, responsible for directing the club's business efforts.
- From 1983-89, he was a member of the Denver Baseball Commission, a civic group organized to bring Major League Baseball to Colorado.
- In 1989, McHale was named by Colorado's Governor to the Board of Directors of the Denver Metropolitan Major League Baseball Stadium District, created by the legislature to develop a new baseball-only ballpark in the event that Denver was selected for an expansion franchise...was named the board's chairman, a position he held until July of 1991.
- After winning voter approval for the project, the board directed all areas of the process that resulted in the construction of Coors Field.
- Also practiced law in Denver from 1981-91, emphasizing labor relations and litigation...represented many major league clubs in salary arbitration cases.
- Like his parents (John J. McHale and Patricia Cameron McHale), McHale was born in Detroit.
- Graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1971, where he also played linebacker and defensive end for the Fighting Irish football team.
- Received a law degree from Boston College Law School in 1975 and a masters of law degree with an emphasis in labor law from the Georgetown University Law Center in 1982.
- Serves on the Board of Directors of CATCH (Caring Athletes Team for Children's & Henry Ford Hospitals) and is the Southeast Michigan WalkAmerica Chairman for the March of Dimes.
- 48 years of age...resides with his wife, Sally, and children Duncan, William and Frances in Ann Arbor, MI.
- McHale's father, John J. McHale, played for the Tigers for five seasons (1943-45, 1947-48)...upon his retirement, he joined the team's front office and was named General Manager in 1957.
- In 1959, McHale, Sr. was named General Manager of the Milwaukee Braves and became President in 1962...he served as Assistant Commissioner of Baseball under Commissioner William "Spike" Eckert and then joined the partnership which founded the Montreal Expos, serving as that club's President from 1968 until his retirement in 1988.

Randy Smith

VICE PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

Randy Smith joined the Tigers in November of 1995 after serving three seasons in a similar capacity with the San Diego Padres.

- Oversees and directs the baseball operations areas, including the major league club, player development and scouting.
- From the time he came to Detroit through February 1, 1997, he engineered 23 trades, made five waiver claims and made three Rule 5 draft selections (see below)...53 players appeared with the Tigers major league club in 1996, tying an all-time club record.
- In a nine-day span from December 9-17, 1996, he completed seven trades involving 23 players...included was a 10-player trade with Houston, the club's largest trade since November 20, 1957.
- Came to Detroit after serving as Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager of the San Diego Padres from 1993-95...when he was named to the position on June 9, 1993, he became the youngest General Manager in major league history at just 29 years of age.
- The 1995 Padres were the most improved team in the National League, going from a winning percentage of .402 in 1994 to .486 the next season.
- Also was with the Padres from 1984-91, functioning as Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development (1984-88) and later as Scouting Director (1988-91)...increased scouting operations to include the Dominican Republic, Venezuela and Australia.
- Smith laid much of the foundation for the Padres 1996 playoff club that only three seasons earlier had lost 101 games...drafted or traded for 19 of the 25 players on the Padres Opening Day roster and hired 1996 National League Manager of the Year Bruce Bochy to his first major league managerial position in 1995.
- On December 28, 1994, he executed the largest major league trade since November 20, 1957 when the Padres acquired 1996 National League MVP Ken Caminiti, Steve Finley, Andujar Cedeno, Roberto Petagine, Brian Williams and a player-to-be-named for Derek Bell, Doug Brocail, Ricky Gutierrez, Pedro Martinez, Phil Plantier and Craig Shipley.
- Prior to his second stint with the Padres, Smith was Assistant General Manager of the Colorado Rockies (1991-93)...was hired four months after owners voted to award a franchise to the area.
- Was responsible for establishing the Rockies scouting program and played a major role in filling the club's major league roster in the 1993 expansion draft...in 1995, the Rockies became the first major league expansion team to reach the post-season prior to their eighth year of competition.
- Began his career in baseball in May of 1984 as an Administrative Assistant for the Beaumont Golden Gators, the former Double A Texas League affiliate of the Padres.
- Although just 27 at the time, was named by Baseball America in 1990 as one of 10 people who will influence baseball the most in the 1990s.
- His father, Tal, has been a major league executive for 40 years and currently serves as President of the Houston Astros...Tal has also been with the Reds and Yankees, earning Major League Executive of the Year honors from The Sporting News in 1980.
- Attended Southwest Texas State in San Marcos and Memorial High School in Houston...played basketball and baseball in high school.
- 33 years old...he and wife Erin, married this past November, reside in Plymouth, MI.

Tigers Care

One of the most important responsibilities of the Detroit Tigers organization is to have a positive impact on the community and state. Through Tigers Care, the Detroit Tigers community relations department, the club supports individuals, groups and institutions who need assistance. The Detroit Tigers strive to improve the quality of life for children and the underprivileged and to strengthen the social and economic conditions of the community.

Tigers Care serves to coordinate the efforts of Tigers players, coaches and front office staff in their charitable and community-oriented services. Thousands of organizations and individuals throughout Detroit, the state of Michigan and surrounding areas have been touched by the efforts of Tigers Care.

100 Percent Participation

In a special program administered by Tigers Care, each Tiger player and coach makes a commitment to work with a charity in the metro Detroit area. The 100 Percent Participation program is a cornerstone of the Tigers charitable work; each year, more than 25 area organizations benefit from the dedication and caring of all Tiger players and coaches. The work includes counseling students, visiting and instructing youth groups, visits to hospitals, serving as chairmen or spokesmen, public service announcements and much more.

CATCH (Caring Athletes Team for Children's and Henry Ford Hospitals)

Former Tiger manager Sparky Anderson founded CATCH in 1987. Since that time, he has been joined by CATCH chairman Alan Trammell and other Tiger players and staff in raising money to provide "quality of life" items for sick and needy children.

March of Dimes WalkAmerica

Tigers President, John McHale, Jr., serves as chairman of the Southeast Michigan March of Dimes WalkAmerica. The Tigers have been a major sponsor of this annual event and provide tickets and other items to walkers. The club also coordinates a pre-game, on-field awards ceremony at Tiger Stadium. The 1996 walk raised over $1.4 million for the fight against birth defects.

Charitable Donations and Ticket Programs

Each year, more than 1,000 charitable groups from Detroit and surrounding areas receive memorabilia for fund-raising auctions. In addition, more than 50,000 tickets to Tiger games were distributed last season to organizations for $1 per ticket.

Food and Coat Drives

Wives of Tiger players participate in food and coat drives for the needy. In conjunction with the Salvation Army, Tiger wives are stationed at gates to Tiger Stadium where they receive food and coats from fans in attendance. Autographed photos and game tickets are distributed to participants.

Field of Dreams

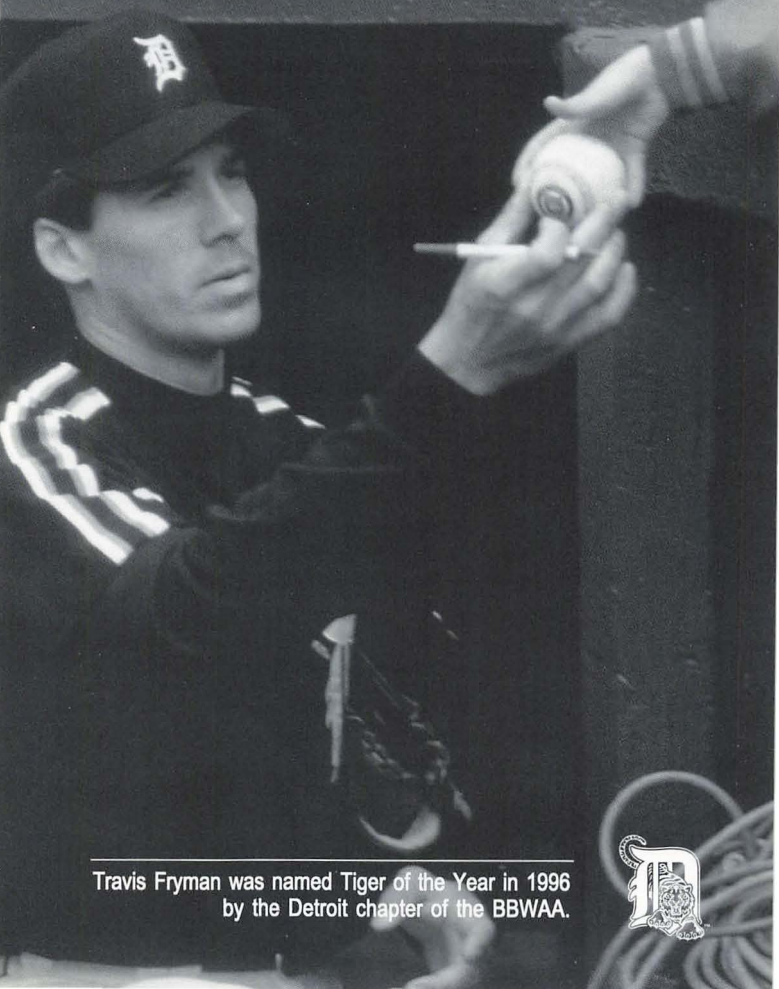

The Tigers, Major League Baseball and True Value Hardware team together to secure grants to refurbish baseball fields in the city of Detroit. Area Jaycees lend manpower and turn overgrown weeded fields into beautiful new diamonds for Detroit children to use. Tiger players and coaches also were on hand to conduct clinics for the kids at the program's kickoff (Littlefield in 1996).

RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities)

In coordination with Major League Baseball and Orchards Childrens Services, the Tigers provide inner city youths with an opportunity to learn and enjoy the game of baseball in a safe environment. The Tigers have hosted Regional Tournaments for RBI at both Belle Isle and Tiger Stadium, with teams from Michigan, Tennessee, Minnesota, Kentucky and Illinois participating.

1997 Tigers

Travis Fryman was named Tiger of the Year in 1996
by the Detroit chapter of the BBWAA.

A solid background in developing young talent and a stellar playing career proved rewarding when on November 9, 1995, Buddy Bell was named the 30th manager in Detroit Tiger history.

- The 1996 season was his first as a manager at the professional level.
- Came to the Tigers after two years as infield coach for the American League champion Cleveland Indians.
- Also served three seasons (1991-93) as Director of Minor League Instruction for the White Sox and one year (1990) as roving Minor League Hitting Instructor for the Indians.
- Enjoyed a spectacular 18-year career as a major league player with the Indians (1972-78), Rangers (1979-85, 1989), Reds (1985-88) and Astros (1988).
- At the end of his career he placed among the all-time major league leaders at third base in total chances, games played, assists and double plays.
- Was named to the All-Star team five times, including three straight years from 1980-82 and in 1973 and 1984.
- Broke into the majors in 1972 in just his fourth year of professional baseball...was named to the Topps and Baseball America All-Rookie teams.
- Was the premier fielding third baseman in his time, winning six consecutive Rawlings Gold Gloves from 1979-84...finished with a .965 fielding percentage in 2,405 career games, 2,186 of them at third base.
- Three times led the league in fielding, including 1980 (.981), 1982 (.976) and 1987 (.979).
- Finished with 2,514 career hits.
- Like Tigers President and CEO, John McHale, Jr., and General Manager Randy Smith, Bell comes from a solid family background in the game of baseball.
- Buddy's father, Gus, excelled for 15 seasons in the National League (1950-64)... Buddy and Gus hold the all-time major league mark for hits by a father and son with 4,337.
- Also has two sons, David and Mike, in pro ball...David has two seasons of major league experience (1995-96) with Cleveland and St. Louis, while Mike was the Rangers first pick in the 1993 draft (30th overall) and played last season at Double A Tulsa.
- Was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1988...won the Lou Gehrig Award that same year, presented by the Phi Delta Theta national fraternity.
- Attended Xavier (OH) and Miami (OH) Universities...graduated from Cincinnati's Moeller High School.
- In addition to David (9/14/72) and Mike (12/7/94), he and wife Gloria have three more children: Ricky (4/5/79), Kristi (11/27/81) and Traci (9/23/85).
- Maintains off-season homes in the Livonia, MI, and Cincinnati areas.

The Year of Motown Champions, 1935

In 1935, catcher/manager Mickey Cochrane led the Detroit Tigers to their first-ever World Series title as they defeated the Chicago Cubs, four games to two.

Not only was 1935 a great year for the Tigers, but it was also a great one for the entire city of Detroit, known that year as the "City of Champions". The Detroit Lions won the National Football League championship and the National Hockey League's Detroit Red Wings won the Stanley Cup. Detroit also had a minor league hockey team, called the Olympics, win its league championship.

NON-ROSTER PLAYER

1996 Season

Spent the season playing for the Kintetsu Buffaloes of the Japanese Pacific League.

- Put up solid pitching numbers, placing among Pacific League leaders in a number of categories.
- Went 11-9 with a 4.04 ERA (18th in the league) in 25 appearances (all starts)...his win total tied for eighth in the league while his winning percentage (.550) tied for 10th.
- His 11 victories also established his career-high as a professional.

Major League Career

A mid-season trade divided his season between Montreal and San Francisco in 1995.

- Began the campaign with Montreal, making 29 relief appearances...posted an 0-2 record with a 3.89 ERA (16ER/37.1IP).
- Both of his defeats as an Expo were one-run games (June 17 at Cincinnati, 5-4; June 26 at Atlanta, 4-3).
- His three-inning outing vs. Atlanta on June 14 was his longest of the season...surrendered just one hit and faced the minimum number of batters.
- Traded to San Francisco on July 14, where he finished the season...spent two weeks rehabilitating an injury in the minors.

Played the 1994 season with Florida, making 28 relief appearances and one spot start.

- Excelled as the season wore on, lowering his 12.00 ERA on May 1 to a season-ending 3.73 mark.
- Started an August 2 game at Chicago, lasting 5.1 innings and surrendering five hits and two runs...earned no decision in the Marlins 3-2 victory.
- Spent five weeks on the disabled list, including rehab work with two minor league squads.

Split time between the bullpen and the starting rotation throughout 1993.

- Was the first reliever called upon in Marlins history when he replaced Charlie Hough to start the seventh inning on April 5 vs. Los Angeles...surrendered a single to Jody Reed (the only batter he faced).
- Made nine straight starts from May 11-July 3 before being placed on the disabled list on July 6 (retroactive to July 4) with right rotator cuff tendinitis...activated on August 3.

Newhouser Wins Back-to-Back MVPs

Hal Newhouser's blazing fastball made him a strikeout king and in just over 17 seasons in the majors (15 with Detroit), he won 207 games. The most dominant pitcher of the early-to-mid 1940s, Newhouser is also the only pitcher in major league history to win back-to-back Most Valuable Player Awards (1944 and '45).

In all, only 11 players have won back-to-back MVP Awards. The others include Jimmy Foxx (1932 and '33), Yogi Berra (1954 and '55), Mickey Mantle (1956 and '57), Ernie Banks (1958 and '59), Roger Maris (1960 and '61), Joe Morgan (1975 and '76), Mike Schmidt (1980 and '81), Dale Murphy (1982 and '83), Barry Bonds (1992 and '93) and Frank Thomas (1993 and '94).

1996 Season

Saw his first significant action above the Double A level and became the Tigers primary starting centerfielder in the second half, starting 49-of-74 games.

- Hit .271 (49x181) over his final 79 games after batting just .167 (6x36) in his first 31 contests.
- Started each of the Tigers last 18 games.
- Paced the club with 20 steals...also led the team with 13 sacrifice bunts, sixth-most in the American League.
- Stole two bases in a game three times.
- Had 18 infield hits out of 55 total safeties.
- Posted his first major league hit, a fifth inning single, on April 20 off the Angels Jason Grimsley.

- Launched his first major league homer on August 24 off Kansas City's Jose Rosado.
- Batted .500 (12x24) with four stolen bases in 18 games in June...notched a season-high six-game hitting streak from June 8-22, batting .600 (12x20) in the stretch.
- Batted left-handed in three games, going 0x7...worked on becoming a switch-hitter in fall league play.
- Notched four three-hit games (June 8 vs. New York, June 22 vs. Minnesota, July 26 at Seattle and August 20 vs. Chicago)...had 14 multi-hit games on the season.
- Hit primarily out of the ninth spot in the order (54 times), but led off on eight occasions.
- Was a Rule 5 draft pick by Baltimore last season from Minnesota...the Tigers claimed Barteel when the Orioles attempted to return him to the Twins.

Minor League Highlights

Began the 1995 season at Triple A Rochester before being sent to Double A Bowie on April 21.

- Was successful in his first 14 stolen base attempts for the BaySox, a club record.
- Broke the fourth metacarpal bone in his left hand while diving for a ball in center field on June 7 in Binghamton...was on the disabled list until August 19 and was activated after a week's rehab assignment in the Gulf Coast League.
- Stole 22 bases and was caught just seven times at Double A despite playing in just 53 games.
- Rejoined Rochester on September 1 and was added to their post-season roster...hit .364 (4x11) in the International League East championship series with a triple and an RBI.

Hit .318 (129x406) in his final 103 games in 1994 at Class A Frederick.

- His .297 average was eighth-best in the Carolina League...also finished among the league's 10 best in steals (T2-44 in 53 attempts), hits (2nd-150) and runs (2nd-97).
- Baseball America named him the eighth-best prospect in the circuit and the fastest runner.
- Hit safely in 17 straight games from June 8-July 6, batting .401 (43x107) during the stretch to raise his average from .249 to .301.
- Posted a career-high six RBI with a grand slam on April 18 vs. Winston Salem.

Ranked among 1993 Appalachian League leaders in stolen bases (1st-27), runs (T2-52), at-bats (3rd-264) and walks (T3-44).

- Went 5x7 with a homer, four RBI and six runs scored in a two-game span, July 4-5.
- Scored 32 runs in 31 games from July 10-August 12.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Played for the Sun Cities Solar Bears in the 1996 Arizona Fall League where he learned how to switch-hit.

Ruth, Rowe Miss Chances to Manage Tigers

When Tigers owner Frank Navin went looking for a manager before the 1934 season, Babe Ruth was at the top of his list. However, Ruth, after being offered the job, postponed his decision to take a trip to Honolulu, Hawaii. Impatient for Ruth's answer, Navin dumped the home run king and hired Mickey Cochrane instead. Cochrane, of course, went on to be named league MVP as the club's catcher in 1934 and took the Tigers to their first World Series in 25 years.

Former Tiger Lynwood Thomas "Schoolboy" Rowe also had an opportunity to manage the Tigers in 1952 when Walter "Spike" Briggs, Jr., then President of the Tigers, decided to change skippers in mid-season. He first offered the job to former White Sox Hall-of-Famer Ted Lyons who turned it down. Briggs then tried to contact Rowe, but Rowe had gone fishing and could not be reached. Fred Hutchinson, Briggs third choice, ended up with the position, taking over for Red Rolfe.

1996 Season

Appeared in a career-high 60 games, besting his previous high of 47 while with the Rockies.

- All of his work was in relief, marking the first time in his career that he has not started at least one game.
- Led all Padre relievers with 88.0 innings pitched and was third on the club in appearances behind Trevor Hoffman (70) and Doug Bochtler (63).
- Recorded his only save of the season on September 15 vs. Cincinnati, tossing three scoreless innings...it was his first save since 1994.
- In his final 17 appearances, he compiled a 2.93 ERA, giving up just nine earned runs in 27.2 innings...walked just three and fanned 22 during the stretch.
- Also enjoyed early success, giving up just one earned run in 10.1 innings from April 27-May 24, good for a 0.87 ERA.
- Started the season 0-5 before winning his first game on June 29 at San Francisco, a 7-6 triumph.
- Struck out five of seven batters faced on August 5 at St. Louis (2.0IP).
- Retired 73% (44-of-60) first batters faced and allowed 13-of-36 inherited runners to score (36%).
- Enjoyed his best success in day action, going 1-0 with a 1.40 ERA in 16 afternoon games...held batters to a .182 batting average during the day.
- Held the opposition to a .234 average at home with a 3.89 ERA (19ER/44.0IP).
- Appeared in one game of the postseason (Division Series), a 3-1 San Diego loss in Game One against St. Louis...tossed two scoreless innings, allowing one hit, two walks and three strikeouts.

Major League Career

Set a career-high with seven wins in 1995 while splitting time between the starting rotation and bullpen.

- Was 4-4 with a 3.90 ERA in 12 starts (30ER/69.1IP), 3-1 with a 5.04 ERA in relief (25ER/44.2IP)...was used exclusively in relief through July 30 before spending the final two months in the rotation.
- Worked 5.2 relief innings on July 17 vs. Cincinnati, the longest outing by a Padre reliever since July 17, 1991.
- His last start of the season came on September 30 against the Dodgers...gained no decision despite tossing six innings and allowing just one unearned run on five hits.
- Lost his prior start on September 24 at Los Angeles (5ER/5.1IP)...his last win as a starter came on September 19 against Colorado (4ER/5.1IP).
- Posted a 3-1 record with a 1.00 ERA in his first four starts (3ER/27.0IP).
- Went eight shutout innings and earned the win on August 20 at Montreal, his longest outing since August 12, 1993.
- The Padres scored only eight runs in his four losses as a starter.

Started the 1994 campaign as a middle reliever in the Rockies bullpen.

- Made his only start of the year on May 18 against the Dodgers and absorbed his second loss of the season (4ER/5.0IP).
- Posted a 1.86 ERA in August, allowing two earned runs in 9.2 innings while fanning 12 batters.
- Forty-seven appearances were one more than his previous career high.
- Tied with Todd Jones for the third-most relief innings pitched in the National League (72.2).

Spent his first full season on a major league roster in 1993 with Colorado.

- Was selected by Colorado in the first round (11th overall) of the expansion draft.

- Went 1-0 with a 4.50 ERA in 20 relief games before moving into the rotation in May.
- Made his first start on May 18 in San Diego, receiving no decision in a 2-1, 11-inning loss despite going nine frames, allowing one run and striking out a career-high eight.
- His first complete game came on August 12 at Dodger Stadium...the win completed a four-game sweep of Los Angeles, the first time in major league history that an expansion team had accomplished the feat against an established club.
- The Rockies scored just 14 runs in his 10 defeats as a starter.
- Missed two-and-a-half weeks of action after suffering a right elbow injury on August 24 at Philadelphia...was not placed on the disabled list.

After opening the 1992 season in the minors, he was promoted to Houston on June 12.

- Made his National League debut on June 14 in relief at San Francisco...followed with four consecutive starts, all losses.
- Picked up his first senior circuit win in relief on July 9 against the Mets, tossing six innings and giving up four hits.
- Enjoyed his best success out of the bullpen, posting a 4-2 mark with a 2.68 ERA in 21 games (12ER/40.1IP).

Was acquired by Houston from Cleveland along with Eddie Taubensee on December 10, 1991, in exchange for Kenny Lofton and Dave Rohde.

- Opened the season at Triple A before being recalled on May 14...made two appearances before returning to the minors on May 22.
- Returned to the Indians to stay on August 17.
- Had a pair of eight-inning performances, winning against the White Sox (August 23) and Twins (September 4).

Earned a spot on the Toronto Blue Jays 1990 Opening Day roster, his first taste of major league action.

- Made his big league debut on April 11 with two scoreless relief innings vs. Texas.
- Posted a 1.17 ERA in the season's first month (five games).

Minor League Highlights

Opened the 1992 season with the Astros Triple A Tucson affiliate before joining the Houston club in mid-June.

- Has not returned to the minors since his June 12 promotion.
- His 2.39 ERA was second-lowest on the Toros staff.

His nine wins in 1991 at Colorado Springs were tied for second-most on the club.

Tied for the 1989 Syracuse club lead with three complete games despite starting only 17 games.

Opened the 1988 season on the disabled list after undergoing knee surgery on March 30.

- Made nine starts at Double A, his first pro action as a starter.

Ranked fourth among 1987 Florida State League hurlers with 45 games finished.

- Led Dunedin with 50 games pitched and 13 saves.

Was named the 1986 team MVP at St. Catharines (A) in his first season of professional action.

- Went a perfect 5-0 with a league-high 12 saves.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Attended Morehead (KY) State University and Johnson (KY) Central High School.

- He, wife Trina and children Paige (9/23/91) and Taylor (11/19/94) reside in Lexington, KY, in the off-season.
- Played winter ball in Venezuela in 1989.

BLAIR'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by Toronto in the 11th round of the 1986 June draft.
- On disabled list, April 8-May 4, 1988 (knee surgery).

 Trevor Miller, Jose Lima and Daryle Ward

1996 Season

Split time between the bullpen and starting rotation in his second season with the Astros.

- His first six appearances came out of the bullpen...earned his only win with 5.1 frames of three-hit relief vs. Cincinnati on April 19, a 13-5 Houston win.
- The win over the Reds marked his longest career effort out of the pen and a high for Astros relievers in 1996...also had a season-high six strikeouts, a career-high for him in his relief work.
- Moved into the starting rotation after that win for the injured Greg Swindell and made four starts between April 24-May 10.
- Lost three-of-four starts despite allowing 10 earned runs in 22.0 innings (4.09 ERA).
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on May 14 due to a fraying of his right biceps tendon, which was surgically repaired on June 10...was moved to the 60-day disabled list on June 29 before being reinstated on August 15.
- Saw action in two minor league rehabilitation stints, the first from May 27-June 3 at Double A Jackson and later from July 29-August 15 at Triple A Tucson.
- Dropped his final five decisions, the longest losing streak of the year for an Astros pitcher.
- Held righthanded batters to a .246 batting average against (30x127).

- Did not surrender a home run in his final 13 games after giving up seven in his first 10 contests.

Major League Career

Opened the 1995 season on the major league level with Houston, making seven starts and 29 relief appearances.

- Was 4-2 with a 3.03 ERA in 29 relief efforts (13ER/38.2IP).
- Pitched in four relief games in May (4.0IP), allowing just one unearned run.
- Was optioned to Triple A on May 15 because rosters were reduced from 28 to 25 players and to move him into the starting rotation...was recalled on June 2.
- Gained no decision in his first start on June 6 against Florida, working 5.1 innings and allowing just three hits and three runs in a 7-6 loss.
- Returned to the pen for 15 outings before making his second start on August 4 at Pittsburgh in game two of a doubleheader, a game he won 5-4.
- Earned his first big league save on June 16 at New York with a scoreless inning of work.
- Went back into the rotation in mid-August...gained no decision on August 17 vs. the Phillies (3-2 loss), working a season-high seven innings and giving up one run.

Spent much of the 1994 season on the disabled list with a bone spur in his right elbow.

- Had surgery on April 4 to remove the spur...was sent to Double A Wichita on May 26 for rehab.
- After two games at Double A, he moved to Triple A for seven additional outings...was activated from the disabled list on June 28.
- Pitched in 12 games for the Padres, all in relief...allowed just one run in his final five major league appearances (6.2IP).

Was third on the Padres with 24 starts in 1993, his first full rookie season in the majors.

- Was promoted from Triple A on June 1 and won his first big league game that night, allowing one run in six innings of a 2-1 decision over Atlanta.
- Equalled his career-best with seven strikeouts on June 11 against Los Angeles.
- Pitched a career-high eight innings and gave up no runs in a 2-0 win over Cincinnati on June 26...the outing began a stretch where he allowed just five earned runs in 21.0 innings (2.14 ERA), covering four games.
- From August 18-September 9, he allowed only six earned runs in 28.0 innings (1.93 ERA).
- Snapped a personal seven-game losing skid with seven shutout frames in an 11-0 win on August 29 at Pittsburgh.
- Had a pair of hits and stole a base in a start on July 11 in Montreal...the steal was the first by a Padre pitcher since Mark Davis on April 29, 1988, and was the first of two on the season for Brocail (also stole a base on September 8 against Florida).

Saw his first major league action in 1992 after being promoted to San Diego on September 7.

- Made his major league debut in a start on September 8 at San Francisco but did not figure in the decision of a 6-5, extra-inning loss.
- Did not receive a decision in three games, all starts.

Minor League Highlights

Made three starts at Triple A Tucson from May 15-June 2, 1995.

- Began the season on the major league level but was sent to Triple A when rosters were reduced from 28 to 25.

Started the 1992 campaign at Triple A Las Vegas before joining the Padres late in the season.

- Went 3-0 in August with a 3.09 ERA and a pair of complete games.

Compiled a 30-inning scoreless streak in August of 1991 at Wichita (AA), his third season at Double A.

- Included in the stretch were three consecutive shutouts...his efforts earned him back-to-back Texas League Player of the Week honors.

Battled injury for much of the 1990 season with a strain of the ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow.

- Was on the disabled list twice (May 1-11 and June 8-17).

Placed third on the 1989 Wichita staff with 95 strikeouts.

Fanned better than a batter per inning in 1988 for Class A Charleston (108SO/107.0IP).

- Made 13 starts and went the distance five times.

- Averaged only 2.7 walks per nine innings in 1987 at Charleston (28BB/92.1IP).
 • Was a first-round selection by the Padres in the 1986 January free agent draft.

Personal/Miscellaneous

- Has been included in a 12-player trade (December 28, 1994) and a 10-player deal (December 10, 1996), both brokered by Tigers General Manager Randy Smith.
- The 12-player trade was the largest in the majors since November 20, 1957, and the biggest in Astros history...the 10-man deal was the biggest for the Tigers since 13 players were swapped by Detroit and Kansas City in that very same trade on November 20, 1957.
 - Was an all-state athlete in football, basketball and baseball at Lamar (CO) High School...tossed three no-hitters and fanned 156 batters in 76 innings at Lamar to win Colorado Pitcher of the Year honors in 1985.
 - Attended Lamar Community College before being drafted.
 - He, wife Lisa, and daughters Taylor (3/7/90), McKinzie (7/6/91) and Madisyne (1/3/94) make their off-season home in Missouri City, TX.

BROCAIL'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

1996 Season

Had two stints with the Tigers after being acquired in a March trade with San Diego.

- Began the season at Triple A Toledo...had a stretch of five consecutive games with a homer (April 24-28).
- Earned Triple A Player of the Week honors for April 22-28, hitting safely in each of six games.
- Was recalled for the first time on May 24 and made his major league debut that night against Cleveland, going 0x4.
- Notched his first major league hit on May 27 at Kansas City off Tim Belcher...recorded his first big league homer two nights later, blasting one of four Tiger roundtrippers that night off the Royals Kevin Appier.

- Recorded two homers, one from each side of the plate, on June 6 at Ballimore... became the first Tiger since September 7, 1993 (Chad Kreuter) to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game.
- Fractured the hamate bone in his left wrist on a second-inning single on June 18 vs. Oakland...underwent surgery at Henry Ford Hospital on June 21 (Dr. Joseph Failla) and was on the disabled list from June 19-August 13.
- Was optioned to Toledo after being activated from the disabled list...remained at Triple A until being recalled on September 3.
- Appeared in 10 games after his second recall, posting a .286 average (8x28) and hitting safely in seven of the games.
- Started 22 games total for the Tigers...eight of thirty-four runners attempting to steal were caught while he was catching (24%).
- Earned Baseball America's nod as the Tigers third-best prospect.

Minor League Highlights

Was limited to just 89 games in 1995 with two different ankle injuries.

- Was batting .242 through May 13 when he was placed on the disabled list with the first injury.
- Homered in three consecutive games immediately after being activated on June 2.
- Was placed on the disabled list again on July 3 when he was spiked on the ankle.
- Hit .364 (16x44) with five doubles, three homers and 11 RBI in 13 games from July 18-August 1.
- Was voted as the Padres sixth-best prospect by Baseball America.

Enjoyed a break-out season in 1994, leading the California League with a .340 batting average and 160 hits in being named by the circuit's managers as "The Most Dangerous Hitter."

- Was also ranked among the league's best with 120 RBI and a .552 slugging percentage (both 2nd), 23 homers (T3), and 42 extra-base hits (4th).
- Earned a spot on the All-Star team and helped Rancho Cucamonga take the league title.
- Earned the Padres Organizational Player of the Year honors and was named Baseball America's Class A All-Star catcher.
- Was Topps Player of the Month for the Cal League in July, batting .468 (36x77) with six homers and 31 RBI...hit .385 (90x234) with 73 RBI in 59 games from June 18 through the season's end, never going more than one game without a hit.
- Posted the best overall average among all minor league switch-hitters and was fourth in RBI...had three, five-RBI games.
- Spent time on the disabled list with a wrist injury (July 17-26).
- Nailed 37% (34-of-92) runners attempting to steal, including four runners in the first three innings of a June 11 game at Bakersfield.

Was acquired by San Diego from the Mets in the fall following the 1993 season.

- Played in just 76 games, missing nearly a month with a right ankle sprain (May 18-June 7).

Tied for third on his 1992 Kingsport club with 27 RBI in 42 games.

- Saw his first action at the full-season Class A level, playing in five games at Columbia (South Atlantic League).

Split time between the Gulf Coast League (Sarasota) Mets and short-season Class A Kingsport in 1991.

Reported to the Gulf Coast League for his first professional action after being selected by the Mets in the eighth round of the June 1990 draft.

Personal/Miscellaneous

He, wife Dali and son Raulito (6/1/94) make their off-season home in Ponce, PR.

- Played winter ball in Puerto Rico from 1990-96, batting .233 in 14 games this past off-season...his 1993 Santurce club won the Puerto Rican Winter League championship.
- Played American Legion baseball...his club finished in second place among all 1989 American Legion teams.
- Attended Ponce High School.

CASANOVA'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

1996 Season

Was recalled from Triple A on June 7 and went on to finish third in voting for American League Rookie of the Year.

- Named Tiger Rookie of the Year by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association.
- Led the club with 27 homers despite appearing in just 100 games.
- The 27 longballs were the most by a Tiger rookie since Matt Nokes clubbed 32 in 1987.
- Finished behind winner Derek Jeter and runner-up James Baldwin in BBWAA American League Rookie of the Year balloting...was named by Baseball America as the major leagues' sixth-best rookie.
- Also was named to Topps Rookie All-Star team at first base...paced all major league rookies in homers.
- Earned American League Player of the Week for September 23-29...was the only Tiger to earn the honor in '96.
- Belted a combined 41 homers with 108 RBI between Toledo and Detroit.
- Enjoyed his first career two-homer game on September 15 vs. Baltimore and duplicated the feat on September 29 vs. Milwaukee...his first homer on the 15th cleared the right field roof, the 30th homer in Tiger Stadium history to be hit out of the stadium.
- Went 3x5 with a homer on September 25 vs. Toronto, his third three-hit game of the season (a career-high).
- Homered five times in his last eight games and hit one-or-more roundtrippers in 10 of his final 30 games...notched 18 homers in his last 60 games.
- Batted .300 (15x50) in his last 13 contests...had 24 RBI in his final 18 games.
- Notched four RBI twice (August 1 against California and September 15 vs. Baltimore), establishing a new career-high.
- Recorded his first career grand slam on August 1 in Detroit off California's Shawn Boskie in a 13-5 win.
- Had a game-winning, RBI-single in the ninth inning on August 8 in a 3-2 win over Texas.
- Started 53-of-54 Tiger games at first base after Cecil Fielder was traded to New York on July 31.
- Earned Tigers Player of the Month for August with a .264 average, six homers and 18 RBI...also earned the honor in September, batting .250 with nine homers and 25 RBI.
- Had a pair of six-game hitting streaks (June 8-14 and June 25-July 1), tying for his career-best.
- Forty-one of his 94 total hits went for extra bases.
- Raised his Toledo average from .256 on May 20 to .299 on June 6, the day before his recall to Detroit.

Major League Career

Was recalled from Toledo on September 2, 1995 for his first taste of major league action.

- Recorded his first two hits in his first game on September 3 vs. Cleveland...both hits came off Indians closer Jose Mesa.
- Hit safely in each of his first five games (.350; 7x20), including his first big league homer on September 8 at Toronto off Jeff Ware.
- Had one-or-more hits in eight of his first nine big-league contests, batting .278 (10x36).
- Posted a six-game hitting streak (.478; 11x23) to close the season before going hitless in his final game on October 1 at Baltimore.

Minor League Highlights

Was named by Baseball America as the Tigers best prospect entering the 1995 campaign.

- Responded by tying for the Toledo club lead with 13 homers and placed second with 63 RBI in 110 games.
- Posted career-highs in games played (110), at-bats (405) and walks (52).
- Paced the International League with 129 strikeouts.

Enjoyed his first action above the Class A level in 1994, splitting the season between Trenton (AA) and Toledo (AAA).

- Combined for an organizational-high 99 RBI and tied for the Tiger minor league lead with 23 homers.
- Earned a spot on the Eastern League All-Star team at designated hitter.
- Led the Trenton club in batting average (.279), homers (21) and RBI (86).
- Was hampered in spring training by a partially torn arch in his right foot, but recovered in time to report to regular season action.

Was limited to just 36 games in 1993 and 27 in 1992 with a partially torn right wrist ligament.

Missed the entire 1991 season with a back injury suffered playing college basketball, undergoing surgery during the summer.

Reported to Bristol for his first professional action after being selected by the Tigers as the number two overall selection in the 1990 June draft.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Played collegiate basketball at the University of Arizona and San Diego State University.

- Led the SDSU Aztecs in scoring in Western Athletic Conference games with 11.5 points per contest in 1991-92.
- Earned All-America and Academic All-America honors in baseball and basketball at Christian High School in El Cajon, CA...led all state basketball players with 43.7 points per game in his senior season, and his 2,549 career points was a San Diego area high school record.
- Was the Tigers highest selection in the June draft since the club took Steve Kemp with the first overall pick in the 1976 draft.
- Brother, Greg, is a freshman on the Long Beach State basketball team.
- He, wife Frances and daughter Kiara (9/20/94) reside in El Cajon, CA in the off-season.

20-20 Tigers

Chad Curtis, Kirk Gibson and Alan Trammell are the only three players in club history to hit 20 home runs and steal 20 bases in the same season.

1997 TIGERS

NON-ROSTER PLAYER

1996 Season

Was invited to the Reds camp as a non-roster player and was on the major league club's Opening Day roster.

- Was successful on 85.7% of his steal attempts (12-of-14)...stole two bases on three occasions, including on May 12 against San Diego when his second theft gave him career steal number 750.
- Was not caught in his final seven stolen base attempts.
- Went hitless in his first two games before posting a pair of safeties and two walks on April 4 against the Expos.
- Went 2x5 with two RBI and his only homer of the season on April 14 vs. Houston.
- Was sent to Triple A Indianapolis on May 29...appeared in seven games before being waived on June 18.
- Was signed to a minor league contract by California on June 27...played in 21 games for Vancouver from July 6-August 2.

Major League Career

Was signed by Kansas City to a minor league contract on April 26, 1995, and joined the parent club after a brief stint at Triple A.

- Posted a pair of hits with a double and a homer in his first game with the parent club on May 7 against the White Sox at Chicago.
- Notched a career-high 17-game hitting streak from May 22-June 15, batting .391 (27x69) to raise his average to .345.
- Was successful on 26-of-35 stolen base attempts with the Royals.
- Was traded to Seattle on August 15 for a player-to-be-named (Jim Converse)...after his acquisition, the Mariners went 28-15.
- Forty-two total steals for the year ranked fifth in the league.
- Notched a four-hit game on September 15 at Comiskey against the White Sox with two singles, a double and a triple.
- Played in five games of the Division Series against the Yankees...went 2x5 with a pair of runs scored and two RBI in Game Two.
- Appeared in all six of the American League Championship Series games against Cleveland and paced the team with four stolen bases.

Joined the Kansas City organization prior to the 1994 season after a trade with the Mets.

- Played in more than 100 games (104) for the first time in four seasons and saw his first American League action after eight years in the senior circuit.
- Stole 50 bases, second-most in the American League.
- Tied a league record for the fewest times caught stealing with 50-or-more successful stolen bases (eight).
- Hit at a .363 clip (37x102) over his final 26 games with 23 runs scored.

Swiped a team-high 38 bases, ninth-most in the league, in 1993 for the Mets.

- Was tied for fifth in the circuit with eight triples.
- Did not play after July 31 due to an incident in Los Angeles on July 24 involving a firecracker...left the team on August 3 and remained on an administrative leave of absence with pay for the balance of the season.
- Performed 200 hours of community service as a result of the incident.
- At the time of his administrative leave he was ranked first in triples and stolen bases and was 10th in runs scored.

Suffered through an injury-riddled 1992 season with three stints on the disabled list.

- Suffered a strained left hamstring on April 9, shelving him until May 1...had one at-bat before tearing his left rib cage muscle, resulting in a May 2-28 stay on the DL.

- Went back on the injury list from June 27-July 27 with a strained left knee tendon...suffered the injury making the last of his Mets club record four steals in a game on June 26 at St. Louis, also marking the 600th stolen base of his career.
- Was limited to 40 games and 115 at-bats after July 27 due to hamstring and rib cage injuries.

Was limited to 70 starts in 1991 due to a left hamstring strain.

- After suffering the injury on June 14, he made only 15 starts the remainder of the season.
- Was still able to place seventh in the National League with 37 stolen bases.
- Recorded his 1,000th career hit on July 29 off the Dodgers Tim Lincecum.

Led the National League with 77 stolen bases in 1990, his sixth consecutive season leading the league.

- Tied Maury Wills of the Dodgers for most years in a row leading the league in steals.
- Established career-highs with a .292 batting average and six home runs.
- Posted a 15-game hitting streak from August 15-September 1 (23x67), a career-high for him at that point.

Completed a new major league record in 1989 with 50 consecutive successful stolen base attempts beginning September 19, 1988 and continuing through July 26 of the next year.

- The streak came to an end on July 28 when he was nailed at Montreal by catcher Nelson Santovenia...was successful on his final six attempts of '88 and his first 44 of the next season.
- Shattered the old mark of 38 held by Davey Lopes.
- Was named to his second consecutive All-Star squad.

Recorded his 400th career stolen base on September 14, 1988 at Philadelphia.

- Was named a starting outfielder on the National League All-Star team, going 1x2 with a stolen base and scoring the only NL run of the contest.
- Had his first straight steal of home on April 23 vs. the Mets...knocked in a career-best four runs in the same contest.

Became the first major league player in history to steal 100-or-more bases in each of his first three seasons when he was successful in an attempt on September 12, 1987, against the Mets.

- Joined Rickey Henderson as the only players to record three 100-steal seasons.
- Reached base by a hit or walk in 50 consecutive games from April 22-June 21, and in 137 of his 151 total games played.
- Hit his second major league homer, and first to clear the fence, on August 26 off the Astros Jim Deshaies...the homer came in his 1,914th career plate appearance.
- Was second in the league with 121 runs scored and tied for second with 16 outfield assists.
- In the National League Championship Series against the Giants, he batted leadoff in all seven games.
- Posted a pair of hits in two of the games (Games Four and Five) as St. Louis won the series, 4-3.
- Stole six bases in the World Series but St. Louis fell to Minnesota in seven games.

His major-league high 107 stolen bases in 1986 made him the first National League player to total two 100-plus steal seasons in a career.

- Collected three sacrifice flies on May 1 in San Diego to tie a major league record.
- Was successful on 28 consecutive stolen base attempts from July 22-August 26.
- Stole his 100th base of the season on September 21 at Montreal, joining Rickey Henderson as the only players to steal 100 bases more than once.

Joined the Cardinals major league team for the first time on April 17, 1985, to replace the injured Tito Landrum.

- His debut came on April 18 with a 1x3, two stolen base effort against Montreal.
- Belted his first major league homer, an inside-the-park effort, on May 21 against Atlanta's Len Barker.
- His 110 stolen bases established a major league mark for a rookie, shattering the record of 72 set the season before by Juan Samuel.
- Became the fourth player in major league history to steal at least 100 bases in a season when he was successful on an attempt on September 19 at Philadelphia.
- Teamed with Willie McGee to steal 166 bases, establishing an all-time major league record for stolen bases by teammates.
- Became just the fourth player to be named unanimously by the BBWAA as National League Rookie of the Year.
- Was also named by The Sporting News as Rookie of the Year and was voted to the Topps Rookie All-Star Team.

- A freak accident sidelined him prior to Game Four of the League Championship Series against the Dodgers...a tarp machine rolled over his left leg, causing a tiny bone chip on the outside part of the knee and forcing him out of the remainder of the NLCS and World Series.

Minor League Highlights

Led the American Association in 1984 with 97 runs scored and 608 at-bats in addition to setting an all-time league mark with 101 stolen bases.

Led 1983 South Atlantic League players with a .350 batting average and an all-time professional record of 145 stolen bases at Macon.

- Named to the All-Star team and was tabbed the team's most promising prospect.
- Converted to a switch-hitter after starting as a strictly righthanded batter.

Tied for first among Appalachian League players with 42 stolen bases in 1982 at Johnson City, his first professional season.

Miscellaneous

In leading the National League for six consecutive seasons in stolen bases (1985-90), he averaged 91.5 per season.

- Was the fastest major league player to reach stolen base number 600 (981 games, breaking Rickey Henderson's mark of 983) and 400 (599 games).
- Ranks sixth in major league history (and third among active players) with 752 stolen bases...the top 10 includes Rickey Henderson (1,186), Lou Brock (938), Billy Hamilton (912), Ty Cobb (891), Tim Lincecum (787), COLEMAN (752), Eddie Collins (744), Arlie Latham (739), Max Carey (738) and Honus Wagner (722).

Personal

Received his degree in physical education from Florida A&M University.

- Was FAMU's placekicker and punter, averaging 41.1 yards per punt in his senior season...earned an invitation to the Freedom Bowl All-Star Game.
- Led NCAA players twice in stolen bases, including 65 in his junior year...once stole seven bases in a game.
- Attended the Washington Redskins mini-camp in May of 1982.
- Is a cousin of former NFL punter Greg Coleman.
- Graduated from Raines (FL) High School.
- He, wife Lynette, and children Maurice (6/1/88) and Lance (1/29/90) reside in Scottsdale, AZ, in the off-season.

1996 Season

Spent the majority of the season with the Padres Triple A Las Vegas affiliate but made seven major league appearances with Philadelphia and San Diego.

- Relieved three times for the Padres in a mid-season stint with the club (July 7-14)... totaled 2.1 innings of work.
- Made four more appearances at the major league level after being claimed by the Phillies on September 12.
- Became the 54th player for the Phillies to appear in a game, tying the major league record set by the New York Mets in 1967.
- Started in place of the suspended Mike Williams on September 29 against Colorado, his first start since September 20, 1995...tossed four frames and earned no decision.
- Started 26 games for Las Vegas...posted a three-game winning streak from May 19-31, including a seven-inning, one-hit shutout vs. Edmonton on May 25.

- Notched 11 strikeouts in a win over Tucson on August 8 (2ER/8.2IP).
- Held lefthanders to a .229 average at Triple A (30x131).
- Walked an average of 2.5 batters per nine innings.

Major League Career

Saw his first big league action in 1995, appearing in 19 games.

- Was recalled from Triple A on June 22 and made his major league debut that day vs. Colorado...tossed five innings and allowed three runs in absorbing a 3-2 setback.
- Earned his first win on June 27 at Los Angeles, 14-3, going six innings and allowing three hits and one earned run...became the first Padre rookie starter to win a game since Eric Nolte on August 29, 1987 against Philadelphia.
- Went 2-2 with a 2.23 ERA in his first six starts.
- In game one of a July 8 doubleheader at Houston, he allowed one run in the first before tossing eight shutout frames with two walks and a career-high five strikeouts...the Astros won, however, 3-2 in 17 innings.
- In his first start after the All-Star break, he held Atlanta to two hits and one unearned run in 7.1 innings of a 3-1 victory.
- Lost his final four decisions of the season (six starts).
- Gave up nine homers in his first 10 starts but allowed just two in his final seven starting assignments.
- Worked out of the pen on August 26 at New York, the first relief effort of his pro career.

Minor League Highlights

Went at least seven innings in each of 14 starts at Triple A Las Vegas in 1995 before a June recall to the Padres.

- Allowed two earned runs-or-less in nine outings.
- In his final nine starts he went 4-1 with a 2.22 ERA.
- Ranked second in the Pacific Coast League with a 2.55 ERA and 64 strikeouts at the time of his promotion...placed first among PCL starters with a .225 batting average against and runners per nine innings (9.4) and second in walks per nine frames (1.5).

Opened the 1994 season at Double A Wichita before moving to Las Vegas on August 27.

- Finished the season with 144 strikeouts, fourth among all minor league pitchers and tops in the Padres system.
- Placed first in the Texas League (AA) with 165 strikeouts (six shy of the Wranglers club record), 35 more than the second-highest total and third-most in all of Double A baseball.
- Was second in ERA (2.82), third in strikeouts per nine innings (8.8) and innings pitched (169.1) and tied for fifth in wins (11).
- Earned Texas League All-Star honors...allowed two earned runs-or-less in 15-of-27 starts at Wichita.
- Went 3-0 with a 1.65 ERA (6ER/32.2IP) and 34 strikeouts in his first five starts for Wichita.
- Recorded 12 strikeouts out of 13 total outs on May 31 at El Paso.
- Began a June 29 win at Midland with six perfect innings.
- Struck out 11 batters on two occasions (April 30 at San Antonio and May 10 at Tulsa).
- Fanned 12 and walked just one in 13.0 innings after his promotion to Triple A.

Was named MVP of the 1993 Spokane club after signing as a non-drafted free agent.

- Tossed a no-hitter on July 17 at Yakima...had a perfect game until two were out in the ninth.
- Ranked third in the Northwest League with a 2.20 ERA...was among league leaders in shutouts (T3-2), complete games (T2-2) and strikeouts (T2-79).
- Fanned 9.1 batters and walked 1.5 batters per nine innings, leading the league in both categories.
- Was named Player of the Week twice and was chosen for the postseason All-Star team.
- Made two starts at Class A Rancho Cucamonga after a late-season promotion.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Attended Cal Berkeley for three years before earning his degree in business administration from Texas Christian University.

- Engaged to be married to Kara Tolany...resides in Ft. Worth, TX in the off-season.

1997 TIGERS

NON-ROSTER PLAYER

1996 Season

Earned nomination by Baseball America as the top pitching prospect in the Southern League.

- Was ranked as the circuit's fourth-best prospect overall and the Tigers top-rated farmhand...his curveball was rated best among all pitchers in the league.
- Limited opposing batters to a .220 batting average in his first full season of pro action.
- Started out of the gate quickly, winning his first four decisions (covering eight starts).
- The third win in the streak came on May 1 in a complete-game, six-hit shutout at Huntsville.
- Had back-to-back 10-strikeout games on May 21 against Orlando (5.2IP) and May 26 at Carolina (4.2IP)...recorded 20 strikeouts out of 31 total outs in the stretch.
- Was hampered by a recurring right shoulder strain that landed him on the disabled list three times (June 15-July 1, July 13-August 26 and September 2-25)...missed the entire slate of playoff action for the Suns.
- Was equally effective against righthanded (.223 average against) and lefthanded (.217) batters...leadoff batters notched just 13 walks and 14 hits in 102 plate appearances (.161 average, .265 on-base percentage).
- Enjoyed his best success away from home, going 4-2 with a 2.15 ERA...at home, however, he fanned 64 batters in 53.2 innings.

Minor League Highlights

Saw his first pro action in 1995 and was tabbed as the Tigers top prospect by Baseball America.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Compiled a 23-8 record in three seasons at Wichita State University before joining the Tigers.

- Went 11-3 with a 3.61 ERA as a senior in 1995, fanning 117 batters in 119.2 innings pitched.
- Single and makes his off-season home in Valley Center, KS.

DRUMRIGHT'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by Detroit in the first round (11th overall) of the June 1995 draft.
- On disabled list, June 15-July 1, 1996 (right shoulder strain).
- On disabled list, July 13-August 26, 1996 (right shoulder strain).
- On disabled list, September 2-25, 1996 (right shoulder strain).

1996 Season

Fanned a combined career-high 128 batters in 129.0 innings at Dunedin (A) and Knoxville (AA) of the Blue Jays organization.

- The year marked his first in seven pro seasons that he has not averaged more than one strikeout per nine innings...in his career, he has fanned 10.4 batters per nine innings pitched (494SO/419.2IP).
- Was acquired by the Blue Jays off waivers from Los Angeles during spring training.
- Began the year at Dunedin with eight starts, never allowing more than three earned runs in a game and held the opposition to a .188 batting average.
- Allowed no earned runs in four of his starts...included was a three game stretch of allowing no runs, 11 hits and six walks in 18.1 innings while striking out 23.
- Allowed one hit in seven shutout innings on April 10 at Fort Myers and struck out nine batters.
- Closed his Dunedin work with a complete-game, three-hit shutout on May 14 against Kissimmee...tied his season-best with nine strikeouts.
- Joined Knoxville and made his first career Double A start on May 19, losing against Carolina (3ER/5.1IP).
- Went 1-1 with a 3.31 ERA in May action (6ER/16.1IP), but struggled to a 1-2 mark and 6.17 ERA in June (16ER/23.1IP) and 1-1 record with a 7.84 ERA in his first three July games (9ER/10.1IP).
- In his final eight games of the season, he posted a 3.77 ERA (12ER/28.2IP), 2.84 in his last four games (4ER/12.2).
- Held righthanded batters to a .238 average, lefthanders to a .246 mark.
- Totaled 19 games for Knoxville, 16 of them starts...fanned nearly a batter per inning (74SO/80.2IP), but also battled his control (61 walks).
- Was recalled by the Blue Jays on September 23 but did not appear in a game.

Minor League Highlights

For the third consecutive season in 1995, he ranked among league leaders in strikeouts per nine innings, pacing Florida State League starters with an average of 10.2 punchouts.

- Was the fourth most difficult starter in the league to hit against, holding opponents to a .219 batting average.
- Was fifth in the league with 70 walks.
- Went 2-0 with a 1.03 ERA in May (3ER/26.1IP).
- Combined with two others to throw a seven-inning no-hitter on June 28 vs. West Palm Beach...pitched the first five innings.

Paced California League (A) relievers in 1994 with 11.2 strikeouts per nine innings at Bakersfield.

- Went 4-2 with a 3.44 ERA and 49 strikeouts in 36.2 innings at home.

Began the 1993 season with Class A Vero Beach before ending the season at Yakima (A).

- Was third among Northwest League relievers with an average of 12.0 strikeouts per nine frames.

Led all short-season pitchers in 1992 with 13.3 strikeouts per nine innings and a .168 batting average against.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Attended Liceo Domingo High School in the Dominican Republic.

- Makes his off-season home in Moca, Dominican Republic.

1996 Season

Raised his season average 112 points after coming to Detroit in a July 31 trade with the Angels (.156 to .268).

- Hit safely in 14-of-21 games as a Tiger...posted seven multi-hit games in just 17 starts, including three straight from August 9-11 at New York.
- Tied his career-high with three hits in each of the first two games at Yankee Stadium (August 9-10).
- Hit .375 over his last 17 games (21x56) with seven multi-hit efforts.
- Hit safely in eight straight games from August 21-September 15, batting .407 (11x27) in the stretch.
- Knocked in a career-high four RBI on August 10 at New York.
- Missed 28 of the Tigers final 31 games, primarily due to a hamstring injury suffered on August 25 at Kansas City and aggravated on September 15 vs. Baltimore...also sprained his right ankle on September 11 against the Yankees, forcing him to miss a pair of contests.
- Started games for Detroit at second (six games), third (two), short (eight) and designated hitter (once).
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list the day before Opening Day with a sore right shoulder...was activated on May 10 after rehab stints with Triple A Vancouver (April 30-May 3) and Double A Midland (May 6-9).
- Had just seven hits in 45 at-bats for the Angels, six of them coming in a four game span...recorded back-to-back, two-hit games on June 10-11 at Kansas City and another pair of safeties vs. Toronto on June 13.
- Was optioned to Vancouver on July 20 where he remained until the trade...went 4x5 at Colorado Springs on July 25.

Major League Career

Earned a spot on the Angels Opening Day roster for the third consecutive season in 1995.

- Started Opening Day at second base, the first of 82 starts at the position...also was in the lineup 25 times as the starting shortstop.

- Had 18 multiple-hit games...equaled his career-high with three, three-hit games.
- Notched a pair of three-RBI games in a span of three days (July 4 and July 6) against Toronto.
- Despite hitting just .216, he recorded averages of .385 vs. New York and .318 against Milwaukee.
- Missed four games with a sprained left knee, suffered on September 11 vs. Chicago.

Began the 1994 season by appearing in 47 of the Angels first 51 games at third base, 44 of them starts, before falling to an injury.

- Was on the 15-day disabled list from May 30-June 17 with an inflamed right shoulder.
- Returned to play mainly at second base, appearing in 40-of-41 games at the position (one pinch-hitting assignment).
- Established career-highs with six homers and 30 RBI.
- Hit .267 in April before falling to .215 by season's end.
- Posted a career-best three hits three times, including a 3x6 effort with three runs scored on Opening Day (April 5) vs. Minnesota.
- Recorded his first career two-homer game and matched his best with three RBI on August 5 against Chicago and Wilson Alvarez...became the first Angels second baseman in 11 years to hit two homers in a game (Bobby Grich, June 25, 1983 vs. Kansas City).
- Posted a .994 fielding percentage as a second baseman, making one error in 179 chances.

Opened 1993 as California's starting second baseman despite missing most of spring training with shin splints.

- Became the Angels fifth starter in six seasons at second (Mark McLemore 1988, Johnny Ray 1989-90, Luis Sojo 1991, Bobby Rose 1992).
- Compiled a career-best 10-game hitting streak from June 5-16, batting .333 (12x36).
- Was placed on the disabled list from June 19-July 4 with shin splint troubles.
- Went 3x4 in his first game back on July 4, starting his first game at third base since October 3, 1992, vs. Texas.
- Returned to the disabled list on July 28 with shin splints, cutting his season short...underwent surgery (performed by Dr. Lewis Yocum of Centinela Hospital) on August 24 in a fasciotomy of the deep posterior compartment (a procedure that cuts muscle tissue from the lower leg bone).
- Overall enjoyed his best season with a .313 average in 73 games.

Made his major league debut on August 13, 1992 at Oakland after having his contract purchased the previous day.

- Posted no hits in his first nine at-bats before singling off Oakland's Kelly Downs on August 16...continued to hit in seven straight games and 10-of-11 to raise his average to .326.
- Went 5x8 with three doubles, his first major-league extra-base hits, from August 26-28.
- Hit his first home run on September 20 vs. Minnesota in a pinch at-bat against closer Rick Aguilera...connected with a three-run shot in the eighth inning to erase a 4-2 deficit, but the Twins came back to win.
- Reached the major leagues after just two full minor league seasons.

Minor League Highlights

Started the 1992 season at short for Triple A Edmonton but was switched to third base on August 6 at the request of the parent club.

- Recorded multiple hits in six consecutive games, May 31-June 6 (.542; 13x24).
- Hit .371 in May (36x97) and .343 in June (37x108).
- Was 1x3 and played shortstop in the Triple A All-Star Game in Richmond, VA.

Registered 31 multi-hit games in 127 contests during the 1991 season at Midland.

- Led the club with six sacrifices and seven hit-by-pitches.
- Posted a personal pro high of six RBI on July 19 vs. Shreveport, going 3x6 with a homer and a double.

Was ranked by Baseball America as the Midwest League's 10th-best prospect after the 1990 season at Quad City.

- Was named to the Midwest League's All-Star team at shortstop.
- Finished second on the team with 100 hits, trailing league leader and teammate Chad Curtis...Curtis was traded from Detroit to Los Angeles on the same day that Easley arrived from California (July 31, 1996).

Played 36 games at shortstop in 1989 for Bend (Class A), leading the team with nine stolen bases.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Graduated from Lakewood (CA) High School in 1987 after winning the State 4-A Baseball Championship the same year.

- Attended Long Beach State from 1988-89.
- Hit .320 with 32 RBI and a team-high five triples and eight homers his second season in college...was named to the All-South Coast Community College Conference and All-Southern California first teams, all-state second team and was team MVP.
- Played winter league baseball in Venezuela in 1991.
- He, wife Dawn and children Roky (6/29/89), Tazmin (10/18/93) and Nathaniel (1/11/96) reside in Glendale, AZ in the off-season.

Tiger Stadium Installs Lights in 1948

Tiger Stadium hosted its first-ever night game on June 15, 1948, as 54,480 fans watched Hal Newhouser and the Tigers defeat the Philadelphia Athletics, 4-1. Tiger Stadium thus became the last stadium in the American League to install a lighting system. The last park in the entire major leagues to install lights was Wrigley Field, home of the Chicago Cubs, which waited until 1988 before it began hosting night games.

How Obtained Selected by Detroit in the third round of the June 1987 draft

1996 Season

Posted a career-high 100 RBI to lead the team and recorded his 1,000th career major league hit.

- Earned Tiger Player of the Year as voted by the Detroit chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.
- Began the season strong, notching multiple-hit games in each of the first four Tiger contests, belting a pair of homers and driving in eight runs.
- Tied his career-high with two homers on April 4 vs. Oakland at Las Vegas (6th time).
- Hit seven April homers, a new career-high for a single month (surpassing six in July of 1994 and tied in August of this season)...also batted .304 (31x102) to earn Tiger Player of the Month honors.
- Had a string of 270 consecutive games played snapped on April 22, the third-longest streak in the majors at the time...missed the game to attend the birth of his first child.
- Made just one error in his first 49 games, padding a streak from 1995 that totaled errors in just two games from August 13, 1995-May 27, 1996 (94 total contests)...made just five errors in 83 games prior to the All-Star break.
- Totaled only 10 errors in 513 chances at two different positions...the 10 errors marked the fewest in his career.
- Struggled to a .231 (24x104) mark in May but rebounded in June with a .287 average and 20 RBI in 23 games.
- Was hit on the left foot by a Kenny Rogers pitch (vs. New York) on June 8..he returned to the lineup on June 14 after missing just four games even though x-rays taken on June 17 revealed fractures of the third through fifth toes.
- Played in his fourth All-Star Game on July 9 at Philadelphia (also appeared in three straight from 1992-1994), going 0x1.

- Blasted 11 homers in his first 47 games but went without one in his next 28 contests...notched nine homers in a 32-game stretch from July 31-September 2.
- Put together a solid August with a .275 (30x109) mark with six homers and 18 RBI.
- Drilled his fourth career grand slam on August 2 vs. Seattle, his first since 1995.
- Appeared at shortstop on August 28 vs. Cleveland for the first time since the 1993 All-Star Game (7/13/93), breaking a string of 453 straight games in the field at third base...started all but one of the final 30 games at shortstop and made just two errors.
- Belted a two-out, two-strike, three-run homer on September 2 in the top of the ninth off the White Sox Roberto Hernandez to rally the Tigers from a 6-5 deficit in an 8-6 win.
- Collected his 1,000th career hit on September 20 at Milwaukee off Scott Karl...became the fifth youngest Tiger to accomplish the feat at 27 years, five months and 26 days, trailing only Ty Cobb (23), Al Kaline (24), Alan Trammell (27 yrs, 2 mos.) and Harvey Kuenn (27 yrs, 5 mos., 12 days).
- Knocked in 60 runs in his last 86 games and hit safely in 32 of his final 41 games (.302, 48x159).
- Paced the Tigers with 26 multi-RBI games.
- Was ranked in Baseball America's "Tools of the Trade" as the third-best defensive third baseman in the American League with the second-best arm among infielders.
- Tied for fourth in the AL with 10 sacrifice flies.

Major League Career

Was one of just two Tigers (Chad Curtis) to start every game during the 1995 season.

- Was second on the team with 81 RBI and 79 runs scored...led Tiger regulars (90-plus games) with a .275 batting average.
- Started the season slowly, posting just six hits in his first 38 at-bats (.158) through May 7...hit safely in his next seven games (.379; 11x29) to up his average to .254.
- His average tailed off again, leveling at .204 (32x155) through June 9...from that point through the end of the season, he batted .301 (124x412).
- From June 9 through the end of the campaign, he went more than two games without a hit just one time (August 21-23) and was held hitless in consecutive games just six times...hit safely in 77 of his final 105 games.
- Hit .327 (34x104) with five homers and 23 RBI in July.
- Knocked in one-or-more runs in six consecutive games from July 2-7 and in nine-of-ten games from July 20-30.
- Homered in three-of-four games, July 3-5.
- Posted a 10-game hitting streak from June 28-July 8, batting .476 (20x42) with 13 runs scored, four home runs and 11 RBI.
- Also had a pair of nine-game hitting streaks.
- Posted five, four-hit games...knocked in four runs on four occasions, two times on grand slams (May 5 vs. Boston and September 25 at Boston).
- Made just three errors in his final 64 games...had a 40-game errorless streak from August 13-September 25.
- Played exclusively at third base the entire season, making 14 errors in 144 games.
- Struck out 100 times, his lowest major league total since playing a half season in his rookie year...fanned just 28 times in his final 272 at-bats (once every 9.7 at-bats).

Was named to his third consecutive All-Star team in 1994 in his fourth full major league season.

- Was among league leaders in RBI (T10-85), doubles (T3-34), and extra-base hits (4th-57)...tied for the circuit lead with 13 sacrifice flies.
- Led the league with 464 at-bats and 128 strikeouts...became the first player since Minnesota's Zoilo Versalles in 1965 to lead the league in both categories.
- Posted a career-best 15-game hitting streak from May 30-June 14, batting .525 (32x61)...notched a 14-game streak from May 13-28, batting .379 (22x58).
- Tied his career high with five hits on June 1 at Baltimore...notched four, four-RBI games.
- Had a string of six games with one-or-more RBI from June 27-July 2, knocking in a total of 10 runs in the stretch...knocked in a run in 17-of-23 games from May 20-June 14 (27 total RBI).
- Scored at least one run in six consecutive games from June 8-14.
- Hit .327 in May (37x113) and .313 in June (35x112)...notched 27 RBI in July.
- Thirteen of his 18 homers came before the All-Star Game.
- Posted four homers in a six-game span from July 9-16...blasted homers in three-of-four games on two separate occasions, May 2-6 and June 9-12.
- Led the team with 22 go-ahead RBI and 11 game-winning RBI.
- Was consistent in home/road breakdowns, batting .264 with eight homers and 42

RBI on the road and .262 with 10 homers and 43 RBI at Tiger Stadium.

- Went 0x1 in the All-Star Game at Pittsburgh.

Posted his first career .300 season in 1993 and reached a career-high with 22 homers.

- Also posted personal-bests in hits (182), doubles (37), triples (5) and walks (77).
- Was remarkably consistent, posting at least 13 RBI in each month and batting over .300 in four-of-six months.
- Joined Al Kaline (1955-57) as the only Tigers in franchise history to post three consecutive 20-homer, 90-RBI seasons before their 25th birthday.
- With 311 RBI, he became only the fifth Tiger in history to notch 300 before reaching the age of 25...joined Ty Cobb (622), Al Kaline (544), Hank Greenberg (412) and Harry Heilmann (323).
- Hit for the cycle on July 28 vs. New York, going 5x5...doubled in the first inning, homered in the second, singled in the fourth and completed the feat with a triple in the sixth off Steve Howe.
- Became the first Tiger to hit for the cycle since Hoot Evers on September 7, 1950.
- Tied his career-high with five RBI on April 13 vs. Oakland.
- Tied his career-high with two homers on June 17 vs. Cleveland and again against Cleveland on the road on August 4.
- Posted a 13-game hitting streak from April 16-30, going 23x56 (.411) with three homers and 13 RBI...also posted a 10-game streak from September 12-28 (.409; 18x44).
- Was named to his second straight All-Star Game, going 0x1 at Baltimore.
- Began the season at shortstop but moved to third after the All-Star Game on July 13...the July 15 game at Texas marked the first of 453 consecutive games played at third.
- Made 19 errors at short but just four at third (70 games)...made just one error after July 28, coming on August 18 (57 total games with one error).
- Hit 13 of his homers at Tiger Stadium but knocked in more than half of his runs (52) on the road.

Earned his first All-Star selection in 1992, splitting the season between shortstop and third base.

- Was also named to The Sporting News All-Star team, won the Hillerich & Bradsby Silver Slugger Award and participated in Major League Baseball's postseason All-Star tour of Japan.
- Led the Tigers in games (161), hits (175), total bases (274) and at-bats (659).
- Began the season at third base and hit .305 with six homers and 16 RBI through May 13, making just one error in 33 games.
- Took over at short when Alan Trammell fractured his right ankle on May 15 (Game No. 34).
- Went 3x3 with a double and three RBI in his first game at short on May 16 at Kansas City...did not miss a start at the position after Trammell's injury.
- Hit third in all but one game, the May 12 contest at California when he batted cleanup...posted his first career two-homer game that night, going 3x5.
- Also connected for a pair of roundtrippers on June 29 at Boston.
- Posted a .309 average (38x123) with four homers and 25 RBI in June action, hitting safely in 23-of-28 games.
- Was 1x1 with a walk and a run scored in the All-Star Game at San Diego.

Finished second on the team with 91 RBI in 1991, his first full season on the major league level.

- With 21 homers, he became the youngest Tiger (at 22) to amass 20 home runs and 90 RBI in a season since 20 year-old Al Kaline had 27 roundtrippers and 102 RBI in 1955.
- Was one of five Tigers to hit 20 roundtrippers on the season.
- Began the season at third base, starting 61 of the Tigers first 67 games at the position.
- Saw his first action of the season at short on July 1...started 34 of his next 37 games at short.
- From August 13 through the end of the season, he switched almost nightly between positions, the exception being an eight-game stretch at short from September 1-13.
- Was the only American League player with more than 38 appearances at shortstop (86) and third base (71).
- Began the season slowly, batting just .194 (12x62) in April and owning an average of .223 through July 16.
- Hit .299 (78x261) from July 17 through the season's conclusion.
- Hit safely in 11-of-12 games from July 17-30, batting .405 (17x42) with three homers and 11 RBI.

Earned the Detroit Broadcasters Association's Tiger Rookie of the Year Award in 1990.

- Made his major league debut at shortstop on July 7 vs. Kansas City at just 21 years of age.
- Recorded his first big league hit on July 8, a three-run, seventh inning homer off Royals closer Jeff Montgomery in a 10-4 win...played third base that night, his first pro action at the position.
- Started 46 games at third base and 14 at shortstop.
- Posted a .264 (14x53) average in July, but followed with marks of .333 (29x87) in August and .283 (26x92) in September/October.
- Hit in 18-of-22 games in August, notching multiple hits in nine contests.
- Recorded five consecutive multi-hit games from August 1-5 (.440; 11x25) and four straight from September 7-10 (.471; 8x17).
- Scored four runs on August 22 vs. California.

Minor League Highlights

Was selected to the 1990 International League (AAA) All-Star squad as a shortstop, but was called up to Detroit three days before the league's alliance game.

- Was named the league's fifth-highest rated prospect by Baseball America.
- Was third on the Toledo club with 22 doubles, 10 homers and 53 RBI despite appearing in just 87 games.

Earned All-Star shortstop honors for his work at Double A London in 1989.

- Was named the Eastern League's third-best prospect by Baseball America.
- Led the league with 30 doubles.

Paced the 1988 Fayetteville (A) club with 123 games played and was second with 47 RBI.

Made his pro debut in 1987 at Bristol (A), appearing in 67 games.

- Named by Baseball America as the Appalachian League's sixth-best prospect.

NON-ROSTER PLAYER

1996 Season

Was a reliever at Tucson (AAA) and Toledo (AAA) after being used almost exclusively as a starter in his previous professional action.

- Began the season with the Houston organization, pitching in 35 games at Triple A... all but three of the contests were in relief.
- Struggled through the season's first two months (0-1, 6.46 ERA, 22ER/30.2IP).
- In June, July and August action at Tucson, he went 4-1 with one save and a 3.67 ERA (23ER/56.1IP)...fanned 52 batters in 56.1 innings during the stretch.
- Won his final three decisions of the season, recording no defeats in his last 17 games.
- Held lefthanded batters to a .238 batting average against (30x126).
- Allowed only five homers on the season, an average of one every 17.4 innings.
- Was acquired by the Tigers and assigned to Toledo on August 27...pitched in two more games for the Mud Hens, both as a reliever.

Minor League Highlights

Went to the Astros 1995 spring camp but suffered a strained right rotator cuff to delay the start of his season.

- Sustained the injury while pitching in an exhibition game on April 15 against the Orioles...spent the remainder of April and May in rehabilitation before seeing action at Kissimmee (A), Jackson (AA) and Tucson.
- Tossed a complete game three-hitter in an 8-1 win for Jackson at Arkansas on August 26.

Began the 1994 season at Jackson before a mid-season promotion to Triple A.

- Led the Texas League with a .226 batting average against and 9.5 strikeouts per nine innings...170 strikeouts was the second-highest total in the Astros system.
- Pitched six innings of a combined seven-inning no-hitter in his first outing on April 10 against Tulsa...allowed two walks and fanned nine before yielding in the final frame.
- Tossed five more scoreless innings in his next start on April 17.
- Was Texas League Pitcher of the Week for June 27-July 3, going 2-0 with a 1.32 ERA.
- After moving to Tucson, he fanned a league-high 14 batters July 24 vs. Las Vegas in winning, 3-2...the 14 strikeouts matched the eighth-highest minor league total for all minor league pitchers.

Played a key role in Jackson's rise to the 1993 Texas League championship after being promoted from Class A.

- Was named Florida State League Pitcher of the Week from June 21-27 after a 2-0 shutout against Ft. Myers.
- Tossed a one-hit shutout in Game Three of the Texas League East Division playoffs in winning 6-0 at Shreveport...allowed two baserunners in nine innings.
- Allowed one run over six innings in Game Three of the Championship Series against El Paso, clinching an 8-1 win and 3-0 series sweep.

Ranked second on the Burlington (A) staff in 1992 with six wins.

Spent his first season as a pro in 1991 with Class A Auburn.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Played collegiate baseball at St. Bonaventure University.

- Single and makes his off-season home in Vienna, VA.

Mueller Goes 19-Plus but Gets No Decision

Les Mueller must have had a tired arm after July 21, 1945, the day the Tigers played the longest game in their history. Detroit played the Philadelphia Athletics to a 24-inning, 1-1 tie in a game which was called because of darkness. Mueller, who was in the midst of his only full season in the major leagues, pitched the first 19.2 innings of the ballgame and surrendered the A's only run in the fourth inning. Detroit scored its only run in the seventh inning of the game which still stands as the longest tie game in American League history. That season, Mueller ended up with a 6-8 record and went the distance six times.

1996 Season

Set a Team USA record with nine wins during Olympic and Summer Tour play and was the winning pitcher as the U.S. claimed the bronze medal over Nicaragua.

- Finished his junior season at the University of Virginia with a 12-2 record and 1.76 ERA.
- Started 16 games and completed six...pitched 123.0 innings, allowed just 78 hits, 30 runs, 24 earned runs and 36 walks.
- Was ranked fourth among all collegiate pitchers in ERA and finished with the 22nd-highest strikeout total (141).
- His 12 wins and 3.9 strikeouts-to-walks ratio were both UVA records.
- Was named first-team All-America by Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and the Smith Super Team.
- Was ranked by Baseball America as possessing the best breaking pitch among all draft-eligible prospects.
- Was the top USA winner in Olympic play with a perfect 3-0 mark in three starts...combined that with a 6-0 mark and a 2.06 ERA (9ER/39.1IP, 44 SO) in pre-Olympic Tour play.
- Combined, his collegiate and Team USA record for the year was a stunning 21-2.
- His overall Team USA stats (Tour and Olympics) included a 9-0 mark in 10 starts with a 2.98 ERA...fanned 55 batters in 57.1 innings pitched and held the opposition to a .222 batting average against.
- Led Team USA in wins, starts, ERA, innings pitched and strikeouts...Jim Abbott, Ben McDonald and John Powell shared the previous mark of eight Team USA single-season wins.
- Clinched the Olympic bronze medal with a win over Nicaragua in Atlanta...went seven innings, allowed two hits and three runs with one walk and five strikeouts.
- Highlight of the tour was on July 2 when he held the Cuban national team to one run in seven innings...left with the lead but received no decision when the Cubans rallied for six in the eighth inning off the relievers.
- Reported to the Tigers Instructional League following his signing on August 27.
- Was ranked as the Tigers second-best prospect by Baseball America.

Collegiate Career

Set the Cavaliers school record with 295 career strikeouts in his three seasons and tied the mark for wins with 21.

1996 Season

Made two starts at Triple A Vancouver before being promoted to California for the remainder of the season.

- Was scheduled to be a Cleveland spring training invitee before his February 15th acquisition by California.
- Posted a 2-0 record with one complete game (April 15 at Tacoma) and a 1.20 ERA (15IP, 8H, 2R, 2ER, 3BB, 1ISO) in two appearances at Vancouver.
- Recalled on April 20 by California, where he finished the season 5-7 with two complete games, one shutout and a 6.84 ERA (99ER/130.1IP)...made 35 appearances, starting 20 games.
- His five wins equaled a career-best established in 1994.
- Tied for the club and league lead with 13 hit batters...ranked seventh in the league with 11 wild pitches.
- Recorded his first career shutout May 28 vs. New York, allowing just five hits in a complete-game effort.
- Fired the other complete game victory May 4 vs. Minnesota, surrendering just three hits while fanning five to establish the low-hit game of his career...posted a no-hitter through 5.1 innings before Greg Myers doubled down the leftfield line.
- Posted a 2-1 win in his first appearance as an Angel, April 20 vs. Detroit (7.1IP, 6H, 1R, 1ER, 1BB, 1SO).
- As a starter, pitched into the seventh inning-or-later nine times...recorded a 5-1 record with a 2.79 ERA (21ER/67.2IP) in those nine games.
- California's bullpen inherited 29 runners in his starts, allowing 11 to score...the pen blew three save opportunities in his starts, resulting in no decision in each for Grimsley.
- Established a 5.05 ERA for the first half of the season and 10.47 for the remainder of the campaign.

Major League Career

Split the 1995 campaign between Cleveland and Triple A Buffalo.

- Opened the season in Cleveland pitching out of the bullpen.
- Earned his first save as a professional on May 8 vs. Kansas City (2.1IP, 1H, OR).
- Moved into the starting rotation on May 30 vs. Chicago, pitching 5.1 innings of six-hit, one-run ball.
- Made his second and final start of the season on June 4 vs. Toronto...equalled his shortest career start, lasting just 0.1 innings (0.1IP, 3H, 7R, 7ER, 4BB).
- Relieved five more times before being outrighted to Buffalo on July 13.

Earned his first major league complete game in 1994.

- Was promoted to Cleveland June 2...went on to pitch a complete game at Milwaukee June 11 in his second start (9.0IP, 5H, 2R, 2ER, 2BB, 7SO).
- Compiled a career-best three game winning-streak from July 23-August 1.
- Made his only relief appearance of the season on August 8 at Toronto (1.0IP, 1H, 2SO).
- In seven games (six starts) after the break he was 4-1 with a 3.62 ERA.

Strong Triple A pitching earned him a recall to Cleveland in 1993 for his first big league action in two years.

- Made his American League debut on August 25 at Toronto as a reliever...pitched 2.2 innings of three-hit, two-run ball.
- Tossed 1.1 shutout innings relief on August 27 vs. New York to record his first AL victory and his first in the majors since April 28, 1991 while with Philadelphia.
- Had seven batters ground into double plays out of 37 GIDP situations... the .189 ratio was eighth-best in the league.

- Made his first start of the year on September 2 at Minnesota after four appearances out of the bullpen...earned no decision, allowing two earned runs over 6.0 innings as the Indians went on to a 4-3 victory.
- Emerged victorious in his final start of the season on September 28 at Kansas City (7.0IP, 8H, 2R, 2ER, 1BB, 5SO), as Cleveland posted a 4-3 win...this was his longest outing of the year, and the five strikeouts matched his season-high.

Started the 1991 season at the major league level for the first time in his career.

- Held the Mets to three hits over 6.1 innings on April 9, his first start of the year...struck out a career-high nine batters.
- Posted his lone victory on April 28 vs. San Diego...fired 7.0 innings of three-hit, two-run ball in the 9-2 win.

1996 Season

Among all players with at least 100 games played in consecutive seasons, his 96-point batting average increase from 1995 to 1996 was the highest in American League history (.224 to .320).

- Narrowly missed finishing in the top 10 in American League batting leaders in his second season of major league action.
- Finished with a .320 average to rank 12th, with the league's 10th-best mark belonging to Mo Vaughn at .326.

- Placed second by one vote to Travis Fryman in voting by the Detroit BBWAA chapter for Tiger of the Year.
- Ranked fourth in the league with a .623 slugging percentage against righthanded pitching...led the league with a .667 average with the bases loaded (4x6, 12 RBI).
- Surged in the season's second half, batting .333 (79x237) with 12 homers and 39 RBI after the All-Star break, hitting safely in 54-of-67 games.
- Hit safely in 47 of his final 56 games (.345; 68x197), including in 21-of-26 September contests with a .352 (32x91) average, five homers and 14 RBI.
- Went hitless in consecutive games just four times after May 1, never going more than two contests without a safety.
- Struck out just 16 times in his last 128 at-bats...had just one more strikeout overall (66) than walks (65).
- His 35 doubles, .577 slugging average, .404 on-base mark and 65 walks paced Detroit batters.
- Enjoyed his greatest success out of the leadoff spot...batted leadoff for the first time in his career on June 20 and responded by tying his career-high with two homers (second time).
- Led all major league batters with a .500 on-base average (76x152) out of the leadoff position.
- Hit .339 (21x62) out of the cleanup spot.
- Had 11 homers in 32 games (including twice in his first at-bat) and hit .415 (49x118) with 31 RBI out of the number-one hole.
- Was Tiger Player of the Month in June (.394, seven homers, 20 RBI) and July (.345, six homers, 19 RBI).
- In Detroit's 12 last at-bat wins, Higginson knocked in the game-winner three times.
- Had Detroit's longest hitting streak of 1996, a 14-game string from July 23-August 12 in which he hit .404 (21x52).
- His 26 homers ranked as the most ever for a lefthanded hitter out of the Philadelphia area (Pat Kelly is second with 11 in 1978)...the total ranks as the third-most ever for a Philadelphia product (behind Roy Campanella's 41 in 1953 and Del Ennis' 31 in 1950).
- Homered in three straight games, April 4-7 against the A's in Las Vegas.
- Had a pinch-hit homer and singled in the game-winner in the 12th inning on September 6 at Baltimore (5-4 win)...also had a pinch-hit homer on May 6 at New York, becoming the first Tiger with two in a season since 1994 (Kirk Gibson).
- Was 3x9 with two homers and three RBI overall in pinch at-bats.
- Notched a career-high four hits three times (April 4 vs. Oakland, April 24 vs. Minnesota and July 27 at Seattle)...had 10 total games with three-or-more hits
- Set a career-high with five RBI on June 25 at Oakland.
- In addition to his 14-game streak, he had streaks of seven twice, eight once and 12 once...opened the season with an eight-game hitting streak.
- Posted nine outfield assists, tied for 12th-most in the circuit...played all three outfield positions extensively, including 12 starts in center field.
- Missed more than three weeks of action while on the disabled list from May 11-June 7 with a torn right plantar fascia, suffered while making a catch on May 10 at Texas.

Major League Career

Earned 1995 Detroit Tigers Rookie of the Year as voted on by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association.

- Paced American League outfielders with 13 assists in his first major league campaign.
- Made the club out of an abbreviated spring training with a .367 batting average, two homers and seven RBI in 12 games.
- Was fourth on the club in games played, trailing only Travis Fryman (144), Chad Curtis (144) and Cecil Fielder (136).
- Made his debut on Opening Day in Anaheim...struck out in a pinch-hitting appearance and remained in the game in rightfield.
- Made his first start on April 28 at Seattle, going 0x2 in rightfield.
- Recorded his first hit off the Mariners Bob Wells on April 30 in Seattle, a fifth-inning single.
- Belted his first big league homer on May 3 off the Indians Jason Grimsley in Detroit...came back the next day with a roundtripper off Cleveland's Orel Hershiser.
- Recorded 10 of his 14 homers and 28-of-43 RBI before the All-Star break...hit .246 (49x149) before the All-Star Game, .204 (43x211) after.
- Two of his second-half homers came on August 20 in an 8-7 loss vs. the Twins...his seventh inning clout put the Tigers up 7-6, but Minnesota scored once in the ninth and another in the 10th to win it.
- Connected for four homers in an 11-game span from June 19-July 1.
- Notched an eight-game hitting streak from May 11-19, batting .333 (9x27).

- Enjoyed his best success in May (.253 AVG., 5 HR, 15 RBI) and June (.276 AVG., 4 HR, 8 RBI).

Minor League Highlights

Led all Tiger minor leaguers in 1994 with 234 total bases and 81 runs scored at Triple A Toledo.

- Paced the Toledo squad with 23 homers and 137 games played in his first taste of Triple A action.
- Hit .275, giving him a career minor league average of .290.
- Set personal minor-league highs in nearly every category, including 67 RBI, 16 stolen bases and 28 doubles.
- His 23 homers were 14 more than he had hit in two previous seasons combined (194 games).
- After the regular season concluded, he paced the Arizona Fall League with 10 homers and a .536 slugging percentage.
- Saw action at all three outfield positions.

Hit a combined .304 in 1993, splitting the season between London (AA) and Lakeland (A).

- His .304 mark was the third highest among all Tiger organization players with at least 100 games played.
- Tied for the organization lead with 11 triples, seven of them coming in just 61 games at Lakeland.
- Posted 136 hits, four off the top mark for all Tiger farmhands.

Was second on the 1992 Niagara Falls club with 37 RBI in his first professional season.

- Was seventh in the league with a .293 average, making him just one of two players on the team to post an average better than .260.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Attended Temple University in Philadelphia, batting .377 in three collegiate seasons.

- Finished as the school's all-time home run leader with 30.
- Single and resides in Philadelphia in the off-season.

1996 Season

- Began the season on the disabled list with a strained right hamstring...was activated on April 25 but appeared in just two games before aggravating the injury and returning to the injury list.
- Was reinstated on May 7 and hit .478 (11x23) with two triples and six RBI in his first eight games...included in the stretch was a 4x4 effort on May 15 vs. Tacoma.
- Returned to the disabled list on June 6 with a ligament strain in his right knee...remained disabled through the season's end.
- Hit .352 (19x54) with nine of his 10 total RBI at home.
- Posted a .295 average (13x44) with men on base.

With the exception of a nine-game rehab stint at Triple A, he spent the entire 1995 season in the majors with San Diego.

- Belted his first big league homer on July 17 vs. Cincinnati, a grand slam off C.J. Nitkowski to give him his first four career RBI in an 8-6 Padres win...the homer made him the third player in franchise history to record a grand slam for his first major league homer (Mike Corkins, 9/4/70 at Cincinnati; Luis Lopez, 5/23/94 vs. San Francisco).
- Missed most of August with a sprained left ankle.

Reached the major leagues for the first time in 1994 after spending most of the season at Triple A Las Vegas.

- Was recalled by the Padres on May 1 and made his debut the following day at Philadelphia as a defensive replacement.
- Recorded his first big league hit on May 9 vs. Cincinnati, a single off Tom Browning.
- Was optioned back to Triple A on May 12 before returning to San Diego again on June 24...did not see action in his second stint, returning to Triple A on June 26.

Minor League Highlights

Saw his initial Triple A action in 1994 at Las Vegas, reaching career-highs in batting average (.300), home runs (8) and RBI (52).

- His .300 average was the best among all Triple A shortstops.
- Hit at a .332 pace (101x304) from May 30 through the end of the season....hit safely in 21 of his final 23 games at a .358 clip (34x95) with nine doubles, 10 stolen bases and 22 runs scored.

Spent his second full season at Double A Wichita in 1993, ranking third in the Texas League with 30 stolen bases.

- In 55 games from June 22-August 26, he batted .300 (60x200) to raise his season average 37 points (.229 to .266).
- Hit .313 (5x16) in four post-season games for Wichita.

His first year at Double A came in 1992 at Wichita.

- Missed three weeks in July with a broken finger.

1997 Postseason Facts

The 1997 Division Series will feature the winners of each of the three divisions and a wild card team squaring off in a best-of-five series. This year the home-field advantage of Games 3, 4 and 5 will be held at the site of the Central and East Division winners. The wild card team will be the second place team with the best record and will play the division winner with the best record, unless that team is scheduled to host Games 1 and 2 or is from the same division as the wild card.

The two winners from each of the Division Series will advance to the best-of-seven League Championship Series, with the winner advancing to the World Series. The East Division winner or its opponent in the Division Series will have the home-field advantage (Games 1, 2, 6 and 7) for the LCS. However, if the opponent of the East Division winner is the wild card, and the wild card wins the Division Series, the Central or its opponent will host Games 1, 2, 6 and 7 of the LCS. (Note: The wild card will never have the home-field advantage for the Division or the League Championship Series).

The American League is scheduled to host Games 3, 4 and 5 of the 1997 World Series.

1996 Season

Spent his first full season in the major leagues and led the Astros with 35 stolen bases.

- Ranked among National leaders in stolen bases (9th), steals of third base (T2-10), hardest to double up (5th-one every 87.7 at-bats) and outfield assists (T5-11).
- Ranked fourth on the Houston club with 41 multi-hit games, trailing only Craig Biggio (48), Jeff Bagwell (44) and Derek Bell (43)...was also fourth on the team with 145 hits in 132 games.
- Opened the campaign with a five-game hitting streak, four of them multi-hit contests, and hit .322 in 26 April games (39x121)...hit safely in 20 of the 26 games, including a 4x6 effort on April 11 at Cincinnati and five, three-hit affairs.
- Missed nearly a month of action (June 29-July 27) due to time on the disabled list with a strained right rib cage.
- Opened August by hitting safely in nine of his first 11 games and hit .318 for the month (35x110).
- Had a season-best, eight-game hitting streak from June 13-21 (.265; 9x34).
- Had four consecutive multi-hit games from August 19-22 (.450; 9x20).
- Hit safely in 16-of-18 games from August 18-September 6, batting .380 (27x91).
- Homered in back-to-back games on August 11 at Philadelphia and August 12 at Montreal.
- Notched six multi-steal games, including three on August 14 at Montreal...stole 10 consecutive bases without being caught from May 29-August 4...was 18-of-19 in steal attempts from May 29-August 22.
- Posted a .290 (124x427) average with each of his five homers and 26 RBI out of the leadoff slot...96 of his starts had him hitting in the number one hole (also hit sixth and seventh in the order).
- Was at his best in "close and late" situations, batting .325 with 27 hits in 83 at-bats (seventh inning or later; score difference one run or less or tying run on deck).
- Hit .322 (65x202) with all five of his homers with none on and nobody out.
- Made all of his 118 starts in centerfield...was one of two Astros to start more than 100 games in the outfield (Derek Bell, 155).

Major League Career

Began the 1995 season at Tucson but was recalled on June 13 and hit .374 (37x99) with 26 runs scored in his first 21 games.

- Had 11 multi-hit games in the stretch, including two games with four hits (June 16 at New York and June 27 vs. St. Louis).
- Blasted his first major league homer at New York on June 16 off Doug Henry.
- Hit safely in a career-high 12 straight games from June 19-July 1 (.466; 27x58), tying for the team's longest streak of the season.
- Scored a career-high four runs on June 25 vs. Chicago.
- Was hit by a pitch from the Rockies Omar Olivares on July 4, fracturing the fifth metacarpal bone in his right hand...was on the disabled list from July 5-23.
- Tied an Astros single-game record with four stolen bases on September 28 at Chicago.
- Legged out 25 infield hits after his recall from Triple A.
- Hit .310 (89x287) with 45 runs scored and 21 steals in his final 70 games.

Spent the majority of the 1994 campaign at Triple A Tucson, but was recalled by the parent club from June 27-July 2.

- Made his major league debut on June 27 against Cincinnati, starting in centerfield and leading off...notched a single off Erik Hanson in his first at-bat.
- Hit safely in five-of-six games with the big league club.

Minor League Highlights

Started the 1995 season at Triple A before a June promotion to Houston.

- Hit safely in 14 straight games from May 17-30, including a 4x6, five RBI night on May 20 at Salt Lake City.
- Posted a .406 average in May.

Played all but one week of the 1994 campaign at Triple A and led all full-season minor league players with a .372 batting average.

1987 TIGERS

NON-ROSTER PLAYER

1996 Season

Appeared in 17 major league games in April and May after a recall from Triple A, before being optioned back to Toledo on May 7.

- Was recalled on April 14 when Curtis Pride was placed on the 15-day DL with a shoulder strain.
- Had two hits during his stay in Detroit, singling at Toronto on April 16 and doubling vs. Minnesota on April 24.
- Played first base in nine games and leftfield once...also entered the game as a pinch-hitter in 10 contests, going 0x9 in that role.
- Optioned back to Triple A Toledo on May 7 when Fausto Cruz was recalled.
- Batted .259 in 117 games for the Mud Hens, ranking second on the team with 113 hits and fourth with 55 runs scored...also led Toledo with six triples.
- Split time between first base and the outfield, playing 88 games at first and 28 in the outfield.
- Pieced together two seven-game hitting streaks (12x23; .522/12x32; .375) and a season-high nine-game string (13x40; .325)...the streaks came from May 19-26, July 16-22 and July 31-August 8, respectively.
- Enjoyed his most success playing at home, where he posted a .300 average (65x217).

Major League Career

Made six appearances with San Diego during the 1995 campaign, spending the majority of the season at the Triple A level.

- In his second stint at the big league level he had five pinch-hit at-bats, going 0x5.

Spent the entire 1994 season on San Diego's 25-man roster, making 52 appearances for the Padres.

- Made his major league debut on April 4 vs. Atlanta, grounding into a fielder's choice as a pinch-hitter in the eighth inning.
- Collected his first major league hit two days later with a pinch-hit single off Milt Hill in the eighth inning.
- In his first big league start on April 30, he went 1x4 with his first RBI at Montreal.
- Started at first base on May 10 and went on to hit safely in 10 of his next 12 games at a .317 clip (13x41), including a season-best six-game hitting streak from May 14-19 (8x21; .381).
- Injured his right shoulder diving for a ground ball in late May and was hampered by the injury until landing on the disabled list on June 24.
- After 14 rehab games at Class AAA Las Vegas, he was activated from the DL on August 10.
- Was 3x9 (.333) as a pinch-hitter and batted .333 (6x18) with runners in scoring position.

Minor League Highlights

Spent the majority of 1995 with the Triple A Las Vegas Stars.

- Posted a .998 fielding percentage in 54 games at first base...also spent time playing the outfield (23 games).
- His .290 batting average marked his highest since batting .306 in 1993 for Knoxville.

Appeared in 14 games with the Las Vegas club on a rehab assignment in 1994.

- Batted .255 with one home run and five RBI in that span.

- Batted a career-best .306, sharing second in the Southern League batting race.

- Fanned just once every 10.8 at-bats to rank fifth in the league.
- Led all Southern League first basemen in fielding percentage (.996), games (140), total chances (1330), putouts (1209), assists (116) and double plays (105).
- Set career-highs with 72 runs, 61 RBI and 12 stolen bases to lead the club to a second-half championship and into the Southern League finals.
- After going 0x1 in the first game, he put together a 13-game hitting streak, going 22x46 (.478) with seven doubles and 11 RBI.
- Included in the streak was a season-high four hits on April 13 at Greenville.
- Ended the month of May at the .400 mark (30x75) with 14 RBI.
- Strung together a 12-game hitting streak from May 6-18 in which he batted .320 (16x50).
- Had one more double-digit hitting streak from July 4-16, going 11 straight contest at a .395 clip (17x43) with three doubles, two triples, one homer and six RBI while striking out just once.
- Established a season-high five RBI on August 2 at Carolina, finishing the month with a .333 average and 17 RBI.
- Enjoyed his most success at home where he batted .333.
- Finished the year with 1.04 walk-to-strikeout ratio (53BB, 51SO).

Launched a personal-best eight home runs in 1992 for Class A Dunedin of the Florida State League.

- Belted a grand slam at Charlotte on May 9.
- Paced the league's first basemen with 1,149 putouts and 1,260 total chances.

Mullin and Summers Do Double Duty

On September 22, 1906, George Mullin won both ends of a doubleheader for the Tigers against the Washington Senators, 5-3 and 4-3, by pitching complete games in both. Two years later on September 25, 1908, Ed Summers equalled the task and defeated the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-2 and 1-0. Both pitchers went nine innings in each game. This feat has been accomplished 10 times in the American League, the last time coming in 1926.

1996 Season

Led major league catchers (340-plus innings) with a 3.21 team ERA while he was behind the plate for San Diego.

- In past two seasons, pitchers have compiled a 3.30 ERA while he was catching, compared to a 4.25 mark for all other San Diego receivers.
- Established career-highs in nearly every offensive category, including a .272 batting average, eight homers and 35 RBI...his eight homers surpassed his prior major league total of six in two seasons.
- Knocked in a career-best five runs in his first start on April 7 at Houston.
- Started the season by batting .359 (28x78) with four homers in his first 23 games...hit .355 (22x65) with 14 RBI in May, including a career-best eight-game hitting streak from May 17-27 (11x30; .367).
- Belted a 12th-inning solo homer on May 17 off the Expos Mel Rojas to give the Padres a 2-1 win, giving him four game-winning homers in his career...it also marked his eighth career game-winning hit in the Padres last at-bat.
- Hit his third career grand slam on May 24 at New York with one out in the seventh inning off Blas Minor, tying him for second on the Padres all-time grand slam list.
- Was a .364 hitter (4x11, 10 RBI) with the bases loaded...hit .400 (6x15, 11 RBI) with runners on third and less than two out.
- Started at first base on May 27 at Montreal and played one game at third base.
- Recorded seven career-high three-hit games (last, August 24 vs. Philadelphia).
- Continued his success in the pinch-hitting role, posting a .333 average (5x15)... is a career .378 batter in the pinch (14x37, two homers, 11 RBI).
- Hit .328 (22x67) off lefthanded pitching.
- Started the final seven games of the regular season behind the plate.
- Sixteen of sixty-five runners attempting to steal (25%) were caught while he was behind the plate.
- Started two of the three games at catcher in the Division Series against St. Louis (Games One and Three).
- Went 3x4 with a double and two runs scored in Game Three, with his second run staking the Padres to a 4-1 lead...St. Louis eventually won the game, 7-5, ensuring a series sweep.

Major League Career

Spent the entire 1995 season on the major league level for the first time in his career.

- Hit .321 (17x53) in his first 19 games with three homers and 13 RBI.
- Finished strong, batting .302 (29x96) over his final 33 games.
- Belted a pinch-hit, game-winning grand slam on May 14 at Chicago with two out in the eighth inning off closer Randy Myers, his second career grand slam.
- Also had a game-winning homer on June 11 vs. New York, a three-run shot.
- Notched a pair of five-game hitting streaks (May 31-June 16 and September 2-13).
- Had a .417 average (5x12) as a pinch-hitter with one homer and five RBI.
- Only two other catchers in the league (Pagnozzi and Santiago) played in as many games behind the plate (55) and made fewer errors than Johnson (three).

Started the 1994 season on the major league level, making his debut as a pinch-hitter on April 5.

- His first of 23 starts behind the plate came on April 9 vs. Florida.
- Recorded his first big league hit on April 18 with a single off the Mets Eric Hillman.
- Spent part of April and May at Triple A before returning to San Diego on May 13.
- Belted his first major league homer on June 18 vs. the Astros Shane Reynolds...that started a five-game hitting streak (.414; 7x17) which included his first career grand slam July 1 off the Mets Roger Mason.

- Hit a pinch-homer on July 25 off the Rockies Bruce Ruffin in the bottom of the ninth to give San Diego a 4-3 win.
- Was 4x10 with a homer and three RBI as a pinch-hitter.

Minor League Highlights

Played in 15 games with Triple A Las Vegas from April 23-May 12, 1994.

Led all Padre farmhands in 1993 with a .339 average at Las Vegas, his first season at the Triple A level.

- The .339 average was the fifth-best among all Triple A hitters...was seventh in the league with a .524 slugging mark and eighth with a .440 on-base average.
- Was named the club MVP and earned Pacific Coast League All-Star honors.
- Finished second on the team with 10 homers and 71 RBI.
- Earned Topps' Player of the Month Award for the PCL in July by hitting .444 with three homers and 18 RBI.
- Posted nine straight hits, going 4x4 on July 3 and following with a 5x5 effort the next day...the nine straight represented a Las Vegas record.
- Had hitting streaks of 13, 11, nine and eight games during the season.

Spent the 1992 season, his first with the Padres organization, at Double A Wichita.

- In the playoffs, he hit .545 (12x22) with three homers, nine RBI and a 1.045 slugging mark as the Wranglers captured the Texas League championship.

Spent the majority of the 1991 season at Class A Ft. Lauderdale (Yankees) but also appeared in two contests at Double A Albany.

Led 1990 South Atlantic League catchers with 752 putouts and 844 total chances at Greensboro.

- Was named to the league's All-Star team.

Played in 17 games in 1989 at Sarasota of the Gulf Coast League, batting .361.

- Saw action at catcher for the first time since high school.

1996 Season

Set a career-high with 17 saves and tied his best with six wins after being designated as the Astros closer out of spring training.

- Converted on 17-of-23 save opportunities in logging double-digit saves for the second straight year...ended his term with the Astros ranked seventh on the club's all-time career saves list with 39.
- Notched saves in 14 of his final 17 opportunities (82.3%)...was successful on each of his last six and eight of his final nine save opportunities.
- Led the Astros in saves, nearly doubling the total of the pitcher with the second most (Billy Wagner, nine).
- Won three games and saved four in the month of April...picked up his first win in his first game on April 2 against the Dodgers.
- Posted a 2-0 mark with seven saves and a 1.23 ERA in May, allowing just two earned runs and 12 hits in 14.2 innings while fanning 12 batters.
- Pitched a season-high three innings on May 11 at Montreal but did not figure in the decision.
- Did not allow a run in his last eight outings during the month of May (8.1IP).
- Was 6-1 with 16 saves and a 3.43 ERA before the All-Star Game...was limited to just 15.1 innings after the break due to two stints on the disabled list with right shoulder tendinitis (July 19-August 12 and August 18-September 12).
- Held righthanded batters to a .238 batting average against (31x132)...opposing batters hit just .246 against him in road games.
- Retired 36-of-51 first batters faced (71%), allowing leadoff men just 12 hits in 48 at-bats (.250 AVG.).
- Averaged 6.9 strikeouts per nine innings, giving him a career average of 7.7.

Major League Career

Was second among 1995 National League relievers with 99.2 innings pitched and tied for fifth in the circuit with 68 appearances.

- Began the season in a setup role but inherited closer duties when John Hudek was lost for the season on June 23.
- Went 5-1 with a 1.83 ERA in action through the All-Star Break but struggled to an 0-2 mark with a 7.56 ERA in August despite saving four games.
- Returned to a setup role after the Tigers acquired Mike Henneman from the Tigers on August 10.
- Allowed no runs in his first nine September appearances (14.1IP) and just five in the

Schoolboy's Record-Tying Streak

Former Tiger Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe is one of three pitchers who still share the American League record for most consecutive games won in a season with 16. Rowe is joined by the Washington Senators Walter Johnson (1912), Smokey Joe Wood of the Boston Red Sox (also 1912) and the Philadelphia A's Lefty Grove (1931). Rowe tied the feat on August 25, 1934, against Washington in a 4-2 Tiger victory, and although Rowe's streak was subsequently stopped by the A's in game two of an August 29 doubleheader, he finished the season with 24 victories.

month overall (18.1IP).

- His 96 strikeouts were second-most among National League relievers and he fanned 61 batters over his final 55.1 innings...fanned at least one batter in 53-of-68 games pitched.
- Notched 15 saves in 20 opportunities.

Snapped out of a rough opening month of 1994 to put together an excellent stretch over the remainder of the season.

- From May 1-June 19 he allowed only two runs over 17 games, a 0.70 ERA (2ER/25.1IP) with 21 strikeouts.
- After allowing five runs on June 22 at Colorado, he put together a string of seven consecutive scoreless outings (12.1IP).
- After being scored upon in four straight games around the All-Star Break, he snapped back into a groove by working 3.1 scoreless frames to earn a 6-5 win on July 26 at Cincinnati, fanning five of the 11 men he faced.
- Including that game, he did not allow a run in nine straight contests before the players' strike (16.2IP)...included were a pair of saves in his last two games on August 7 vs. San Francisco and August 10 against the Padres.
- Did not allow a home run from April 20-July 10 (42.0IP).
- Was tied for third in the National League with 72.2 relief innings pitched (tied with Willie Blair).

Was recalled from Triple A Tucson on July 7, 1993, and made his major league debut that night vs. Pittsburgh.

- Was scored upon in just one of his first 15 games.
- Tossed 19.1 scoreless innings from July 17-August 20...allowed just one hit in 12.1 innings from July 26-August 13.
- Earned his first major league save on August 18 against Florida, a 2-1 win.
- Picked up his first win on September 7 at home against the New York Mets, 4-3.

Minor League Highlights

Had a 19.2-inning scoreless streak at Tucson from June 3-July 2, 1993.

- Earned recognition from Baseball America as the Astros highest-rated prospect.

Moved to the closer's role in 1992 after starting in all but two of his prior professional outings.

- Converted 25-of-30 save outings at Jackson.
- Compiled a 2.55 ERA in his final 49 outings (15ER/53.0IP).
- Earned his first pro save on April 16 at Shreveport, fanning a pair in 1.2 innings.
- Appeared in three September games at Tucson, his first Triple A action.

Split the 1991 season at Osceola (A) and Jackson, working exclusively as a starter.

- Reeled off three consecutive wins at Osceola after a 1-2 start.
- Notched a 7-1 home record pitching at home for Jackson.

Tied for the club lead with 12 wins, 27 starts and 151.1 innings at Osceola in 1990, his first full pro season.

Notched 71 strikeouts in 49.2 innings in 1989 for Auburn of the New York Penn League.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Was the 27th player selected in the June 1989 draft, a supplemental pick as compensation for Type A free agent Nolan Ryan.

- Was rated by Baseball America as one of the top five power pitchers available in the draft.
- Pitched collegiately at Jacksonville (AL) State University and went to Osborne (GA) High School.
- He, wife Michelle and son Alexander Givin (10/7/94) make their off-season home in Pell City, AL...the couple is expecting another child in late May.
- Pitched in the 1992 Venezuelan Winter League.

JONES' CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by the Astros as a compensation pick following the first round of the June 1989 draft.
- On disabled list, July 19-August 12 (right shoulder tendinitis).

How Obtained Selected by Detroit from Seattle in Rule 5 Draft on December 4, 1995

1996 Season

Opened and closed the season strong in his first year of major league play.

- Was a Rule 5 selection from Seattle...never played in a game for the Mariners organization after coming over from San Diego in a trade last winter.
- Pitched primarily out of the bullpen but started six mid-season games.
- Made his major league debut on Opening Day, April 1, in Minnesota, picking up no decision but tossing three innings of one run ball in an 8-6 loss.
- Earned the win in his next game on April 4 against the A's in Las Vegas, a 10-9, 15-inning triumph in the Detroit's longest game of 1996...pitched three hitless innings of relief, did not allow a baserunner and fanned four.
- Also won in his next two appearances, coming on April 9 against Seattle in the Home Opener, 10-9 (3ER/3.2IP), and on April 13 against California, 9-5 (1ER/1.0IP)...at the time he was tied for the league lead in wins.
- Became the first Tiger rookie to start 3-0 since John Kiely in 1992.
- Earned Tiger Pitcher of the Month honors for April with a 3-1 record and 3.97 ERA.
- After his third win, he moved into the starting rotation for four games, losing three and gaining one no decision...moved back to the bullpen but was called on to start two more times due to injuries, losing on June 2 in game two of a doubleheader at Chicago, 13-5, and on June 19 against the A's, 10-3.
- Tossed a career-high 7.1 scoreless innings on June 24 at Oakland, representing the Tigers longest scoreless relief outing since September 18, 1985.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on July 7 with a back strain...was activated on August 21 after a rehab assignment at Toledo.
- Started all six rehab games, winning two of his last three assignments.
- Pitched well in relief after his return, going 0-0 with a 3.00 ERA (8ER/24.0IP) in seven games.
- Was Detroit Pitcher of the Month again in September when he went 0-0 with a 1.76 ERA in five games...struck out 16 in 15.1 September innings.

Minor League Highlights

Pitched at three different levels in 1995, including a 13-start stint at Triple A Las Vegas.

- Notched 142 strikeouts in 170.2 combined innings.
- His 15 combined losses were most in the Padres organization, but he finished his Triple A work with a 7-6 mark for a team that went 61-83.

Was a California League All-Star selection in 1994 with an 11-1 mark before being moved to Double A.

- Posted 10 consecutive wins from April 14-June 9...the 10th win of the streak was a two-hit, 1-0 win over Stockton.
- Twice was named California League Player of the Week (May 1-7 and May 15-21).
- Led the Padres organization with 14 combined wins at Rancho Cucamonga and Wichita.

Averaged nearly a strikeout per inning in his first year of pro ball at Spokane in 1993.

- Strikeout total of 77 ranked second to Glenn Dishman on the club.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Participated in the Arizona Fall League in 1995 and 1996.

- Went 0-1 with a 5.63 ERA in '96 AFL play.
- Attended Florida International University.
- Single and makes his off-season home in Horseheads, NY.

KEAGLE'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by San Diego in the sixth round of the June 1993 draft.
- Acquired by Seattle as a player to be named along with Andy Benes on July 31, 1995 in exchange for Ron Villone and Marc Newfield.
- Selected by Detroit in the Rule 5 draft on December 4, 1995.
- On disabled list, July 7-August 21, 1996 (back strain).

1996 Season

Paced the Tigers with 113 strikeouts and 194.1 innings in his second season with the major league club.

- Ended the campaign with a career-high seven-game losing streak (13 starts) dating to his last win on July 7 against Toronto, his last outing before the All-Star break.
- Despite the streak, he pitched at least six innings in 16 of his final 18 starts (125.2IP total), averaging 7.0 innings.
- Finished the season with an ERA of 5.26, the lowest it had been all season.
- Notched a 3.85 ERA (48ER/112.2) in 17 home starts despite a 3-9 record.
- His 14 losses were tied for sixth-most in the American League.
- In his 14 losses, the Tigers scored 31 runs (2.2 per game)...in his six wins, they scored 36 runs (6.0 per game).
- Closed with a 3.06 ERA in his last seven starts (17ER/50.0IP), but lost all four decisions...the first of the seven saw him go eight innings on August 16 in Cleveland, allowing just two hits and one unearned run as he gained no decision in a 3-1 defeat.
- Fell just shy of becoming the first Tiger since Mike Moore in 1993 to toss 200 innings in a season...would have had one more start but his season came to an end on September 18 when a line drive during batting practice fractured the fifth metacarpal bone in his left hand.
- Tossed his first career shutout and complete game, a 2-0 win on June 21 vs. the Twins...the victory was the first in a three-game win streak and snapped a four-game losing skid.
- Became the first Tiger starter to win three straight decisions in 1996 when he tossed his second shutout of the year (and career) in his outing on July 7 vs. Toronto, a 9-0 triumph.
- Became the first Tiger since Mike Moore (three) and John Doherty (two) in 1993 to record two-or-more shutouts in one season...was one of four AL pitchers with two shutouts for the year.
- Was second to Omar Olivares on the club with three complete games...in addition to his shutouts, he went the distance in a 2-1 loss on August 26 vs. Cleveland when he allowed just four hits in nine frames.
- Allowed Eddie Murray's 500th career homer on September 6 at Baltimore when he gained no decision in a 5-4 loss.
- Tied his career-high with eight strikeouts on July 19 at Toronto (8-6 win).
- Had a four game losing streak from May 7-25 in which his ERA was 15.15 (23ER/13.2IP)...in the rest of his 28 starts, he went 6-10 with a 4.48 ERA (90ER/181.0IP).
- Was the Tigers Opening Day starter on April 1 in Minnesota, losing 8-6 (6ER/3.0IP).

Major League Career

Opened the 1995 campaign in Detroit and spent his first season in the major leagues, splitting time between the starting rotation and the bullpen.

- Earned no decision in his major league debut on April 27 vs. Seattle...fired three innings of no-hit ball while striking out four (3-0 loss).
- Made eight relief appearances before getting his first start vs. Chicago on May 27...was collared with the loss despite tossing five innings of three-hit, one-run ball.
- Relieved two more times before returning to the starting rotation for his next 15 appearances.
- Posted his first major league victory on May 30 at Toronto (8-6)...pitched two innings of three-hit relief.
- Recorded wins in three straight starts from June 11-21...these three wins coupled with his May 30 victory mark the longest winning streak of his career.

- Posted a 1.93 ERA in that four-game span (5ER/23.1IP).
- Enjoyed his most successful outing of the season on June 21 vs. Texas as he scattered six hits and did not allow a run in 8.1 innings (1-0 win)...the 8.1 innings pitched marked his longest outing of the season.
- Struck out six batters twice for his season-high (May 27 vs. Chicago and June 6 at Cleveland).
- Retired one batter for his first save in the majors on August 29 at Chicago.

Minor League Highlights

Played the entire 1994 campaign with Toledo for his first full season at the Triple A level.

- Placed second on the team with 26 starts...recorded one complete game.
- Issued just 45 walks in 151.1 innings pitched.
- Reached the 100 strikeout plateau for the second straight season.
- Pitched a seven-inning no-hitter against Columbus on May 4, winning 4-0.
- Led the International League with 16 wild pitches.

Began 1993 in London (AA) before earning a promotion to Toledo for five starts.

- Led the London pitching staff with a 10-4 record and the lowest ERA of all starters (3.38)...was second on the team in innings pitched (152.0) and strikeouts (122).
- Paced the entire Tiger minor league system with 183.1 innings pitched and 145 strikeouts.
- Made five starts in Toledo, striking out 23 batters in just 31.0 innings.

Led the 1992 Class A Lakeland team to the Florida State League title.

- Paced the Tigers starters with an 11-5 record.
- Fired two complete games despite making just eight starts.
- Surrendered just 16 walks in 109.0 innings pitched.

Worked the 1991 season mainly as a starter for Class A Fayetteville.

- Earned one save in a pair of relief appearances.

Split the 1990 campaign between Bristol (Rookie) and Lakeland (A).

- Led all Bristol starters with a 2.41 ERA before making one appearance at Lakeland.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Is single and makes his off-season home in Miranda, VZ.

- Played winter ball from 1991-96 in Venezuela...was 1-1 with a 4.80 ERA this past year.
- Attended Rafael O. Figueroa High School.

1996 Season

Established career-highs in games (139), at-bats (468), runs (43), hits (120), doubles (26), triples (2), home runs (15) and RBI (58).

- His 14 homers as a shortstop were second-most in the NL, trailing only Barry Larkin.
- Made 112 starts at shortstop and 10 at third base.
- Started strong by hitting .329 (25x76) with four home runs and 16 RBI in April.
- Kept his average above .300 (.306) through the end of May by batting .282 (20x71) before struggling through a 16x82 (.195) month of June.
- Closed the month by starting a season-best eight-game hitting streak from June 28-July 11 (.313; 10x32).
- Collected a career-high four hits in the second game of a July 14 doubleheader at New York.
- Ended two games with home runs, including a July 28 solo shot off former Tiger Joey Eischen in a 3-2 win and an August 24 two-run blast off St. Louis' Todd Stottlemeyer in a 3-1 victory.
- Batted .188 (19x101) in his final 30 games to finish the season at .256.

Major League Career

Earned the starting job at shortstop during the 1995 Spring Training and started 85 of the Astros first 101 games.

- Enjoyed his best success in June with a .344 average (32x93), two homers and 19 RBI...hit .278 in May (22x79) and .278 in August (10x36).
- Knocked in at least one run in six consecutive games from June 17-26, including a career-high five on June 26 vs. St. Louis.
- Hit safely in 15-of-16 games from June 11-July 3, batting .343 (23x67)...included in that stretch was a career-best 10-game hitting streak from June 18-July 2.
- Blasted a pair of longballs on August 6 at Pittsburgh.
- Recorded three hits on six occasions.
- Sprained his left knee in a collision at second base with Philadelphia's Tom Marsh on August 15, forcing him to miss the final six weeks of the season.
- Committed just one error in his final 13 games played...also made just one error from June 3-July 1, a span of 22 games.

Saw his first major league action in 1994 when his contract was recalled from Triple A on July 6.

- Made his debut in the majors on July 8 at Chicago and singled off Mike Morgan in his first plate appearance...went 2x4 in the game.
- Went 2x3 with a pair of homers and three RBI in a July 10 start at Chicago...his first big league home run came off Kevin Foster that day.
- Started consecutive games on July 16-17 at Pittsburgh and went 5x8 with a triple and four RBI.
- Did not commit an error in 16 games.

Minor League Highlights

Played in 93 games for the Class AAA Tucson Toros in 1994 and batted .257 with 10 homers and 55 RBI.

- Was hitting just .150 as the defending Pacific Coast League champs started the season 0-6...collected five hits, including a triple and homer, and knocked in four runs in a 16-14 win at Colorado Springs on April 17.

Posted career-highs with 16 homers and 89 RBI at Tucson and finished second in the Pacific Coast League with 16 triples in 1993.

- Began the season on the disabled list with a sore hamstring before being activated on April 15...returned to the DL two days later with the same injury.
- Was activated on April 24 and had just five hits in his first 40 at-bats...hit .320 over the remainder of the season.
- Tied for third in the league with 61 extra-base hits.
- Had 23 RBI during the month of May...knocked in 26 runs in August and batted .345 for the month (40x116).

Began the 1992 season at Double A Jackson before a late-season promotion to Tucson.

- Batted .241 in April, but rebounded to hit at a .347 clip in 22 May contests with 17 RBI.
- Hit safely in 13-of-14 games from May 20-31, batting .396 (21x53) during the stretch and raising his overall batting mark from .229 to .317.
- Earned a late-season trial at Tucson where he batted .243 in 10 games...batted .318 (7x22) in his final six games.

Opened the 1991 season at Jackson, but was sent to Osceola (A) for the second half of the year.

- Hit .400 in his first 18 games at Osceola (28x70), including a 10-game hitting streak from June 14-24.
- Committed 19 errors in his first 47 games but only five in his final 27.

Named to the South Atlantic League All-Star team in 1990 at Asheville (A) and was tabbed by league managers as the SAL's 10th-best prospect.

- Tied for second in the league with 29 doubles and ranked fifth in batting with a .313 average.

Hit .291 in 58 games at Oneonta (A) in 1989.

Played just 17 games in his first pro season in 1988 at Ft. Lauderdale (A) and Sarasota (Rookie).

1996 Season

Fifteen wins while pitching for the Double A Southern League-champion Jacksonville club earned him a late recall to Detroit for a pair of starts.

- Was named by Baseball America to their overall Double A All-Star team...also earned Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Year honors.
- Led the Southern League in victories and ranked tied for sixth in ERA at 3.48.
- Paced the Suns in victories, strikeouts (120), starts (28) and innings pitched (173.1) while posting the team's best ERA among starters.
- Pitched Jacksonville to the Southern League championship, twirling a four-hit, complete-game shutout in Game Four of the championship series against Chattanooga to clinch the title.
- Earned credit for the victory in two of his three playoff starts...allowed just two runs and 12 hits in 25.1 playoff innings (0.71 ERA), both runs coming on solo homers.
- Gained no decision in game one of the Southern League playoffs against Carolina, a 15-inning Suns victory...went eight innings in that contest and allowed just one run on four hits, walking one and fanning a season-high 10.
- Went undefeated in his last 11 starts before the recall (including playoffs), compiling a 6-0 record during that span with a 2.05 ERA (17ER/74.2IP).
- Went six or more innings in 23 of his 28 total minor league starts and 11 straight to close the season.
- Allowed more than three earned runs in a game just four times all season in the minors and just once in his last 22 outings.
- Struck out six or more hitters eight times and averaged 6.2 strikeouts per nine innings during the Suns regular season...increased that to 7.8 strikeouts per nine innings during the playoffs.
- Of his 31 total starts, 21 resulted in Jacksonville victories.
- His numbers for the month of June included a 5-1 record and 2.30 ERA in 43 innings, allowing 37 hits, striking out 26 and walking 11...that month, opposing hitters batted just .226 against him.
- His June performance won him Tiger Minor League Pitcher of the Month honors.
- In four minor league seasons has averaged 7.9 strikeouts per nine innings.
- Was recalled on September 22 as Felipe Lira and Omar Olivares had their seasons cut short by injury.
- Received no decision in his major league debut on September 22 at Milwaukee in a 7-5 Tiger win...allowed five unearned runs in 5.1 frames, but a four-run Tiger ninth rallied the club to a 7-5 comeback win.
- Lost in his final game, a 7-1 defeat also against Milwaukee on September 28 in Detroit...pitched five innings and allowed five runs.

1996 Season

Set a Tiger club record with 83 appearances, breaking the old mark of 80 set by Guillermo Hernandez in 1984.

- His 83 appearances tied for the major league lead...83 appearances also set a major league record for appearances by a rookie which was previously set by Texas' Mitch Williams in 1986.
- Was especially tough on lefthanded batters, holding them to a .229 (27x118) batting average against...retired 33 of the last 41 lefties he faced.
- Was at his best when entering the game, retiring 37 of his final 41 first batters faced (90%)...for the season, he set down 81% (67-of-83) of first batters.
- Only 24 percent (16-of-76) of inherited runners scored, the best mark among a Tiger bullpen that allowed 39 percent as a unit to come home.
- Appeared in 61 of the Tigers first 107 games as he spent much of the time as the only lefthander in the bullpen.
- After Detroit acquired lefties John Cummings and Joey Eischen on July 31, his action tailed off slightly as he appeared in 22 of the final 55 contests.
- Finished second on the club with six saves after having none in his previous six years as a professional (139 prior games).
- Allowed just 10 earned runs in his final 37 games (28.0IP; 3.21 ERA).
- Struck out a batter in each of his final nine games despite pitching just 5.2 total innings.
- Finished the season's first half with a 5.90 ERA (26ER/39.2IP)...after the break, he compiled a 3.60 ERA (10ER/25.0IP) in 34 games, allowing just two home runs.
- July was his best month with a 2.03 ERA in 15 contests (3ER/13.1IP).

Major League Career

Pitched for four teams in 1995, including stints with Florida and Detroit.

- Opened the season with his first taste of big-league action playing for the Marlins.
- Made his major league debut on Opening Day as he fired one scoreless inning vs. Los Angeles.
- Appeared in two games as a reliever before being optioned to Triple A Charlotte on May 6.
- Obtained by Detroit on August 8 as the player-to-be-named in exchange for Buddy Groom...made a brief stint at Triple A Toledo before earning a call-up to Detroit.
- Made 11 appearances for the Tigers in relief...earned his first win in the majors on September 19 vs. Baltimore.

Minor League Highlights

Pitched the majority of the 1995 season at the Triple A level, traveling from Charlotte to Toledo in a trade with Florida.

- Appeared in 37 games with Charlotte, the second most appearances by any pitcher on the team.

- Averaged a strikeout per inning while pitching for Toledo.

Opened the 1994 campaign in Class AAA Edmonton as a starter.

- Made one start before landing on the disabled list on April 13 with bone spurs in his left elbow.
- Began rehab work on July 11 playing for Brevard County (A)...struck out 15 batters in just 11.1 innings before being activated from the disabled list on August 5.
- Struck out seven batters and walked just one through four innings in a no-decision on July 17 at Las Vegas.
- Earned his only victory in the last game ever played at John Ducey Park on August 28 vs. Colorado Springs (7.0IP, 4H, 2ER, 2BB, 7K).

Spent the entire 1993 season at Edmonton, registering a team-high 27 starts.

- His 27 starts tied for second in the Pacific Coast League for the year and tied for fourth in Edmonton history...his high for total appearances was 15 in his first year of professional ball.
- Led the league with 10 hit batsmen and finished second with 14 losses.

Split the 1992 campaign between the Giants Class A affiliates Clinton and San Jose, posting a combined 6-3 record with a 1.85 ERA.

- His combined 1.85 ERA was the lowest of all Florida minor league pitchers.
- Reeled off victories in four straight decisions from July 17-August 8.
- Pitched at least 6.0 innings in 11 of his 15 contests...allowed one earned run or less in 12 of the 15 games, including five scoreless outings.
- Allowed just one home run during the entire season (92.1IP)...the homer came in his last outing (August 30).

Named to the 1991 Midwest League All-Star team as a member of the Clinton Giants.

- Started 11 contests at Clinton, posting a 5-3 record with a 2.62 ERA to help Clinton clinch the Midwest League Championship.

Started his professional career in 1990 in the Northwest League with Everett, the Giants Class A affiliate.

- Recorded 73 strikeouts in 85.1 innings, good for an average of 7.7 per nine innings.
- Fanned 11 batters in a seven-inning contest vs. Southern Oregon.

Personal/Miscellaneous

He, wife Robyn and son Christian (2/13/96) reside in Charlotte, NC, in the off-season.

- Played winter ball in Arizona in 1994 and 1995 and played in the Dominican Republic in 1992.
- Attended Iowa State University (1988-90)...earned All-Big Eight honors in baseball in 1989.
- Graduated from Crystal Lake Central (IL) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and soccer.
- Member of the silver medal-winning USA squad that competed in the 1989 IBA Presidential Cup Baseball Tournament in Taiwan.
- Was a gold medalist in baseball at the 1987 U.S. Olympic Festival.

MYERS' CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by San Francisco in the fourth round of the free-agent draft on June 4, 1990.
- Selected by Florida in the Rule 5 Draft on December 7, 1992.
- On disabled list, June 7-August 5, 1994 (left elbow).
- Acquired by Detroit on August 8, 1995, in exchange for Buddy Groom.

Hughie Jennings and His Famous Yell

Hall of Famer and former Tiger skipper Hughie Jennings (1907-1920) was famous for his distinguished "Eeeyah" yell. Jennings, who managed teams led by Hall of Fame players such as Ty Cobb, Sam Crawford and Harry Heilmann, began to use this act after being ejected from a game and fined for using a policeman's whistle while coaching at third base.

1997 TIGERS

1996 Season

Started 23 of the final 30 Tigers games at third base after spending most of the season at Double A Jacksonville learning how to play catcher.

- Closed the campaign by hitting safely in 20 of his final 24 games (.292; 26x89)...tied a career-high with three hits on September 21 at Milwaukee.
- Posted 17 RBI in his final 19 games, homering in seven of the contests...averaged one homer every 8.6 at-bats (8HR/69AB) during that span and had his first career two-homer game on September 21 at Milwaukee.
- Notched a career-high 10-game hitting streak from August 29-September 7, batting .325 (13x40).
- Also tied his career-best with three hits on August 3 vs. Seattle, his first game in the majors since October 1, 1995.
- Appeared at catcher on August 4 vs. Seattle, his first major league game behind the plate...made his first start at catcher on August 20 vs. Chicago.
- Made just one error in his first 17 games at third base.
- Missed five games from September 9-13 with a sprained right ankle.
- Caught 62 games for Jacksonville before his recall...had not caught a game since high school.
- Hit .379 in 19 May games at Double A.
- Smashed two home runs on April 26 against Knoxville...had a repeat performance as he went deep twice against Orlando on June 18.
- Had a monumental day on July 30 as he went 4x6 with three homers, six RBI and 13 total bases.

Major League Career

Spent the 1995 season playing for four different teams, including stints with the Astros and the Tigers.

- Started the season at Class AAA Tucson before making his major league debut with the Astros on June 11 vs. Cincinnati.
- In his major league debut, he went 1x5 with an RBI while playing third base.
- Was acquired by the Tigers from Houston on August 15 in exchange for Mike Henneman...played seven games with Class AAA Toledo before appearing with the Tigers.
- Made his first start as a Tiger on September 1 vs. Cleveland...went 1x4 with a double and one RBI while playing left field.
- Started 29 straight games, the first 27 in leftfield and the final two at designated hitter.
- Hit his first major league homer on September 3 off of Albie Lopez of the Indians.
- Pieced together a seven-game hitting streak from September 23-29...batted .360 (9x25) in that span.
- Collected 21 hits while wearing a Tiger uniform...six of those hits went for extra bases.
- Posted four multi-hit games for the Tigers.

Minor League Highlights

Played 62 games for Triple A Tucson in 1995 before being traded to the Tigers.

- Opened the season with an outstanding month of April in which he batted .303 (23x76) with 16 RBI.
- Went 4x5 vs. Colorado Springs, sparking a 13-game hitting streak from April 25-May 13...batted .481 (25x52) and collected 15 RBI in that span.

- Pieced together hitting streaks of nine (May 17-27) and eight (May 28-June 6) games, with an 0x2 performance in the first game of a doubleheader on May 28 keeping him from an 18-game hitting streak.
- Collected at least one hit in all but three games of a 34-contest stretch...he batted .364 (48x132) in that stint.
- Was traded to Detroit on August 15 and assigned to Toledo where he played seven games before being recalled to the parent club.
- Batted .538 (7x13) in his final four games as a Mud Hen before jumping to Detroit.

Spent 1994 playing in his second season at Tucson.

- Finished tied for second on the team with 12 home runs and was third with 79 RBI.
- Hit safely in 15 straight games from April 22-May 7, batting .404 in that stretch.
- Hit 10 homers and drove in 50 runs during the final 67 games of the season.
- Led the Pacific Coast League in grounding into double plays with 21...paced all PCL third basemen with 32 double plays and 31 errors.

Began his professional career in 1993 with Houston's Triple A Tucson affiliate.

- Became the first Tucson player in 10 years to drive in at least 90 runs when he posted 93 RBI...his RBI output was the highest of all Houston minor leaguers.
- Hit .400 in August of his rookie season and had 29 RBI for the month.
- Led Pacific Coast League third basemen with an .891 fielding percentage.

Personal/Miscellaneous

1996 Season

Posted career-highs in homers (24) and RBI (60) in his first season with the Tigers.

- Blasted 12 of his 24 roundtrippers in a span of 19 games from July 15-August 22, averaging one homer every 5.6 at-bats (12HR/67AB).
- Over his final 31 games, he averaged one homer every 10.1 at-bats (12HR/121AB) and an RBI every 4.5 at-bats (27RBI).
- Homered from both sides of the plate twice (July 15 at Milwaukee and August 20 vs. Chicago), joining Todd Hundley, Ken Caminiti and Roberto Alomar as the only players to do it two times in 1996.
- Vaulted to a quick start, hitting .301 with three homers and 11 RBI in 21 April games... had six doubles in his first six games as a Tiger.
- Set a career-high with four hits on April 6 vs. Oakland in Las Vegas.
- Was named Tigers Player of the Month for May, batting .241 with five homers and 11 RBI.
- Among his May homers, his blast on May 17 off the White Sox Alex Fernandez went over the rightfield roof, one of three balls this season and the 28th all-time to be hit out of the stadium...the distance, measured at 475 feet, was estimated by MCI to be the seventh-longest in the majors in 1996.
- Notched a career-best eight-game hitting streak from July 28-August 22, batting .364 (12x33).
- Drove in a career-high five runs on August 20 vs. the White Sox.
- Homered in back-to-back games five times during the season.
- Posted 16 of his homers and 35 RBI in 56 games after the All-Star break.
- Did not connect for a home run from August 23-September 20, a span of 24 games, but hit three in his final nine contests.
- Was troubled by injury, including time on the disabled list for a torn right calf muscle (June 5-20) and a strained oblique muscle (August 2-19)...the injuries sidelined him for 29 games.

Major League Career

Played the entire 1995 season at the major league level for the first time in his career.

- Blasted 14 home runs for San Diego (second-most on the team) in just 234 at-bats... went deep once every 16.7 at-bats (would have ranked eighth in the NL had he qualified).
- Shared the league lead with two grand slams on the year (tying Mike Piazza, Todd Hundley, Tony Eusebio and Andres Galarraga)...two grand slams in a season tied the Padres club mark.
- Hit the first slam on August 2 vs. San Francisco off Terry Mulholland...the second grand slam came on August 26 at New York off Doug Henry.
- In the final 36 games he batted .243 (18x74) with eight longballs and 20 RBI.
- Pieced together a seven-game hitting streak from September 19-26...batted .407 (11x27) in that span which included four home runs and seven RBI.
- Hit .395 (13x44) with four doubles, five homers and eight RBI in his last 13 games.

Made 10 appearances in San Diego, but spent the majority of 1994 playing for Las Vegas (AAA).

- In his first game as a Padre for the season he responded by going 2x3 with a round-tripper and two RBI at Colorado.

Played for three different teams in 1993, including a 19-game stint with San Diego.

- In his third game in a Padres uniform on September 8, he drilled his first major league home run off the Marlins Chris Hammond.

- Hit his first home run lefthanded on October 2 off the Cubs William Brennan.
- Finished the season with 11 starts in right field.

Made a steady climb through the Braves minor league system in 1992, eventually earning a call-up to the parent club for 12 games.

- Made his major league debut on September 1 and recorded his first major league hit the following night at New York.

Minor League Highlights

Spent the majority of the 1994 campaign playing for the Class AAA Las Vegas Stars.

- Hit 25 home runs, the top mark among all Padre farmhands...25 homers also shared ninth among all Triple A players.
- Drove in 92 runs (third-most in San Diego farm system) and batted .308 (sixth-highest among minor league switch-hitters).
- Homered in five consecutive games from May 27-31...the five-game streak shared the longest in the minor leagues for the year.
- In the five games, he was 15x23 (.652) with 6 homers and 16 RBI.
- Drove in 21 runs while belting six homers in his last 17 games with Las Vegas.

Played for two different minor league teams in 1993 as the Padres acquired him from the Braves.

- Started the season in Class AAA Richmond where he hit .278 with 10 homers and 36 RBI before being traded to the Padres and assigned to Las Vegas.
- Played in his first game with Las Vegas on July 22 and hit a towering home run in his first at-bat.
- Heated up in his final 27 games, going 37x95 (.389)...started the streak on August 8 and hit safely in 21 of the next 24 games at a .407 clip (35x86).

Started the 1992 campaign at the Single A level and reached the majors by the end of the season.

- Opened the year in Durham (A) where he batted .302 with 32 runs in 31 games.
- Promoted to Greenville (AA) where he debuted on May 1 with a homer at Knoxville.
- Began his stint at the Double A Level by hitting safely in 12 of his first 14 games at a .375 clip with three longballs and 11 RBI.
- Blasted homers in back-to-back games on six separate occasions.
- Named the Topps Minor League Player of the Month for June in the Southern League.
- Named to the league's All-Star team and selected by Baseball America as the second-best prospect in the Southern League.
- Combined to hit 26 home runs with 108 RBI at Durham and Greenville, the best marks among Braves farmhands.

Tied what was then a career mark for homers with nine in the 1991 season.

- Those nine homers were good for third on the Durham squad.

Played the entire 1990 season at Sumter (A).

- Finished 10th in the South Atlantic League in batting with a .283 average.
- Paced Sumter with 130 hits, 59 RBI and 60 runs.

Earned a spot on the Appalachian League All-Star team in 1989.

- Ranked third in the league with 46 RBI and fifth with 16 doubles.
- Blasted a grand slam on June 27 vs. Burlington.

Made his professional baseball debut in 1988 in Bradenton (A).

- Collected 12 RBI in 56 games as a 16-year-old.

Personal/Miscellaneous

He, wife Wendy and son Alex (5/4/93) make their off-season home in Pinehurst, NC.

- Attended Luis Pales Matos High School in Santa Rosa, Puerto Rico.
- Hit .278 in 1996 winter league play (Puerto Rico).
- Was the MVP of American Legion ball in Santa Rosa in 1986.

1996 Season

Emerged as the Tigers top winner after appearing in just 30 major league games in the previous two seasons.

- Of the 18 times that a Tiger pitcher lasted eight-or-more innings for the season, Olivares owned eight of the efforts despite starting just 25 times.
- Had four complete games, surpassing his previous career total of two and tying for 12th-most in the AL...it was the most complete games by a Tiger in one season since Mike Moore had four in 1993.
- Tossed 160.0 innings, his highest total since 1992...posted a 4.89 ERA, lowest among Tiger starters with at least 60 innings of work.
- Pitched well at home, going 4-4 with a 4.35 ERA in 11 starts.
- The season was one of streaks for Olivares, including a pair of four-game losing streaks (one of them to close the season) and a stretch of three consecutive winning decisions.
- The three-game win streak was from July 28-August 8 and came in consecutive starts over the Rangers on August 8 and the Mariners on August 2 and July 28.
- The August 2 win over Seattle included a career-high eight walks, while the one on July 28 came in a complete-game effort (5ER/9.0IP).
- The first Seattle win snapped his first four-game losing skid (tied for his career-high).
- Allowed two earned runs or less three times during the losing string which covered five games (one no decision), but the Tigers scored a total of just five runs for him in that stretch.
- Overall, the Tigers scored just 22 runs in Olivares' 11 defeats (2.0 per game).
- Was especially tough on righthanded batters, holding them to a .258 average (79x306) on the year.
- Tied his career-high with nine strikeouts in a 1-0 complete-game loss at California on July 22.
- Had a 3-1 record in June with a 4.04 ERA to earn Tiger Pitcher of the Month honors.
- Held Baltimore scoreless over his final two frames of work on June 5, beginning a stretch of 14.0 consecutive innings (through June 15-fifth inning) without allowing a run.
- Was on the 15-day disabled list from April 16-May 29 with a strained left hamstring.
- Saw his season cut short by one start when he sprained his right ankle while pitching on September 20 at Milwaukee...had been staked to a 5-0 lead when he suffered the injury in the fourth inning.

Major League Career

Before signing with Detroit in the off-season of 1995, he split time among four clubs including two major league stops.

- Made 11 appearances, including six starts, with Colorado after a brief stay at Class AAA Colorado Springs.
- Opened his major league campaign by earning a victory on April 29 at Houston by firing 5.0 innings of two-hit, shutout ball.
- Ended the season with Philadelphia and went on to make five relief appearances.
- Pitched 4.0 innings of four-hit ball in relief on July 24 versus Colorado for his longest relief outing of the season.

Opened the 1994 campaign in the minor leagues before earning a promotion to St. Louis on June 10.

- Started for the Cardinals the next day and earned a victory at Philadelphia by scattering seven hits over 6.2 innings.
- Pitched a gem on July 21 vs. Atlanta as he fired a complete-game three-hitter for the win...retired the final 21 men he faced and did not allow a hit after the second inning.
- From June 16-July 3 he registered four no-decisions and his lone save of the year (June 30 vs. Colorado)...during the string of no-decisions he posted a 3.29 ERA (10ER/27.1IP).
- Finished the season with a 12-4 win on August 10 at Florida, scattering nine hits in 7.0 innings...helped himself by belting his third career home run.

Worked the majority of 1993 out of the bullpen, finishing with 58 appearances and nine starts.

- In the first month of the season he switched between the bullpen for six appearances before making his first start on April 25 versus Atlanta...went head-to-head with Greg Maddux and earned the victory in a 7-3 decision.
- Surrendered just two earned runs in his first six appearances of the season to record a 1.38 ERA (2ER/13.0IP).
- Enjoyed an 11 game stretch from July 8-27 in which he surrendered just two earned runs (2ER/11.1IP) for a 1.58 ERA.
- Pitched mostly out of the pen for the remainder of the year, making his final start on September 26, a 7-3 victory.
- Had his season interrupted with a stint on the disabled list in June for a strained groin muscle.

Pitched the 1992 season almost exclusively as a starter in his first full season at the major league level.

- Led the St. Louis pitching staff in strikeouts (124) and walks (63).
- Led all National League pitchers with a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage (55 total chances).
- Tied with Bud Black of the Giants to share the major league single-season record for fewest double plays by a pitcher who led the league in double plays (four).
- Started in 30 of his 32 appearances, logging just three innings of relief work.
- Earned a win in his first game of the season on April 7 vs. the Mets...scattered seven hits in seven innings for the victory.
- Hurlled a complete-game 4-3 victory vs. Montreal on April 24 in just his fourth game of the year...this marked the first complete game in his career.
- Tossed seven innings of two-hit, scoreless ball on June 18 at New York en route to his fourth victory.
- Sidelined for nearly a month with a groin pull that occurred May 16 at Houston...the injury landed him on the disabled list until mid-June.
- Earned no decision in perhaps his best outing of the year when he surrendered two hits through eight innings, striking out eight vs. New York on September 29.

During the 1991 season he recorded the most wins by a Cardinal rookie since Greg Matthews in 1986.

- Recorded his first major league save on April 20 vs. Philadelphia.
- Rebounded after a trio of appearances with the Cardinals and a month of Triple A seasoning to go on to post a .611 winning percentage (11-7), good for 10th-best in the National League.
- Carried shutouts through eight innings in three straight starts (September 9-19) before giving up ninth-inning runs each time, earning two victories and one no-decision.
- Posted a 4-2 record with a 2.13 ERA in August to garner Cardinal of the Month honors.
- Won six of his last 10 starts and was 3-1 with a 2.58 ERA in five September outings.
- Was the workhorse of the pitching staff, reaching the sixth inning in 21 of his 24 starts.
- Fanned a career-best nine batters in the season finale on October 6 at Chicago.

Closed out the 1990 campaign by earning a late season recall to St. Louis to make his major league debut.

- Made his major league debut on August 18 vs. Houston where he allowed just one run on three hits in 8.0 innings pitched...eventually earned no decision in the extra-inning loss.

- Had no decisions in each of his first four starts before gaining his first big league win on September 13 at Montreal.
- Fired a team season-high 5.1 innings of relief work on September 27 vs. the Phillies.
- Retired all three first batters faced as a reliever and allowed just two runs in 10.0 innings of relief work.

Minor League Highlights

Split the 1995 season with four teams including Colorado Springs (AAA) and Scranton-Wilkes Barre (AAA).

- Made three appearances, including two starts, with Colorado Springs before being recalled to the parent club.
- Also spent time with Philadelphia's Triple A affiliate where he made seven appearances, all of them starts.

Opened the 1994 campaign at Class AAA Louisville after spending the previous two seasons in the major leagues.

- Made nine starts for the Redbirds, going 2-1 with a 4.37 ERA, which was slightly inflated due to a pair of rough outings.
- In that stretch he missed nearly three weeks with a pulled groin.
- Rebounded from the injury and was solid in his final three starts prior to his promotion to St. Louis...went 2-0 with a 1.35 ERA (3ER/20.0IP) in that span.

Played a month with Louisville toward the beginning of 1991 after a trio of relief stints with St. Louis.

- Made six starts for the Redbirds where he fanned 27 batters in 36.1 innings of work.

Was acquired by St. Louis from San Diego prior to the start of the 1990 spring training.

- Worked the majority of the season as a starter for the Louisville Redbirds.
- Went 10-11 in 23 starts with a 2.82 ERA, including five complete-games and two shutouts.
- Fanned a professional-best 14 batters in a July 7 win vs. Indianapolis.

In his first stint at the Double A level, he was named to the 1989 Texas League All-Star squad.

- Enjoyed a four-start month of May in which he allowed just one earned run in 34.0 innings to post a 0.26 ERA.
- Tossed a 10-inning shutout on May 2 vs. El Paso...surrendered just five hits and fanned eight batters for the victory.
- Led the Texas League with 185.2 innings pitched...also tied for the league lead with 10 hit batsmen.
- His 3.39 ERA was the fifth-lowest in the league.

Recorded the most complete games (10) of any 1988 South Atlantic League pitcher despite finishing the season in the California League.

- Finished with the second-lowest ERA (2.23) of all South Atlantic League pitchers.
- Promoted to Riverside (A) in late season where he posted a perfect 3-0 record with a 1.16 ERA.

Broke into professional baseball in the 1987 campaign.

- Came to the Padres after signing as a free agent the previous September.

Personal/Miscellaneous

He, wife Tracy and children Omar Jr. (4/5/93) and twins Austin and Evan (4/24/94) make their off-season home in San German, Puerto Rico.

- Played winter ball in Puerto Rico from 1986-96.
- Attended Miami Dade Junior College in Miami, FL.
- Graduated from Hostos High School in his hometown of Mayaguez, PR.
- Continued a family tradition by playing for the Cardinals, the same club that his father, outfielder Ed Olivares, played for in 1960 and '61.

Tigers to Play 15,000th Game in 1997

Barring any postponements, the Detroit Tigers, original members of the American League, are scheduled to play their 15,000th game on August 16, 1997, against the Anaheim Angels. First pitch for that contest is 10:35 p.m. in Anaheim. The Tigers, who begin the 1997 season with 14,907 total games played, own an all-time total record of 7,622-7,193-92.

OLIVARES' CAREER TRANSACTIONS

1997 TIGERS

145

- Spent more than three weeks on the disabled list (April 13-May 9) with a left shoulder strain...played in nine games at Toledo on a rehab assignment.

Major League Career

Split time between the Triple A and the major league levels where he enjoyed a pair of stints with the Expos during the 1995 season.

- Primarily came off the bench to play the outfield and to pinch hit.
- Made his first appearance in the majors in two seasons on June 4 when Henry Rodriguez was placed on the disabled list.
- His first hit of the season was an RBI single off the Reds Kevin Jarvis on June 18.
- Scored three runs as the leadoff hitter at Pittsburgh on July 23 to establish a career-high...collected his only multi-hit game of the season (2x4).
- Returned to play four more games at the season's end after spending a month in Ottawa (AAA).

Progressed through the minor leagues, splitting time at the Double A and Triple A levels before reaching the major leagues to end the 1993 season.

- Made his major league debut as a defensive replacement in left field on September 14 vs. St. Louis.
- In his debut he became just the fifth deaf player to appear in a major league game and the first since 1945...previous deaf players, as researched by the Baseball Hall of Fame, were pitcher Ed Dundon (1883-84), outfielder William Hoy (1888-1902), pitcher Luther Taylor (1900-1908) and, most recently, outfielder Dick Sipek (1945 Reds).
- Collected his first major league hit, a pinch-hit two-run double, in the seventh inning on September 17 off Bobby Thigpen and the Phillies...his double sparked a five-minute standing ovation at Olympic Stadium.
- Came off the bench to deliver a pinch-hit triple off Greg McMichael and the Braves on September 23.
- Belted a ninth-inning, game-winning, two-run pinch homer (his first in the majors) off Richie Lewis and the Marlins on September 30...the homer allowed John Wetteland to come in and nail down his team record-tying 41st save of the season.

Minor League Highlights

Paced the Class AAA Ottawa club with 22 steals despite playing just 82 games in an injury-plagued 1994 season.

- Had his bid to start the season at the major league level erased as he battled spring training injuries which kept him off the field for a good portion of the year.
- Strained lower abdominal muscles and a sprained left thumb forced him to be optioned to Ottawa on March 28...he remained at extended spring training on rehab where he played three games in the Florida State League.
- After rejoining the Lynx on May 19, he was named the International League's Player of the Week for June 26-July 2...batted .464 with two homers and six RBI in that stretch.
- Placed on the disabled list two more times (right foot, fifth metatarsal joint sprain; right elbow sprain) at Ottawa before season's end.
- Reestablished his credentials in the Arizona Fall League where he was named one of the top outfield prospects...batted .299 with five homers and 33 RBI in 47 games.

Led the 1993 Montreal minor league system with 106 runs and 50 stolen bases while splitting time between the Double A and Triple A levels.

- Began the season in Harrisburg (AA) and was promoted after batting .356 in 50 games.
- Posted a career game on June 19 vs. Reading as he went 5x6 with a walk, triple, two homers, five runs and six RBI.
- Named the Eastern League's Player of the Month for June with a .404 batting average, five home runs and 18 RBI.
- Promoted to Ottawa on June 21 and hit .302 in 69 games in his first season there.
- His .302 average was tops on the squad of all batters with at least 260 at-bats.

Played in his first season at the Double A level in 1992 after spending the previous six campaigns at the Rookie and Single A levels.

Named to the 1991 Florida State League All-Star team while posting team highs in numerous offensive categories for the year.

- Paced the squad in batting average (.260), runs (57) and hits (102)...tied for the club lead with seven triples and nine home runs.

Batted .267 while appearing in just 53 games for Class A Columbia in 1990.

Spent the 1989 campaign in the New York-Penn League at the Class A level.

- Had a solid season both offensively and defensively, tying for third on the team with 35 runs, placing third with six homers, fourth with 25 walks while committing four errors playing the outfield.

- Jacked a pair of two-run homers vs. Watertown on July 8...repeated that performance with a pair of two-run shots on July 29 vs. Niagara Falls.

Led the 1988 edition of the Appalachian League with 59 runs scored prompting his selection for the Appalachian League All-Star team.

- Played 70 games to help the Kingsport (Rookie) club to its first league title in 11 seasons.
- Placed third in the league in at-bats (268) and tied for third in hits (76).

Struggled through his first two seasons of professional baseball in 1986 and 1987, posting a combined .200 batting average in 58 games.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Is single and makes his off-season home in West Palm Beach, FL.

- Became the seventh winner of the Boston Red Sox-sponsored Tony Conigliaro Award in 1996 as the major league player "who has overcome adversity through the attributes of spirit, determination and courage that were trademarks of Conigliaro"... past winners were Jim Eisenreich (1990), Dickie Thon (1991), Jim Abbott (1992), Bo Jackson (1993), Mark Leiter (1994) and Scott Radinsky (1995).
- Graduated from the College of William and Mary in 1991 with a degree in finance after attending college on a basketball scholarship.
- Played winter ball in Venezuela (1995) and Arizona (1994).
- In 1994 was named one of the 10 "Outstanding Young Americans" of the year by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce.
- By the time he reached the majors in 1993, he had already been a subject of profile pieces in Sports Illustrated, Baseball America and countless newspapers located in Eastern and International League cities.
- His baseball development was slowed by basketball as he played point guard at the College of William and Mary during the winter months while using the summers to play in the Mets system.
- As a member of the William & Mary basketball team, ranked as one of the Colonial Athletic Association leaders in steals in his junior and senior years, earning CAA All-Defensive Team selection in 1988 and 1989.
- Graduated in 1986 from John F. Kennedy High School (MD) where he starred in soccer, basketball and baseball
- At 17, he played for the USA Under-18 World Cup Soccer Team at the 1985 world championships in China...was the only American named to the All-World squad following the tournament.
- Is a spokesperson for the Better Hearing Institute and works during the off-season as a special education instructional assistant.
- Frequently speaks at schools and organizations.
- Reads lips but does not "sign."

How They Became the "Tigers"

Research reveals that the nickname "Tigers" first was applied to the Detroit baseball club in 1895.

Baseball historians long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. However, George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the nickname because he had his players wear black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

It appears, though, that it was actually an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press who originated the Tiger nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. In its early years, the team was simply called "Detroit," "the Detroits," sometimes the "Wolverines" (a name more familiarly associated with the University of Michigan) and at times the "Creams."

The "Creams" broke into print in 1894, the year Detroit entered the Western League under the ownership of G.A. Van Derbeck of Los Angeles. A writer of the time derisively referred to his aggregation as "what is purported to be the cream of the California baseball players" — which may account for that particular nickname.

Then on April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read, "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called the club the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, The Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful research disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had ever used "Tigers."

PRIDE'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Made nine appearances with Cincinnati (1-0/10.57ERA) to start the season.
- Picked up his lone major league victory of the year on April 10 vs. New York, pitching 2.0 innings of scoreless relief work (2.0IP, 1H, 3SO).
- Tossed 3.0 shutout innings in relief on Opening Day vs. Montreal.
- Was placed on waivers and claimed by Kansas City on May 10.
- Was re-claimed by Cincinnati July 8 but was claimed again by Kansas City on July 12.
- Appeared in 19 games with the Royals, 18 of which were out of the bullpen...made his lone start July 15 vs. Cleveland, earning no decision.
- Struck out a season-high four batters July 24 vs. Boston.
- Was reacquired outright by Cincinnati on August 14...reported to Triple A Indianapolis and pitched four games.
- Earned victories in each of his final two starts at Indianapolis.
- Tossed 7.1 innings of two-hit, shutout ball vs. Nashville on August 27 and went the distance September 1 vs. Louisville, allowing only two hits and no runs.
- Pitched in four late-season games (all starts) and finished strong, going 2-1 with a 2.45 ERA.
- Closed his Class AAA campaign with 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings pitched.

- Appeared in just one major league game for the Reds after a September call-up... allowed two runs on four hits to Pittsburgh on August 18 at Three Rivers Stadium.

Major League Career

Started and completed the 1995 campaign with Cincinnati, while stopping in Indianapolis for six starts in between.

- Enjoyed success out of the bullpen to start the season, posting a 0.59 ERA (15.1IP/1ER) in his first six appearances.
- Earned his first relief victory May 11 at Florida, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings.
- Recorded no decision in his first start on May 23 vs. Houston (4.0IP, 6H, 3ER).
- Won his next three starts in a row, posting a 3-0 record with a 3.50 ERA (18.0IP, 21H, 7ER).
- Was sent back to the bullpen June 17, making four appearances in relief.
- Tossed a career-high 5.2 innings of relief work on June 17 vs. Montreal.
- Placed back in the starting rotation for five starts before being optioned to Indianapolis.
- Recalled in September for eight games (two starts)...went on to post a 1-1 record with a 1.89 ERA (19.0IP/4ER) after his recall.
- Lowered his ERA from 4.31 to 3.84 in his final eight games.
- Picked up his sixth and final win October 1 at Montreal, firing 5.0 innings of one-hit, shutout ball.
- In 16 relief outings, compiled a 2.97 ERA.

Spent the first two months of the season with Cincinnati before being sent to Indianapolis in late May of 1994.

- Made his first appearance as a reliever on April 4 vs. St. Louis before moving into the starting rotation.
- Defeated the Expos, 7-1, in his first start of the season April 12 in Montreal...pitched eight innings of five-hit, one-run ball for the victory.
- Finished the month of April with a 2-0 record and a 2.16 ERA (25.0IP/6ER).
- Lasted just 1.2 innings May 1 at Florida, surrendering seven earned runs...bounced back in his next start at home to defeat Houston 4-3 on May 6.
- After a pair of no-decisions in mid-May, dropped two straight games (May 22 vs. Los Angeles and May 27 at New York).
- Complained of pain in his lower back and upper left leg after the May 27 game, prompting an epidural steroid injection...optioned to Indianapolis on June 1.

Emerging as one of the top hurlers on the 1993 Cincinnati staff.

- Ranked second on the team in wins (10), innings (164.1) and complete games (3).
- Posted a 2.02 ERA in his 10 victories (75.2IP/17ER), walking just 16 batters and pitching at least seven innings in each game.
- In his 14 losses as a starter, his ERA was 9.28 (65.0IP/67ER) with 35 walks.
- Pitched his first big league complete game in a 4-3 loss at New York on May 29.
- Finished the season strong, coming within two outs of pitching a no-hitter at San Diego September 29, his final start of the season...held the Padres hitless for 8.1 innings before pinch-hitter Billy Bean singled.

Saw his first major league action in 1992, earning a late-season call-up from Indianapolis.

- Called up on September 1 and made his major league debut that night in a 5-2 loss to Montreal.
- Established a career-best by winning his next four starts, including a 6-1 victory September 6 vs. New York in his first big league triumph (6.0IP, 7H, 1ER).
- Allowed just four runs in 28.1 innings pitched (1.27 ERA) during his four-game winning streak.

Minor League Highlights

Managed six starts at Class AAA Indianapolis in 1995.

- Named American Association Pitcher-of-the-Week after tossing a four-hit shutout vs. Iowa.
- Finished with a 2-4 record and a 4.68 ERA (42.1IP/22ER) before being recalled to Cincinnati.

Suffered a stress fracture in the fifth lumbar vertebra to shorten his 1994 season.

- Suffered the injury with the parent club...after intensive low back and abdominal exercises for a month, he returned to Indianapolis on July 30 to finish the season.
- Pitched in five games after the injury, posting a 2-3 record with a 4.67 ERA.
- In the American Association playoffs, lost a tough 1-0 pitchers' duel in Game Two of the best-of-five series vs. Nashville...fired 8.0 innings, surrendering just one earned run while striking out seven and walking none.

Placed among league leaders in many pitching categories for the 1992 Class AAA Nashville club.

- His 12 victories tied for the American Association lead.
- Ranked second in the league in innings (169.2), tied for second in starts (27) and shutouts (2), fifth in strikeouts (117) and tied for fifth in complete games (3).
- Paced the Nashville squad in wins (tied), complete games and innings pitched.

Started the 1991 season at Class AA Chattanooga where he made five starts before his promotion to Nashville.

- Posted a 3-1 record with a 1.64 ERA for the Lookouts before his promotion.
- Though he had a losing record (7-11), managed to rank ninth in the American Association with a 3.81 ERA...the team scored just 24 runs in his 11 losses.
- Led all Nashville hurlers in losses, complete games (3), innings pitched (148.2), hits (130) and strikeouts (89)...placed second on the squad with 23 games started.

Blossomed in his first season at Class A Charleston in 1990.

- Posted a 15-6 record with a 1.93 ERA, eight complete games and two shutouts.
- Led the South Atlantic League in wins and complete games and ranked second in ERA.
- Named Howe Sportsdata's Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Week for June 18-24 after back-to-back complete-game victories.
- Pitched two shutouts in the post-season to lift the Wheelers to the Sally League title.
- Selected as the team's MVP and named to the postseason league All-Star Team.
- League managers rated him the league's top major league pitching prospect.

Began his professional playing career with Billings (Rookie) in the Pioneer League in 1989.

- Struck out 72 batters in 77.2 innings.

Personal/Miscellaneous

He and wife Stephanie make their off-season home in Florence, KY.

- Began the season at Toledo where he appeared in 18 games, two of them starts.
- Allowed just two earned runs in his final 18.1 innings with the Mud Hens.
- Posted an incredible strikeouts-to-walks ratio of 24-to-three in 37.2 Triple A innings.
- Had his contract purchased from Triple A on June 18 and pitched that night in Detroit against Oakland...allowed two runs in 1.2 innings of work.
- Appeared five times in relief, going 0-1 with a 5.87 ERA (5ER/7.2IP) before moving into the rotation for the first of six consecutive starts on July 5.
- Won that first start versus Toronto, 4-3 (6.0IP/1ER)...the outing marked his first career American League start and his first in the major leagues since May 19, 1994 at Houston.
- The win was his first since May 3, 1994, for the Padres at Philadelphia in relief, 8-3.
- Also won his next start on July 15 at Milwaukee when he allowed four earned runs (six overall) in a 10-9 decision...exited the game with two on in the seventh, leading 9-4.
- Received no decision on July 20 at Toronto, a 5-4 Tiger win in 10 innings...set career-highs with eight innings pitched and six strikeouts, allowed just three runs and left with a 4-2 lead and one on in the ninth before Toronto scored twice.
- Received no decision in his first two August starts, including August 9 in a 5-3 win at New York (3ER/4.2IP) and August 3 vs. Seattle, a 6-3 win (1ER/5.0IP).
- Returned to the bullpen at Cleveland on August 18, earning no decision while tossing 4.1 scoreless innings and fanning six in an 11-3 loss.
- Moved back into the rotation for three starts, the first a 3-2 win on August 23 at Kansas City (2ER/6.1IP) in which he tied his career-best with six strikeouts....made his final start on September 2 at Chicago, gaining no decision in an 8-6 win (5ER/5.2IP).
- Relieved in his final seven outings...for the season, he was 1-3 with a 4.50 ERA in 13 relief games (14ER/28.0IP).
- On the road, Sager won three-of-four decisions with a 4.82 ERA (25ER/46.0IP).
- Walked just two batters in his final 12.2 innings pitched.

Major League Career

Made a pair of stops with Colorado while spending the majority of 1995 at the Class AAA level.

- Pitched three innings of one-hit ball in his first appearance of the season on April 27 vs. the Mets...three innings marked his longest outing of the season.
- Held the Dodgers hitless for two innings in a May 5 game at Coors Field.

Opened the 1994 campaign in San Diego for his major league debut.

- Made 10 appearances as a reliever before finishing the season in Las Vegas.
- Earned his first major league victory on May 3 at Philadelphia...pitched 4.2 innings surrendering just 2 hits while striking out a trio of Phillies.
- Made his first major league start in his next appearance on May 9 vs. Cincinnati...scattered six hits over six innings and allowed just one run in a no-decision.

Minor League Highlights

Established team-highs in games started (22), innings pitched (133.2) and strikeouts (80) during the 1995 Class AAA season at Las Vegas.

- Posted one complete game which was also a shutout.
- Surrendered just 23 walks on the season, an average of 1.5 walks per nine innings pitched.

Finished the 1994 campaign in Las Vegas (AAA) after 22 appearances at the major league level.

- Worked mostly out of the bullpen, collecting the second-most saves on the squad (5).

Split the 1993 season between the Double A and Triple A levels.

- Started the season in Wichita where he made 11 starts including two complete games.
- His 3.19 ERA was tops of all hurlers on the squad with at least 10 starts.
- Had a five-game winning streak from May 8-June 1, including a five-hit shutout on June 1 at El Paso.
- Surrendered just seven earned runs in 38.2 innings during the winning streak for a 1.63 ERA...did not allow an earned run in three of the five games.
- Earned a promotion to Triple A Las Vegas on June 8 where he appeared in 21 contests (11 starts), posting a 6-5 record and 3.70 ERA.
- Started his first nine games and posted a string of four victories in five decisions.

Made the conversion from starter to reliever while pitching for Las Vegas in 1992.

- Appeared in 30 games for Las Vegas (3 starts) and was 1-7 with one save.

Broke into the Triple A level to start the 1991 campaign.

- Combined stops at Las Vegas and Double A Wichita to go 11-8 in 28 games, all starts, with four complete games and two shutouts.

Posted an 11-12 record in 1990, his first season at the Class AA level.

- Tied for the Texas League lead in losses (12) and paced the circuit in hits (200) and runs allowed (105).

Enjoyed an outstanding 1989 campaign while pitching for Class A Charleston.

- Went 14-9 in 25 starts, going the distance six times...tossed a pair of shutouts.

Opened 1988 with an 8-3 record in his rookie campaign.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Is single and makes his off-season home in Columbus, OH.

Sparky's Legacy

Former Tiger manager Sparky Anderson completed his managerial career after the 1995 season with a Tiger-record 1,331 victories. On the all-time victory list, Anderson's 2,194 total wins ranks third behind only Hall of Famers John McGraw and Connie Mack. His total record of 2,194-1,834, including nine seasons and two World Championships as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was good enough for a .545 career winning percentage, which is 10th all-time. Only the fourth manager in baseball history to manage 4,000 games, Anderson is also the only manager to hold the career victory record for two different franchises, to record 100 victories in one season in both leagues, and manage teams from both leagues to a World Series title.

1996 Season

Was recalled by Detroit on May 26 after ranking among International League leaders in nearly all pitching categories.

- The season marked a continuation in his recovery from injury that kept him out for one full calendar year (November, 1993-November, 1994).
- His 4.58 ERA was lowest among all Tiger pitchers who started a game in 1996.
- Pitched 10 games at Toledo (5-2, 1.92) before his recall and allowed more than two earned runs in just one of his outings.
- Left the Mud Hens ranked among the International League's leaders in ERA (3rd-1.92), wins (T3-5), strikeouts (2nd-59), complete games (T1-3), shutouts (T2-1) and innings pitched (1st-70.1).
- Made his major league debut on May 27 in Kansas City, tossing six frames and allowing just one run on three hits but gained no decision in a 5-4, 13-inning loss.
- Lost on June 2 at Chicago in game one of a doubleheader, 4-2 (2ER/7.1IP).
- Reported soreness in his shoulder after the start...returned to Detroit for an MRI which revealed the inflamed bursa.
- Was on the 15-day DL from June 3-August 17 due to the injury...made five rehab starts, three at Toledo, one at Fayetteville (A) and one at Visalia (A).
- Lost in Cleveland on August 17, 6-3...allowed six runs, just two of them earned, in 5.2 innings in his first major league action in almost 11 weeks.
- Earned his first major league win on August 22 at Kansas City, 10-3 (3ER/5.0IP).
- Compiled a 3.00 ERA in his first four major league starts (8ER/24.0IP) but closed the season with a four-game losing streak and a 5.66 ERA in his last seven games (22ER/35.0IP).
- Posted no decision in his start on September 1 vs. the Royals, a 3-2 loss in 13 innings (1ER/7.1IP) ...tied a Tigers 1996 high with nine strikeouts in the effort.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the best pitching prospect in the International League and the third best overall prospect in the league...was also named by The Sporting News as the baseball player to watch in 1997.

Minor League Highlights

Split the 1995 season between the Single A and Double A levels, spending the majority of the season with Jacksonville.

- Started the campaign in Lakeland (A) as he saw his first action since missing the entire 1994 season with shoulder and elbow problems.
- Made six starts to begin '95 at Lakeland, posting a 2-1 record before his promotion to Double A Jacksonville.
- Struggled early on at Jacksonville, starting seven games before earning his first victory...posted three no-decisions and three losses in that span.
- Established team-highs for the season with 10 strikeouts and six walks in an August 9 game vs. Knoxville.
- Recorded at least eight strikeouts in six of the 18 games he started.
- Led the team with 98 strikeouts for the season, while his three complete games tied for second-most on the squad.
- Combined to start 24 games for the season, the most of his professional career.

Sprained his left elbow in March of 1994 during the Tigers spring camp and eventually missed the entire season.

- Was rehabilitating from the sprain when he reinjured the elbow in early June.
- Opted for nearly four months of rest rather than surgery...started throwing again in September, and in November he pitched in four winter league games in Mexico.

Finished the 1993 campaign at London for the first Double A action of his career.

- Opened the campaign in Lakeland where he made 11 starts before jumping to London.
- Struck out 72 batters to tie for third on the Lakeland squad.
- Suffered a nerve injury to his left shoulder while playing in the '93 Arizona Fall League.

Posted the second-lowest ERA (2.18) among all 1992 Fayetteville (A) starters.

- Recorded 88 strikeouts in 95.0 innings pitched.

Played his first year of professional baseball in 1991.

- Averaged 10.8 strikeouts per nine innings (60K/50.0IP).
- His 3.18 ERA was the second-lowest of all Bristol (Rookie) starters.

Personal/Miscellaneous

Is single and makes his off-season home in Spring, TX.

- Graduated from Klein Oak High School (TX).
- Played winter ball in the Mexican League in 1994.
- Pitched in the Arizona Fall League in 1993.

THOMPSON'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by Detroit in the supplemental round (32nd overall) of the June 1991 draft.
- On disabled list, April 8, 1994-end of season (left shoulder strain).
- On disabled list, June 3-August 17, 1996 (inflamed bursa in left shoulder).

Player/Managers Meet For the Final Time

The 1934 World Series in which the Tigers played the Cardinals was the final World Series in which both opposing managers were also players. That year, second baseman/manager Frankie Frisch's Cardinals defeated catcher/manager Mickey Cochrane's Tigers four games to three. Cochrane had already been awarded with the MVP trophy for the '34 regular season, making him and former Cleveland skipper and shortstop Lou Boudreau (1948) the only American League player/managers ever to be named league MVP.

Ten Tiger Managers Have Been Ex-Backstops

Since 1901, the Tigers have had 31 different managers and 10 of those managers have been former major league catchers. They include Les Moss, Ralph Houk, Joe Schultz, Bob Swift, Bob Scheffing, Jack Tighe, Steve O'Neill, Del Baker, Mickey Cochrane and George Stallings. (There have been just two Tiger managers who never played in the majors, Ed Barrow and Bill Armour. Of the remaining 19 managers, two were pitchers, four were outfielders and 13 were infielders during their playing days.)

1996 Review

In just 100 big league games last season, Tony Clark hit 27 homers, the most by a Tiger rookie since 1987.

1997 OPPONENTS

Detroit NL Club Wins Final Game

Following a fifth-place finish in 1888, the Detroit Wolverines of the National League closed shop and moved to Cleveland. October 13, 1888, marked the last game played by the Detroit National League franchise, a game won by the Wolverines at Washington against the Statesmen, 7-4. The game of Friday, June 13, 1997, will be particularly special as Detroit will once again become familiar with National League regular-season play when the Tigers face the Montreal Expos in the club's first-ever inter-league matchup.

The Detroit box score from that last regulation game against an NL opponent some 110 years ago follows. The game featured two Hall-of-Famers (noted by an asterisk), and the loss taken by Hank O'Day gave him a league-high 29 for the season.

In the National League

The Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the major leagues after the '88 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

Trammell and Whitaker

Former Tigers Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker, who played together from 1977-95, established an American League record in 1995 with 1,918 appearances as teammates. Trammell and Whitaker, who played shortstop and second base, respectively, broke the old AL mark of 1,914 held by Kansas City third baseman George Brett and second baseman Frank White. The major league mark for appearances by two players as teammates is 2,015, held by third baseman Ron Santo and outfielder Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs.

"The Bird" Was the Word

In 1976, Mark "The Bird" Fidrych enjoyed one of the most exhilarating and rewarding seasons ever by a rookie. Though the Tigers would eventually struggle to a fifth-place finish in the East Division, Fidrych was named the starting pitcher for the All-Star Game and captured AL Rookie of the Year honors after winning 19 games and pacing the league with a 2.34 ERA.

But the Fidrych story was about more than just numbers and trophies, and though it has been over 20 years since that magical season, the antics and the abilities "The Bird" displayed in his brief moment of glory has kept fans' memories of him alive and well even today.

That season, fans turned out in droves on days that "The Bird" was scheduled to pitch, sometimes as many as 40,000 strong despite the fact that the Tigers typically drew just 15-20,000 fans per game. When Fidrych walked out to take his warmups, entertainment followed closely behind. Whether it was the way he talked to the baseball before he threw it, how he groomed the mound with his hands between innings or just the way he shut down the opposition, every Tiger fan found something to love about "The Bird."

However, as meteoric as his rise to fame was in 1976, his fall the next season turned out to be just as swift. On March 21, 1977, while shagging fly balls in the outfield during Spring Training, Fidrych tore cartilage in his left knee, and the start of his season was delayed until May 27. That night he went the distance in a 2-1 loss to the Mariners before 44,207 excited fans at Tiger Stadium, and everyone celebrated the return of "The Bird." But less than three weeks later on June 16, during his 11th start of the season against the Blue Jays, Fidrych lasted only 15 pitches before leaving the game due to pain in his right shoulder. Finally on August 28, the Tigers announced that Fidrych was done for the season after being out since July 12.

Each year between 1978 and 1980, Fidrych attempted to come back, but he was able to pitch in a total of just 16 games during those three seasons. After his release by the Tigers in 1980, he never pitched in the major leagues again.

No-Hitters

The Tigers have been a part of 17 no-hitters in their 96-year history. Five have been tossed by Tiger pitchers, including two in the same season by Virgil Trucks in 1952. Twelve no-hitters, including one perfect game, have been thrown against the Tigers, and, ironically, seven of the 12 have come in Detroit. In fact, Nolan Ryan threw the second of his record seven "no-nos" in 1973 at Tiger Stadium. Following is a complete list of no-hitters in which Detroit has been involved:

By Detroit

7/4/12	George Mullin vs. St. Louis	Navin Field, Detroit	7-0
5/15/52	Virgil Trucks vs. Washington	Briggs Stadium, Detroit	1-0
8/25/52	Virgil Trucks vs. New York	Yankee Stadium, New York	1-0

Consecutive 100-Walk Seasons

In 1993, Mickey Tettleton became the first Tiger batter in history to draw 100 or more walks in three consecutive seasons. On six other occasions, Tigers have done it in back-to-back seasons, a distinction first achieved by Donie Bush in 1914 and '15. The following Tigers reached the century mark at least two years in a row.

Player	Years	Walks by Season
Mickey Tettleton	1991-93	101, 116, 109
Tony Phillips	1992-93	114, 132
Norm Cash	1961-62	124, 104
Eddie Yost	1959-60	135, 125
Eddie Lake	1946-47	103, 120
Hank Greenberg	1937-38	102, 119

Clearing the Tiger Stadium Roof

Since Tiger Stadium was rebuilt along its present lines in 1938, just 30 home runs have been hit over the roof and out of the stadium. Twenty-six of those shots have traveled over the rightfield roof and four over the more distant leftfield roof.

In 1996, a record year for home runs throughout the major leagues, three home runs left the stadium's confines, the most in one season since the feat was accomplished four times in 1962.

Fans also recall a number of long homers hit out of the stadium before it was remodeled into a complete double-decker. The most historic of these was Babe Ruth's 700th home run on July 13, 1934, which cleared the rightfield stands. Even longer was Ruth's blast on June 8, 1926, which also cleared the rightfield stands and came to rest nearly two blocks down Plum Street.

Hitting for the Cycle

Travis Fryman wrote his name into the history books on July 28, 1993, against the New York Yankees at Tiger Stadium when he became just the eighth Tiger ever to hit for the cycle.

Fryman not only hit for the cycle — a single, double, triple and a home run — but he also added a second double in his last at bat to finish the game 5x5 with two runs scored and four RBI.

Fryman's cycle was Detroit's first since September 7, 1950, when Hoot Evers did it against Cleveland. In all, 11 players have hit for the cycle at Detroit, six by the Tigers and five by opponents.

In all, since 1900, major league batters have hit for the cycle 190 times, 96 in the American League and 94 in the National.

Bob Meusel of the Yankees set the major league record by becoming the first player to accomplish the feat three times in a career. Meusel's record-setting third cycle came at Detroit's Navin Field on July 26, 1928. The Cubs Babe Herman later tied the record in 1933.

Tiger Rookies of the Year

Three Tiger players have been named American League Rookie of the Year, an honor awarded in each league since 1949 by the Baseball Writers Association of America. The New York Yankees have had eight Rookies of the Year to lead the AL as the team with the most players receiving the honor.

The Tigers who have won the award include Harvey Kuehn (1953), Mark Fidrych (1976) and Lou Whitaker (1978).

*Tied for league lead

Triple Crown Winner

Ty Cobb • 1909

.377 BA, 9 HR, 107 RBI

Batting average, home runs and RBI led entire major leagues.

Also led majors with 216 hits, .517 slugging percentage, 296 total bases and 76 steals.

Tigers in the National Baseball Hall of Fame

Ty Cobb

(1886-1961)
Center Field
Detroit 1905-1926
Elected to HOF, 1936
"The Georgia Peach"

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame.
- Owns the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in major league history.
- Major league record of 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years, and major league record 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Still holds the major league record for career runs scored (2,246).
- Also ranks second all-time in triples (295), fourth in doubles (724) and fourth in stolen bases (892)...his triples total is second only to Tiger teammate Sam Crawford.
- Batted .400 or better three times (.420, 1911; .409, 1912; .401, 1922).
- Chalmers Award-winner (AL MVP) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- From 1907-20, won the league batting title in 12 out of 13 seasons.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and from 1907-11, led the league in RBI in four of the five years.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing the entire Major Leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), en route to leading the Tigers to the last of his three World Series appearances.
- Led the Tigers to consecutive AL pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- Following a 22-year career as a Tiger, including six seasons (1921-26) as player-manager, played his final two seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics.

Mickey Cochrane

(1903-1962)
Catcher
Detroit 1934-37
Elected to HOF, 1947
"Black Mike"

One of the finest backstops the game has ever produced, Mickey Cochrane took over a fifth-place Tiger club as player-manager in 1934 and immediately led Detroit to back-to-back American League pennants and its first World Championship in 1935.

- Named the 1934 league MVP after leading the Tigers to their first AL pennant in 25 years.
- The following season, took the Tigers to their first-ever World Series title, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth in Game 6 to defeat the Chicago Cubs at Tiger Stadium.
- Of that title-clinching game, Cochrane later said, "It was my greatest day in baseball."
- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beamed in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally pulling through...although he continued as Tiger manager for part of the following season, he never played again.
- Known as one of the best batsmen ever at the catching position, posted a lifetime .320 batting average and hit better than .300 nine times in his career.
- Sold to the Tigers by Connie Mack and the Philadelphia Athletics following the 1933 season after taking part in three pennant-winners...helped the 1929 A's, regarded as one of the greatest teams in baseball history, to the World Series title.
- Also named AL MVP in 1928 with the Athletics...spent a total of nine seasons with the A's after coming up to the big leagues in 1925.
- Despite spending just four of his 13 major league seasons in a Detroit uniform, Cochrane entered the Hall of Fame in 1947 wearing the English 'D'.

Right Field
Detroit 1903-1917
Elected to HOF, 1957
"Wahoo Sam"

Although he spent nearly his entire career in the shadows of the great Ty Cobb, his teammate in the Tigers outfield for 13 seasons, "Wahoo Sam" Crawford carved his niche in baseball history as its most prolific triples hitter ever.

- Led the league in three-baggers six times, once in the National League with Cincinnati and five times in the American League with Detroit...five times he hit more than 20 triples in a season en route to his career record of 312.
- A lifetime .309 hitter known as one of the hardest hitters of the dead-ball era.
- Led the American League in RBI three times, runs scored once and doubles once.
- Finished his career just 39 hits short of 3,000.
- Batted .314 and led the league with 104 RBI and a career-high 26 triples in 1914 and finished runner-up to Philadelphia's Eddie Collins for the Chalmers Award (AL MVP).
- Helped the Tigers to consecutive AL pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- His nickname derived from his hometown of Wahoo, NE.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee.

Charlie Gehringer

(1903-1993)
Second Base
Detroit 1924-42
Elected to HOF, 1949
"The Mechanical Man"

Known for his quietness and efficiency, Michigan native Charlie Gehringer was not only the best fielding second baseman of his time, but he also hit for power and average. The great Ty Cobb, who managed the Tigers during Gehringer's first three seasons, called him, aside from Eddie Collins, "the greatest second baseman (he) ever saw."

- Batted over .300 in 13 of his 16 full seasons, had 200 or more hits seven times and posted a lifetime batting average of .320.
- Named the American League MVP in 1937 after hitting a career-high .371 to lead the league...finished runner-up to teammate Mickey Cochrane for the MVP award in 1934.
- In 1929, led the AL in eight categories including hits, runs, doubles, triples, stolen bases, games, putouts and fielding percentage.
- Hit 15 or more home runs in a season six times and had 100 or more RBI seven times.
- Drilled 60 doubles in 1936, a Tiger record for a lefthanded hitter.
- Batted .375 and handled 39 chances without an error in the 1935 World Series to help Detroit to the title.
- Also a part of AL pennant-winning Tiger ballclubs in 1934 and 1940.
- Had his uniform No. 2 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Hank Greenberg's No. 5 was retired.
- Served as the Tigers General Manager from 1951-53.

Hank Greenberg

(1911-1986)
First Base
Detroit 1930-46
Elected to HOF, 1956
"Hammerin' Hank"

A fearsome run producer and home run hitter, "Hammerin' Hank" Greenberg made the most of a career interrupted by four years of military service during World War II and another season lost to injury to capture two MVP awards and a pair of World Series titles.

- Rapped a Tiger-record 63 doubles, just four short of the major league mark, in 1934 in his second full season in the majors as the Tigers won their first pennant in 25 years.
- Named American League MVP in 1935 after leading the league with 39 homers and 170 RBI as the Tigers won their first World Series title, defeating the Chicago Cubs.
- Suffered a broken wrist just 12 games into the 1936 season after beginning the campaign batting .348 with 16 RBI.
- Drove in 183 runs the next year, one short of Lou Gehrig's 1931 league record.

Tigers in the National Baseball Hall of Fame

- In 1938, chased Babe Ruth's 11-year-old single-season home run record (60) before ending the year with a league-best 58 longballs.
- Won AL MVP honors again in 1940, his last full season before entering the Army, as he batted a career-best .340 and led the league with 41 homers, 150 RBI and 50 doubles...carried Detroit to its sixth AL pennant.
- Returned from a four-year stint in the Army in July of 1945 and drilled a grand slam on the final day of the season to spur the Tigers back to the World Series...batted .304 with two homers and seven RBI to lead Detroit past Chicago for its second World Series title.
- Drove in more than 100 runs a total of seven times in his career and hit better than .300 in each of his first eight seasons, including high marks of .340 in 1940 and .337 in 1937.
- Posted a lifetime slugging percentage of .605, good for fifth-highest in ML history.
- Completed his brilliant career with one final season in Pittsburgh after being sold to the Pirates in January of 1947.
- Had his uniform No. 5 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Charlie Gehringer's No. 2 was retired.

Harry Heilmann

(1894-1951)
Right Field
Detroit 1914-29
Elected to HOF, 1952
"Slug"

Rated second only to Rogers Hornsby among righthanded hitters of his era, Harry Heilmann batted .390 or better four times in his career to capture a quartet of batting titles.

- Bettered the .400 mark (.403) in 1923 to lead the league, collecting 211 hits and driving in 114 runs...in all, batted .340 or better eight times.
- Led the AL in hits in 1921 with 237 after hitting .394 to win his first batting title...also won the league batting crown in 1923, 1925 and 1927.
- From 1921-29, drove in at least 100 runs in eight out of nine seasons...drilled at least 40 doubles in eight of his last 10 seasons as a player.
- In 1927, finished runner-up to the Yankees Lou Gehrig in American League MVP balloting after hitting .398 and winning his final batting title.
- His 1921 total of 139 RBI would have led the league, but Babe Ruth drove in 171 runs that season...three times he ranked second in the AL in slugging percentage behind Ruth.
- After his playing career, broadcasted Tiger games on the radio from 1934-51.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously by the Veterans Committee in 1952.

Hughie Jennings

(1869-1928)
Shortstop/Manager
Detroit 1907-20
Elected to HOF, 1945

Detroit's manager from 1907-1920, Jennings piloted teams which featured all-time greats Ty Cobb, Harry Heilmann and Sam Crawford, and he led the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.

- An outstanding shortstop in his playing days, had his best years with the National League's Baltimore Orioles between 1893 and 1899...drove in more than 100 runs three times and batted .401 in 1896.
- Also led the league in fielding four times.
- With Detroit, served as player-manager from 1907-1918, although he only appeared in a handful of games and had just nine at-bats in those 12 years...became full-time manager for his final two seasons in a Tiger uniform.
- Although his Tigers won three straight league titles, they lost in the World Series each time, twice to the Cubs and once to the Pirates.
- Elected to the Hall posthumously in 1945 by the Veterans Committee.

Tigers in the National Baseball Hall of Fame

Al Kaline

(1934-)
Right Field
Detroit 1953-74
Elected to HOF, 1980

If any player defined the Tigers during the last half-century, that man was Al Kaline, and in 1980, he became just the 10th player elected to the Hall in his first year of eligibility. At the time of his retirement, Kaline and Ty Cobb were the only Tigers ever to play 20 or more seasons in a Detroit uniform.

- Runner-up for the American League MVP award in 1955 and 1963, finishing second to Yankee catchers Yogi Berra in '55 and Elston Howard in '63...both seasons, despite the vote of the baseball writers, The Sporting News chose Kaline as its Player of the Year.
- Won the league's batting crown in 1955 by batting .340 in just his second full season in the majors...accomplished the feat at age 20, making him the youngest batting champion in American League history.
- Came back from a broken arm earlier in the season to bat .397 against the Cardinals in the 1968 World Series...had two home runs among his 11 hits in the series and drove in eight runs, further establishing his reputation as a tremendous clutch performer.
- Selected to 18 All-Star Games over his career, including 15 out of 16 between 1955 and 1967 (selected to two games each season, 1959-61)...selected to the All-Star squad in 1964 and '67 but did not play due to injury.
- Hit .300 or better eight times, drilled 20 or more homers nine times and had at least 100 hits in 18 of his 22 seasons in the majors.
- An outstanding defensive player renowned for his powerful rightfield arm, he captured 10 Gold Gloves, enjoyed a streak of 242 straight errorless games and played in 16 All-Star games without committing a miscue.
- Spent the 1974 season as a full-time DH and rapped his 3,000th career hit off the Orioles' Dave McNally that season, making him the first American Leaguer since Eddie Collins in 1925 to reach that milestone...ended his career with 3,007 hits, breaking Al Simmons' AL record for hits by a righthanded batter.
- Also posted 399 career home runs while batting .297 lifetime.
- Had his familiar uniform No. 6 retired by the Tigers on August 17, 1980, making him the first Tiger ever to have his number retired.
- Has spent every year since 1976 in the Tiger television broadcast booth.

George Kell

(1922-)
Third Base
Detroit 1946-52
Elected to HOF, 1983

The American League's foremost third baseman in the 1940s and '50s, George Kell is one of just eight third basemen enshrined in the Baseball Hall of Fame.

- Won the 1949 American League batting crown with a .343 average, nosing out Boston's Ted Williams on the final day of the season.
- Selected to 10 All-Star games, including eight straight between 1947 and 1954.
- Batted over .300 nine times and led the AL in hits in 1950 and '51...also led the league in doubles both seasons.
- In seven seasons with the Tigers from 1946-52, he batted below .300 just once, 1952 when he was traded to the Red Sox just 39 games into the season.
- Known for sure hands and a strong, accurate arm, he led AL third basemen in fielding percentage seven times.
- After Detroit, he played for the Red Sox, White Sox and Orioles until retiring in 1957.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1983 by the Veterans Committee.
- Began broadcasting full-time after his playing days and, with the exception of 1964, called Tiger baseball every year from 1959-96...retired from broadcasting in January, 1997.

Harwell Also Honored by the Hall of Fame

In addition to the 11 players who have entered the National Baseball Hall of Fame as Tigers, Tiger broadcaster Ernie Harwell has also been honored. In 1981, Harwell became the fourth recipient of the Hall's Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasting excellence. See Harwell's biography on p. 275 for more information.

Tigers in the National Baseball Hall of Fame

Heinie Manush

(1901-71)

Left Field

Detroit 1923-27

Elected to HOF, 1964

A lifetime .330 hitter, outfielder Heinie Manush played for six teams over 17 seasons, but he entered the Hall as a Detroit Tiger after breaking in with Detroit and playing his first four years there.

- Played his first three seasons in the big leagues for the great Ty Cobb and won his lone batting title in 1926 under Cobb's tutelage, batting .378...overtook Babe Ruth by going six-for-nine in a doubleheader on the last day of the season.
- In 1928, his second season with the St. Louis Browns, collected an incredible 241 hits, just 16 short of George Sisler's 1920 major league record...again batted .378 but lost the batting title by a single point to Washington's Goose Goslin.
- Topped the 200-hit mark four times in his career...also posted 40 or more doubles five times, leading the league in 1928 and '29, and topped the AL with 17 triples in 1933.
- Finished as runner-up to Jimmy Foxx for the batting title in 1933 after hitting .336...selected to his only All-Star Game in 1934.
- Boasted an exceptionally discerning eye and never struck out more than 30 times in any one season...in 7,654 lifetime at-bats, fanned just 345 times.
- After leaving Detroit following the 1927 season, played for St. Louis, Washington, Boston and Brooklyn before retiring in 1939 as a member of the Pittsburgh Pirates.
- Elected to the Hall in 1964 by the Veterans Committee.

Hal Newhouser

(1921-)

Lefthanded Pitcher

Detroit 1939-53

Elected to HOF, 1992

The only pitcher in major league history to win back-to-back league MVP awards, Detroit native Hal Newhouser was one of the most dominant pitchers of the 1940s.

- Captured his first MVP award in 1944 after posting a major-league best 29-9 record and leading the majors with 187 strikeouts...his 29 victories tied George Mullin's 1909 team record.
- Named league MVP again the following season, becoming just the third AL pitcher to lead the entire major leagues in wins (25), strikeouts (212) and ERA (1.81) all in the same season...his 29 complete games, eight shutouts and 313.1 innings pitched also led the majors.
- Spent 15 of his 17 big-league seasons in a Tiger uniform and during that span was a seven-time All-Star, led the AL in victories four times, led the league in strikeouts and ERA twice each, and hurled back-to-back 300-inning seasons in 1944 and '45.
- From 1944-48, won 20 or more games in four of the five years and rode his explosive fastball to a total of 118 wins, 107 complete games and 993 strikeouts...also allowed just 40 home runs and twice posted an ERA under 2.00 during that span.
- Retired in 1955 after two seasons as a reliever with Cleveland.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1992 by the Veterans Committee.

Tigers Hold All-Time Triple Play Lead

Skeeter Barnes efforts on July 3, 1992, in Detroit with Omar Vizquel of Seattle at the plate helped to continue an historic Tiger reign in that category. He and first baseman Cecil Fielder participated in the Tigers 32nd all-time triple play, more than any other team in major league history.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the St. Louis Cardinals are tied for the National League lead with 31. The Tigers of 1908 made two triple plays (both against the Red Sox) to start the club's historic run of three-ply killings. The 1911 Tigers posted three triple plays.

Five Tiger Squads Have Won 100 Games

Five Tiger teams have won 100 or more games in a season, most recently the 1984 club led by Trammell, Gibson, Whitaker, Morris, Hernandez and the rest. Believe it or not, however, two of the Tigers 100-game winners did not even capture the American League pennant.

Hughie Jennings' 1915 Tigers (100-54) finished two-and-a-half games behind Babe Ruth and the Red Sox. Bob Scheffing's 1961 club (101-61) ended the season eight games back of the Yankees, piloted by Ralph Houk and featuring Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle.

Two of the five clubs, though, did win the World Series. Under Sparky Anderson, the aforementioned '84 Tigers (104-58) set a club record for regular-season wins and went on to defeat the San Diego Padres in the Fall Classic. Mayo Smith's 1968 Tigers (103-59) went all the way with a seven-game victory over the St. Louis Cardinals for the World Championship.

Finally, the 1934 Tigers (101-53) fell in the middle of those two groups. Managed by Hall-of-Famer Mickey Cochrane, who was also the club's starting catcher and was named AL MVP that season, the Tigers won the pennant but lost the World Series to the Cardinals.

The Offensive Fireworks of May 28, 1995

The crowd gathered at Tiger Stadium on May 28, 1995, witnessed an offensive explosion unlike any other in major league history as the Chicago White Sox defeated the Tigers, 14-12.

The two American League teams combined for a single-game, big-league record of 12 home runs in that contest. The day produced a number of interesting facts.

- The previous record of 11 combined homers in a game had occurred four times, the last on July 4, 1994, between Baltimore and California.
- Ten of the 12 home runs were solo shots, another major league record.
- Four players had multi-home run games including three from the Tigers, tying a pair of major league records.
- With nine doubles added to the boxscore, a new major league high 21 extra-base hits in a game was established.
- Kirk Gibson hit two of the game's home runs on his 38th birthday, helping him earn AL Player of the Week honors.

Following is a list of all 12 of the home runs hit at Tiger Stadium on May 28, 1995.

1. Detroit, Chad Curtis, none on, off James Baldwin, 1st inning.
2. Detroit, Cecil Fielder, two on, off James Baldwin, 1st inning.
3. Detroit, Chad Curtis, none on, off James Baldwin, 2nd inning.
4. Detroit, Cecil Fielder, two on, off James Baldwin, 2nd inning.
5. Chicago, Ray Durham, none on, off David Wells, 4th inning.
6. Chicago, Ron Karkovice, none on, off David Wells, 4th inning.
7. Chicago, Craig Grebeck, none on, off David Wells, 4th inning.

Tiger Broadcasters

ERNIE HARWELL

Legendary play-by-play man marks 1997 as his 58th year in broadcasting, calling action on Tigers PASS telecasts.

- Was the 1981 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Baseball Hall of Fame for broadcasting excellence...was the fourth recipient of the honor.
- Was named to the National Sportscasters Hall of Fame in 1989 by a unanimous vote...that same year he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame.
- Began his career in radio in 1940 as a nightly sports commentator on Atlanta's WSB Radio...prior to that, he had served as a correspondent at The Sporting News and worked in the sports department of the Atlanta Constitution.
- Followed four years of World War II Marine Corps duty by broadcasting games of the Southern Association's Atlanta Crackers baseball club...during his time in Atlanta he also worked The Masters golf tournament and Georgia Tech football.
- Was named play-by-play broadcaster for the Dodgers in 1948, his first major league appointment...was at the microphone for Bobby Thomson's historic playoff homer in 1951, marking the first coast-to-coast telecast of a major sporting event.
- After two seasons with the Dodgers, he moved on to play-by-play work for the Giants and Orioles before coming to Detroit in 1960.
- Has covered Tiger games on radio or television in every season from 1960-96 except one, that coming in 1992 when he was a guest broadcaster for the California Angels and CBS television's Game of the Week...has continued his work with CBS, serving as play-by-play man for several Saturday afternoon national broadcasts.
- Was the voice of the first American League Championship Series in 1969 on CBS Radio...has aired national broadcasts of three World Series and two All-Star Games.
- Football credits include coverage of the New York Giants, Baltimore Colts and Brooklyn Dodgers pro clubs and Yale, Pittsburgh, Boston College, Fordham and Michigan State on the collegiate level.
- An accomplished songwriter, he has had more than 50 of his pieces recorded by artists such as Mitch Ryder, B.J. Thomas and Barbara Lewis.

AL KALINE

Hall-of-Famer returns for his 22nd consecutive season of providing color in the Tigers television booth.

- Joined fellow Hall of Fame member George Kell in the booth for the first time in 1976, two seasons after his retirement as a player.
- His major league playing career began with Detroit in 1953 when he was just 18 years old...went on to play 22 seasons with the Tigers, matched in longevity only by the legendary Ty Cobb.
- Was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1980, his first year of eligibility.
- Won the American League batting title in 1955 with a .340 average, becoming the youngest player to lead the American League in hitting (20 years old).
- Retired with 3,007 hits, becoming the 12th man in major league history to post at least 3,000.
- Is the all-time franchise leader with 2,834 games played and 399 home runs...is the only player other than Cobb to lead the franchise in any major career offensive categories.
- His uniform #6 was the first of three to be retired by the club (August 17, 1980).
- Received the 1973 Roberto Clemente Award, given by the Commissioner to the player best exemplifying baseball on and off the field.
- Was a 15-year All-Star, including 13 seasons (1955-67) in a row...led the league in fielding twice and won 10 Gold Glove awards.
- Hit .379 with two homers and eight RBI for the 1968 World Series Champion Tigers.

JIM PRICE

A member of the Tigers 1968 World Series champions, he begins his fifth season of color commentary on Tiger telecasts.

- Is working both over-the-air and cable telecasts for the third consecutive season...started in 1993, handling cable duties with Jim Northrup.
- Played five major league seasons, all with the Tigers.
- Played 64 games, 42 of them at catcher, for the 1968 team that defeated St. Louis in the Fall Classic.
- A native of Harrisburg, PA, he was a three-sport star at Hershey (PA) High School...refused 25 college football offers to sign with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1960.
- Was purchased by the Tigers in April of 1967 after seven minor league seasons with the Pirates.
- Other broadcast credits include work as play-by-play man on Chicago White Sox cable telecasts, color commentary for ESPN college baseball and anchoring weekend sports on Detroit's WJBK-TV.
- Assists in the Tigers front office efforts, focusing on community relations and baseball participation camps.

FRANK BECKMANN

Begins his third season behind the microphone for Tigers games, handling play-by-play on the Tigers radio network.

- Is a veteran of more than 25 years of service in Detroit broadcasting.
- Began his career as a news reporter for WJR Radio in 1972 and climbed the ladder to Sports Director by 1979.
- Worked radio play-by-play and color for 10 seasons for the Detroit Lions football team (1978-88)...was color analyst for the Detroit Pistons of the NBA during the 1980-81 campaign.
- Also filled in for a Red Wings (NHL) playoff broadcast, making him the only broadcaster in history to work games for each of the four major league teams in Detroit.
- His football work earned acclaim in 1985 from both wire services and the Detroit News as "Best Play-by-Play."
- Recently completed his 16th season as play-by-play man for the Michigan Wolverines football team.
- Created and hosted WJR's "Sportswrap" program from 1981-95, which became and remained for 14 years the highest-rated sports talk show in the history of radio.
- Is a three-time winner of the Michigan Sportscaster of the Year Award (1992, 1994-95)...As a news reporter he won a National Headliner Award for coverage of Jimmy Hoffa's disappearance.

LARY SORESENSEN

The 11-year major league veteran pitcher returns for his third season of color analysis on radio broadcasts.

- Joined the Tigers radio team in the spring of 1995...prior to that he spent a year with Detroit's WDFN Radio.
- Provided color analysis for ESPN Television in 1993 and '94 as part of their national baseball package...also worked the College World Series for the network from 1990-92 and had a stint with SportsChannel Ohio.
- Has worked with his partner in the Tigers booth, Frank Beckmann, as a sideline reporter for the University of Michigan's football broadcasts.

Tigers Minor League Managers

Dave Anderson

Manager • Jacksonville

Dave Anderson moves from managing Single A Lakeland the past two seasons to the helm of the Jacksonville Suns, winners of the 1996 Southern League Championship.

Anderson has been a member of the Tigers organization since 1994, when he guided the Jamestown Jammers of the New York-Penn League to a fourth place finish and was named the league's Manager of the Year.

Prior to his managerial career, Anderson played 10 years in the major leagues with the Los Angeles Dodgers (1983-89, 1992) and the San Francisco Giants (1990-91). He compiled a .240 lifetime average with 16 home runs and 135 RBI and participated in three National League Championship Series (1983, 1985 and 1988) and one World Series (1988) with the Dodgers.

Kevin Bradshaw

Manager • Gulf Coast Tigers

Kevin Bradshaw returns for his third season as a professional manager as he leads the Gulf Coast League Tigers into the 1997 season.

Bradshaw has spent his entire baseball career with the Detroit organization, managing for two seasons, coaching for five seasons and playing four years as a Tigers farmhand. He began his coaching career in 1990 with the Double A London squad when the team went on to win the Eastern League title. During the next four seasons Bradshaw coached four different teams; Bristol in 1991, Toledo in 1992, Lakeland in 1993 and Trenton in 1994.

As a player Bradshaw excelled defensively, working his way up to the Triple A level before a torn achilles tendon prompted him to retire. Prior to his retirement, he played four seasons in the minor leagues, compiling a .241 lifetime average.

Dwight Lowry

Manager • Jamestown

This season marks the start of Dwight Lowry's fourth year as a manager for the Detroit farm system. The 1996 season ended with Lowry finishing his third straight year as the skipper for the Fayetteville Generals.

Lowry began his managerial career in 1994, starting the season at the helm for Bristol before moving to Fayetteville in late April. He guided the Generals from a 10th place finish in 1994 to a first place finish in 1995. Fayetteville finished the 1996 campaign with a flourish, capturing the second-half title of the South Atlantic League, prompting him to be named the 1996 Player Development Man of the Year for the Tigers organization.

Prior to his managerial work, Lowry coached three seasons at Fayetteville.

Lowry's playing career spanned 11 years as he spent four seasons at the major league level. He was part of the 1984 World Series Champion Detroit team, and he also played the 1986 and 1987 campaigns with the Tigers. Lowry played part of the 1988 season with Minnesota before retiring as an active player following the 1990 season.

Mark Meleski

Manager • Lakeland

Mark Meleski heads the Lakeland coaching staff after spending the past two seasons as a position coach at Detroit's Double A Jacksonville affiliate. Meleski helped lead the 1996 squad to the Southern League title.

Prior to his work in Jacksonville, Meleski spent two years as the manager of the Lynchburg Red Sox. He made his managerial debut in 1993 with Lynchburg and posted a 65-74 record.

Meleski spent six seasons as the first base coach for the Pawtucket Red Sox of the International League before becoming Lynchburg's skipper. Prior to entering the coaching profession, Meleski played six seasons in the minor leagues with the Red Sox organization.

Originally drafted by Cleveland in the 14th round of the 1978 draft, Meleski did not sign with the Indians. He went on to star at the University of Virginia where he was named All-Atlantic Coast Conference in 1980 and 1981. He was signed as an undrafted free-agent by the Red Sox on June 10, 1981.

Tigers Minor League Staff

Brian Allard

Pitching Coach • West Michigan

In his 13th year as a minor league pitching coach, Brian Allard brings a wealth of experience to his position as the Whitecaps pitching coach.

Allard spent four years in the Cleveland farm system (1985-88) and four seasons in Minnesota's system (1989-92) before joining the Tigers system in 1993. While with the Detroit organization he served as pitching coach at Fayetteville for two seasons, at Lakeland for a season and at Triple A Toledo last year.

As a pitcher he spent parts of three seasons (1979-81) in the major leagues with Texas and Seattle. Allard was the Rangers fourth pick in the 1976 June draft.

William "Skeeter" Barnes

Coach • West Michigan

After two seasons with Triple A Toledo, "Skeeter" Barnes joins the West Michigan Whitecaps for the 1997 season, his third as a coach in the Detroit organization.

A fan favorite in three seasons as a Detroit Tiger, Barnes' playing career spanned 17 seasons with 10 minor league teams and four major league teams in seven different organizations. He appeared in 353 major league games in nine seasons with the Reds, Cardinals, Expos and Tigers.

Following his 1994 retirement, Barnes was hired as a coach by the Tigers and spent the 1995 and '96 seasons with Triple A Toledo.

Rich Bombard

Pitching Coach • Jacksonville

This will be Rich Bombard's seventh season as a pitching coach in the Tiger farm system and his 12th season overall as a minor league coach. In 1997, he returns to Jacksonville, where he also spent the 1995 season as the Suns pitching coach.

Bombard joined the Cincinnati Reds organization in 1987 and spent five years serving a variety of roles in the Reds farm system including roving pitching instructor. Prior to his work with the Reds, he had been a relief pitcher in the Houston Astros and Chicago Cubs organizations for five seasons.

Bombard came to the Detroit organization in 1991 as the pitching coach for the Single A Fayetteville Generals. He also served as pitching coach at Lakeland and Trenton before returning to Lakeland last season as pitching coach.

Hector Berrios

Pitching Coach • Gulf Coast

The 1997 season marks Hector Berrios' coaching debut as he assumes pitching coach duties for the Gulf Coast League Tigers.

A veteran of eight minor league seasons, Berrios started his professional playing career in 1984 at Class A Eugene with the Kansas City organization. He made 22 appearances, starting two games, and posted a 1-2 record with a 2.53 ERA. Berrios split the 1986 campaign between Class A Ft. Meyers and Eugene, becoming a full-time starter at Eugene (6-4, 5.33).

After completing the 1986 season Berrios suffered an arm injury which kept him sidelined for an entire calendar year. He was released by Kansas City and signed as a free agent by Detroit, where he spent his next four seasons. His four year stint with the Tigers organization was highlighted in 1988 when Berrios reached the Double A level and pitched for Glens Falls, posting a 3-0 record with a 3.55 ERA.

Berrios signed with California as a free agent in 1991 and reached the Triple A level for the first time in his career that season, posting a 3-1 record with a 3.86 ERA for Edmonton.

He continued to pitch at the Class AAA level in 1992, this time for the Dodgers and Cubs organizations. Berrios recorded a combined 2-3 record and a 6.84 ERA with both clubs and retired after the season.

Tigers Minor League Staff

Basilio Cabrera

Coach • Gulf Coast

Basilio Cabrera is entering his 13th season with the Detroit minor league system. He played as a Tiger farmhand for eight years (1985-92) and the upcoming season marks his fifth as a minor league coach.

Cabrera enjoyed three seasons (1987-89) in which he collected a total of 113 stolen bases, highlighted by the 1989 season in which he swiped 45 bases. He played Double A ball in each of his last three seasons and retired following the 1992 campaign.

In 1993, Cabrera began his coaching career with Single A Bristol. Since then he has spent a season each with Fayetteville, the Gulf Coast Tigers and Lakeland before returning to the Gulf Coast for the 1997 season.

Joe Georger

Pitching Coach • Lakeland

The 1997 season marks Joe Georger's third with the Tigers organization and first at Class A Lakeland.

Georger has been a part of professional baseball since 1979, as a player for five seasons (1979-83) and as a coach for the past 13 seasons (1984-present).

The Birmingham (MI) Seaholm High graduate was drafted by Seattle in the 13th round of the 1979 draft after graduating from the University of Kentucky. He pitched in the minors until becoming a minor league pitching coach in the Seattle organization in 1984. Georger later served as a scout and had served as a coach in the Angels farm system from 1989-94 before joining the Tigers organization.

Toby Harrah

Roving Hitting Instructor

Toby Harrah comes to Detroit after spending the 1996 campaign as the infield/third base coach for the Cleveland Indians.

His career as a coach, manager and instructor spans 11 seasons with three different organizations. Harrah spent four seasons as a coach for the Texas Rangers (1989-92) and served as the interim manager for the second half of the 1992 season, succeeding Bobby Valentine. His minor league managerial career covers three seasons, highlighted by his guidance of the New York Mets Triple A Norfolk affiliate to the International League's best record in 1995, earning him International League Manager of the Year honors. Harrah also spent the 1993 and '94 seasons as the roving minor league hitting instructor for the Rangers.

In 17 major league seasons, Harrah posted a .264 lifetime average while playing for Washington, Texas, Cleveland and the New York Mets. He was named to the American League All-Star team in 1972, 1975, 1976 and 1982 before retiring after the 1986 season.

Jeff Jones

Pitching Coach • Toledo

Jeff Jones brings nine seasons of coaching experience within the Detroit organization back to Toledo as the 1997 pitching coach for the Mud Hens.

Jones spent last season as the pitching coach for the Jacksonville Suns, the 1996 Double A Southern League champions. He was previously pitching coach for the Tigers former Double A London affiliate from 1991-92, and he enters his fourth season overall with Toledo as he spent 1990 and 1993-94 as the Mud Hens pitching coach. Jones also served as the parent club's bullpen coach in 1995.

Jones, a Detroit native, spent five years in the major leagues as a member of the Oakland A's bullpen from 1980-84. He helped the A's win the American League West title in 1981, posting a 4-1 record with 3 saves in 33 appearances.

Tigers Minor League Staff

Marty Martinez

Roving Infield Instructor

This season begins Marty Martinez' third season with the Tiger farm system. He had spent the previous 15 seasons as part of the Seattle Mariners organization where he occupied a variety of positions.

During his tenure with Seattle, Martinez served as a minor league manager (1980, 1994-95), roving minor league instructor (1981-84, 1987-88), instructional staff supervisor (1989) and Latin scouting supervisor (1990-91). He was also a member of the major league coaching staff from 1984-86 and in 1992. While a member of the Mariners coaching staff in 1986, he served as interim manager for one game on May 8, 1986, after the firing of Chuck Cottier (Seattle lost the game to Boston, 4-2).

Prior to his work in Seattle, Martinez served as a manager in the Texas farm system from 1975-78 and also served as a scout for the Rangers in 1979.

As a player, Martinez was originally signed by the Washington Senators organization in 1960, and he made his major league debut as a 20-year-old with Minnesota in 1962. He enjoyed his finest season with Houston in 1969 when he batted .308 in 78 games. A versatile player, he managed to play all nine positions during his seven-year major league career.

Jon Matlack

Roving Pitching Instructor

The 1997 campaign will be John Matlack's second season as a coach in the Detroit organization. Last season was his first as a coach at the major league level, where he served as pitching coach for the Detroit Tigers before being reassigned late in the season.

From 1988-95, Matlack served as a minor league pitching coach for the Chicago White Sox and San Diego Padres, spending 1995 with Triple A Las Vegas.

As a player Matlack enjoyed a 13-year career as a lefthanded pitcher with the New York Mets and Texas Rangers. He was voted the National League Rookie of the Year in 1972 and was selected as an All-Star three times (1974-76).

As a member of the Mets in 1973, Matlack tied a Championship Series record for the fewest hits allowed in a game as he fired a complete-game, two-hit shutout against the Cincinnati Reds. The Mets advanced to the World Series against Oakland where Matlack made three appearances and posted a 2.16 ERA.

Steve McCatty

Pitching Coach • Jamestown

Steve McCatty returns for his second season with the Detroit farm system following a 11-year career professional playing career.

McCatty spent last season as pitching coach at Single A Visalia in his debut in the coaching profession. Prior to the 1996 campaign he spent 1989-91 in the broadcast booth, two of those seasons broadcasting Oakland Athletics games and one as an ESPN broadcaster.

His playing career lasted from 1977-1988, where he spent the majority of the time as a righthanded pitcher for the A's. Primarily a starter, he enjoyed his best season in 1981, when he compiled a 14-7 record including four shutouts and a 2.33 ERA.

Tigers Minor League Staff

Gene Roof

Roving Outfield Instructor

Gene Roof returns for his second year as the roving outfield instructor for the Detroit farm system.

Before his most recent assignment, Roof spent four seasons as Detroit's first base coach. His Tiger roots run even deeper as Roof spent three seasons as the skipper for Class AA London (1991) and Class A Fayetteville (1989, 1990).

As a player, Roof enjoyed a brief major league career, playing in parts of three seasons for the St. Louis Cardinals (1981-83) and Montreal Expos (1983). He collected a base hit in his first major league plate appearance on September 5, 1981, off the Dodgers' Jerry Reuss. Baseball is in the Roof family, as Gene is one of five brothers to play professional ball. His brother Phil played 15 years as a major league catcher.

In addition to baseball, Roof was a prep basketball star at St. Mary's High School in Paducah, KY. He was named Kentucky's Mr. Basketball in 1976 and had accepted a scholarship to play at the University of Kentucky before he was drafted in the 12th round of the 1976 Free Agent Draft and signed by St. Louis.

Tim Torricelli

Coach • Jacksonville

In his fourth season with the Detroit organization, Tim Torricelli is moving from his position as the manager of last season's Single A Visalia Oaks to a coaching position with the Jacksonville Suns, the 1996 Double A Southern League champions.

Torricelli also spent the 1995 season as a coach for the Lakeland Tigers and coached the Jamestown squad in his first season with the Detroit organization in 1994.

He previously served as a manager and coach in the Montreal farm system before landing a coaching job in the Tigers system. Torricelli managed Jamestown in 1993 when the team was a Montreal affiliate. His first season as an instructor was 1992 when he was a coach for the Gulf Coast League Expos.

Prior to his coaching career Torricelli played four years of minor league ball in the Milwaukee system where he posted a career .239 average.

McLain's 31-Win Season One for the Books

Tiger righthander Denny McLain led Detroit to the 1968 World Championship with a season that recalled the era of Grove and Dean and has not been duplicated since. That year McLain won an amazing 31 games and was named both American League MVP and Cy Young Award-winner.

En route to becoming baseball's first 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean in 1934 and the first in the AL since Lefty Grove in '31, the brash McLain won nine games by June 9, including a 10-inning complete-game victory on May 20 at Minnesota. But it was the following month which put him on pace to make history. McLain reeled off a nine-game winning streak, and by July 16 he had a stunning record of 18-2 and was well on his way to the magic number of 30.

McLain earned his 30th victory on September 14 with a 5-4 complete-game win over Oakland, and three days later the Tigers clinched the American League pennant. He ended the year with a record of 31-6 and a 1.96 ERA, completed 28-of-41 starts and struck out 280 hitters in 336 innings.

1996 Tigers Minor League Recap

The Tigers seven minor league teams posted a combined record of 397-435 for a .477 winning percentage with two teams in the system advancing to post-season play.

- The Class AA Jacksonville Suns had an outstanding 1996 campaign, beginning the season atop the Southern League standings and never looking back. After finishing in first place in both the first and second halves of the season, the Suns battled the Carolina Mudcats in the first round of the playoffs. Although the Mudcats took the Suns to a fifth game of the best-of-five series, Jacksonville prevailed and advanced to the championship series against the Chattanooga Lookouts. Jacksonville overmatched the Lookouts three games-to-one to win the Southern League Championship, highlighted by a four-hit shutout by Brian Moehler in Game Four to clinch the title.
- The Class A Fayetteville Generals of the South Atlantic League finished their season in strong fashion by capturing the second-half title. The Generals ran into trouble during the first round of the playoffs, however, mustering only three total runs in a 2-0 sweep at the hands of Delmarva in the best-of-three series.

Toledo Mud Hens (AAA)

THE SEASON: The Mud Hens finished the season in third place with a 70-72 record in the International League's West Division. Twenty-seven Detroit Tigers spent at least some time in Toledo this season, including International League MVP Phil Hiatt.

THE BATS: The bats were in full force at Toledo this summer with infielder Phil Hiatt leading the charge by setting all-time Mud Hens records for home runs (42) and RBI (119). Hiatt was named the International League MVP, the first time a Mud Hen had won the honor since 1983, and he led the league in homers, RBI, extra base hits (72) and runs scored (99). He also finished second in the league with 145 hits. Hiatt was named Tigers' Minor League Player of the Month for August when he batted .271 with 14 home runs, 27 RBI and six stolen bases, and he was also named the league's player of the week for June 17-23. Raul Casanova had a booming start in April, receiving player of the week honors for April 22-28. During that stretch he hit safely in six straight games including home runs in five straight. Tony Clark started the season in Toledo and played in 55 games before being called up to the Tigers. Clark turned it on right before his call-up to Detroit, hitting .476 in June to raise his average from .256 on May 20 to .299 on June 6. Outfield sensation Bubba Trammell, who was named the Tigers' Minor League Player of the Year, was promoted from Double A Jacksonville to Toledo on July 12, and he hit three homers with 14 RBI in his first 20 games with the Mud Hens.

THE ARMS: Justin Thompson started the season in Toledo and led the team with a 5-2 record and a 1.92 ERA in 10 games before being called up to Detroit. He had a 21-inning scoreless streak in April and did not allow a run until April 20 at Pawtucket. Thompson was named the Tigers' Minor League Pitcher of the Month for May, and he returned to the Mud Hens later in the summer for three rehab starts. Trevor Miller led the team the rest of the way with a 13-5 record and a 4.90 ERA, finishing second in the league with 13 wins and fifth with 115 strikeouts. Miller was named the league's pitcher of the week for June 24-30, a week in which he pitched the Mud Hens to a 2-0 record with a 1.20 ERA while allowing only two earned runs and striking out 10. Brian Barnes was promoted from Double A Jacksonville in late June and was named IL Pitcher of the Week for August 19-25. He posted a 2-0 record, a complete game and a 1.35 ERA, while allowing only two earned runs and striking out 10 during the week. After starting the season in Detroit, Mike Christopher settled down in Toledo and finished fourth in the league with 20 saves.

Jacksonville Suns (AA)

THE SEASON: The Suns captured the Southern League title by defeating Chattanooga 3-1 in a best-of-five championship series. During the regular season, the Suns won both the first (39-31) and second (36-32) halves of the season despite losing several star players to either promotion or injury. The Suns were paced by three first-half All-Stars, including outfielder Bubba Trammell, infielder Frank Catalanotto and pitcher Rick Greene. Trammell and Catalanotto were also named to the final Southern League All-Star team. Terrell Hansen was the league's playoff MVP after drilling three homers with 10 RBI in nine games.

THE BATS: Even though Trammell only played about half of the year in Jacksonville, he was able to lead the Suns to the Southern League's first half title and still finished the season third in the league with 27 homers. Before heading to Triple A Toledo, he played in 83 games and enjoyed a span in which he reached base safely in 42 straight contests (60-167, 12 BB, 15 HR, 41 RBI). He was also Tiger Minor League Player of the Month for May. Picking up where Trammell left off, Catalanotto led the Suns to the second-half crown. Catalanotto hit .359 in the month of June, and during a nine-game stretch from July 13-21, he batted .343 with four doubles, four homers and eight RBI. He finished in the league's top 10 in batting average, runs, hits and doubles. The strong finish to Jacksonville's season was also due in part to catcher Scott Makarewicz's late-season surge. In August, he hit .400 in 27 games with 22 runs, 36 hits, six doubles, a triple, eight home runs and 20 RBI and was named league Player of the Week during the final week of the season. The Suns totalled 200 home runs in 1996, a new Southern League record. First baseman Sean Freeman was named Tiger Minor League Player of the Month in April after batting .316 with nine homers and 19 RBI.

THE ARMS: Right-hander Brian Moehler, the Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Year, led the Southern League with 15 wins and was sixth with a 3.48 ERA. He ended the season in strong fashion by going 3-0 with a 1.22 ERA and allowed only five earned runs in the month of August. In that final month he struck out 28 batters and pitched a complete-game shutout for the Suns in the title game of the Southern League playoffs prior to a late-September call-up. Righthanded reliever Ramon Fermin appeared in 14 consecutive games without allowing an earned run from July 12 - August 18 (21 IP, 10 H, 5 BB and 13 SO). Suns closer Rick Greene was a first-half All-Star and finished the season with 30 saves, second-most in the league. Righthander Mike Drumright was injured for much of the season but went 3-0 in his first seven starts with a 2.40 ERA. Last year's minor league save leader Brandon Reed was sidelined with injuries most of the season but came back in August to make three relief appearances and earn his first save with a 0.93 ERA for the month.

Lakeland Tigers (A)

THE SEASON: Although the Lakeland Tigers finished with a 61-77 record and fell short of making the playoffs, there were several bright spots for the Lakeland squad. Four Tigers made it to the Florida State League's 35th Anniversary All-Star Game, including pitchers Greg Whiteman and Eric Dinyar and infielders Daryle Ward and Richard Almanzar. Almanzar, a late All-Star addition, captured the MVP award for the game, and both he and Ward were included in the league All-Star team at the conclusion of the season.

THE BATS: The Lakeland hitting attack was predictably led by Ward and Almanzar. Almanzar set a club single-season stolen base record, amassing 53 steals in 72 attempts to break the previous record of 50, held by former Detroit Tiger Milt Cuyler. Almanzar reached base safely in 21 straight games from June 25-July 18, and he was named Tiger Minor League Player of the Month for July. Baseball America ranked Tigers outfield prospect Juan Encarnacion first among Florida State League outfielders for the "best arm." Encarnacion led the Tigers in home runs with 15. Ward, son of former major leaguer Gary Ward, was named the league's top hitting prospect. Lakeland outfielder Anton French, who came to the Tigers in May from Atlanta in a trade for Danny Bautista, went 16-for-18 in steal attempts in his first month. His 16 steals led all of the minor leagues for the month of May.

THE ARMS: On the mound the Tigers pitching staff recorded the most shutouts in the Florida State League with 14. Starting All-Star pitcher Greg Whiteman led the team with 11 wins, and fellow starter Willis Roberts also established himself as one of the Tigers top pitching prospects, registering the eighth-best ERA in the league (2.89) and ranking second on the team with nine victories. Whiteman was named Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Month for April. All-Star closer Eric Dinyar went 17 consecutive games without allowing an earned run, going 1-0 during that span with 10 saves. Lakeland reliever Jeff Siler went through a stretch of 12 consecutive games without allowing a run with a 4-0 record. Tiger starter Brian Powell led the league with five complete games and with 174.1 innings pitched.

Fayetteville Generals (A)

THE SEASON: The Generals started the season a little slow going 22-29 in the first two months but battled to a 21-8 record in the month of June, the second-best month of any squad in the minor leagues. The Generals ended the season by winning the second half and making it to the playoffs, where they were swept by first-half champion Delmarva. Outfielder Gabe Kapler and closer Bryan Corey were chosen for the 1996 South Atlantic League All-Star Team. Third-year manager Dwight Lowry was named 1996 Tiger Player Development Man of the Year for his efforts in leading the Generals to their outstanding season.

THE BATS: South Atlantic League All-Star Gabe Kapler paced the Generals in six offensive categories. He led the entire league in hits, doubles and extra base hits, ranked fifth in batting average (.300), and finished second in home runs (26), RBI (99) and slugging percentage (.534) and was named Tiger Minor League Player of the Month for June. Fellow outfielder Scott Weaver helped jumpstart the Generals offense in May by hitting .290 for the month, upping his average from .180 in April to .250 after two months of play. During that stretch Weaver reached base safely in 21 straight games (May 19 -June 8).

THE ARMS: The Generals pitching staff was the mainstay of the team, finishing fourth in the league with a 3.20 team ERA. They also finished first in the league in saves (46) and second in fewest home runs allowed (55) and strikeouts (1162). The Generals were led by righthanded starter Clayton Bruner, who finished second in the league with 14 victories and seventh with a 2.59 ERA. He closed the season in strong fashion with a 6-0 record in six starts, allowing just five earned runs in 39 innings with 43 strikeouts for the month of August. During that stretch Bruner did not allow an earned run in four starts covering 26 innings, and he was named Tiger Minor League Pitcher of the Month in August. Right-handed starter David Borkowski also had a strong season, finishing second in the league with five complete games and third with 178.1 innings pitched. Borkowski also pitched well in June and July with a 6-2 record and a 1.70 ERA for the two months. Righthanded starter David Melendez, who finished eighth in the league with a 2.62 ERA, pitched three straight games in June in which he did not issue a walk. Melendez registered a solid strikeout-to-walk ratio by walking just 40 batters while striking out 121, and he was named Tiger Minor League Pitcher of the Month for July. The Generals were helped into the playoffs by All-Star closer Bryan Corey who led the league in saves (34) and appearances (60). Corey did not allow a run during a stretch of eleven consecutive games from June 25 - July 20, and he finished the season by allowing only 17 walks in 82 innings while fanning 101 batters. Detroit starter Justin Thompson made one start with the Generals during his July rehab assignment, allowing a run on one hit in three innings.

Visalia Oaks (A)

THE SEASON: The Visalia Oaks, a team the Tigers shared with the Arizona Diamondbacks, struggled through the season and finished a distant fourth in both halves of the California League standings. One thing that the Oaks were not short on, however, was speed. Tiger farmhand David Roberts swiped 65 bases for the Oaks to lead the entire minor leagues.

THE BATS: The speedy Roberts also led the Oaks at the plate in 1996. He ranked first in the California League with 112 runs and fifth in the league with seven triples. Roberts ended the season by reaching base safely in his last 33 games, hitting .376 in the month of August with 41 hits and 33 runs. Earlier in the season he had reached base safely in 23 straight games. Fellow outfielder and Tiger farmhand Malvin DeJesus also helped the Oaks with his speed, stealing 34 bases to come in fourth in the league. DeJesus also scored a run in nine straight games from May 11-20, going 12-for-36 with six steals.

THE ARMS: Closer Dave Tuttle, who had come to the Tigers organization from Cincinnati as part of the David Wells trade in 1995, led Visalia with his solid pitching, appearing in 55 games to rank fourth in the league. Tuttle also finished third in the league in saves with 21, and he went six-for-six in save opportunities from June 15-27 while allowing only two earned runs. Reliever Javier Gomez helped the Oaks in a setup role, striking out 40 in 36.2 innings with a 3.68 ERA. Detroit starter Justin Thompson started one game for the Oaks during his rehab assignment in July, allowing no runs on two hits in three innings.

Fielder Extends Club-Record Home Run Streak

Former Tiger first baseman Cecil Fielder blasted 26 home runs in a Detroit uniform last season to extend his club record of consecutive seasons with at least 25 home runs to seven. No other Tiger in history has done it more than four straight seasons. Starting with his first year in Detroit in 1990, Cecil had consecutive years of 51, 44, 35, 30, 28, 31 and 26 longballs. Hall of Famer Hank Greenberg is the only other Tiger to hit 25 or more in four straight seasons. From 1937 through 1940, Greenberg belted 40, 58, 33 and 41 homers.

Jamestown Jammers (Short-Season A)

THE SEASON: The Jammers got off to a great start this season, leading the league after a 12-2 start. However, even with such a start they could not overcome a late-season slide. The Jammers ended the season going 13-19 in the month of August. The team's performance, though, showed that Jamestown did have some up and coming players that may serve the organization very well in the future. The team ranked fourth overall in batting and third in pitching in the New York-Penn League.

THE BATS: The bats were paced by outfielder Chris Wakeland, who led the league with a .429 on-base percentage and a .556 slugging percentage. Wakeland was also among the league leaders in batting average (sixth) and home runs (fifth), and he enjoyed a stretch in which he hit safely in 12 straight games from June 29-July 12, raising his average from .214 to .397. Outfielder Scott Sollman also contributed to the Jammers offense with his speed and finished third in the league with 35 stolen bases. Kurt Airoso was not to be outdone by his fellow outfielders, though, and he finished the season strong with a .467 average in the month of August to raise his average from .167 to .282. During the month Airoso strung together a modest eight-game hitting streak.

THE ARMS: Reliever Chad Schroeder was the mainstay of the Jammers staff, compiling a 5-0 record with five saves and a 1.43 ERA while only giving up six earned runs in 37.2 innings. Schroeder allowed no runs in 10 straight appearances from June 22-July 15, going 2-0 with a pair of saves. Other Jammers pitchers who were impressive included Mark Zamarripa, who struck out 61 while giving up only 14 walks in 48.2 innings. Zamarripa also did not allow a run in six straight games from June 26-July 10, going 2-0 with a save. Matt Oakley did his part to help the Jammers by posting a 4-2 record with one save, striking out 53 batters in 48.1 innings.

Gulf Coast Tigers (Rookie)

THE SEASON: After losing last year's Gulf Coast League Championship series, the GCL Tigers looked for similar results going into 1996. However, Manager Kevin Bradshaw's team did not have the pitching depth the rookie Tigers enjoyed last year. Even though the Tigers fell short of a postseason bid they still showcased several solid performances.

THE BATS: Outfielder Alexis Zapata showed he was ready for the next level by winning the team's "triple crown" with a .333 average (second in the GCL), six home runs and 41 RBI. Zapata hit safely in eight straight games from July 1-10 raising his average from .318 to .346. For the last part of August, the slugging rightfielder was promoted to Detroit's advanced short-season A team, the Jamestown Jammers. Catcher Chad Stevenson led the GCL in doubles with 18 while splitting time with another standout behind the plate, Jorge Meran. Lead-off hitter Ramon Aybar was tops on the team with 32 stolen bases.

THE ARMS: Though he finished the season with the Lakeland ballclub, right-handed pitcher Victor Santos was clearly the GCL Tigers number-one starter. Santos, 3-2, led the team in ERA (1.98) and struck out 39 opponents in 50 innings of work. His 1.98 ERA was seventh-best in the league. Closer Raul Donastrog was strong in relief, picking up four saves and finishing with a 3.96 ERA.

Zielinski Named 1996 Rawlings Woman Executive of the Year

Audrey Zielinski, a 40-year veteran of the Detroit Tigers minor league department, was named the 1996 Rawlings Woman Executive of the Year by the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (NAPBL) last November.

The first member of a major league organization ever to receive the award, which is in its 14th year, Zielinski has dealt with more than 3,000 contracts and 200 team rosters in her career. She has also been responsible for duties varying from spring training travel arrangements to visa requests for international players.

"We are very proud that Audrey's skills have been recognized with receipt of this prestigious award," said Tiger President and CEO John McHale, Jr. "She joins a long line of distinguished women who have given much to this game."

Zielinski received the honor at baseball's 1996 Winter Meetings, held in Boston from December 6-10.

Tigers Spring Training Information

Joker Marchant Stadium

Lakeland, FL 33805

Marchant Stadium has been the Tigers Spring Training home since 1966.

The Detroit Tigers return to spring training in 1997 for their 61st season in Lakeland and their 32nd at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Marchant Stadium in 1966.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000 and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects from the early 1970's to the present time have brought the current capacity to 7,100 seats. Included in the renovation process was a $160,000 light installation project enabling the first night game to be played in 1972. In 1994, a food and picnic plaza was constructed under the stands for the convenience of the fans.

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is Tigertown, the Tigers minor league training site since 1953. A three-story dormitory provides housing for 190 players and coaches. It was dedicated in 1971 and named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner of the Detroit Tigers. A new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed in 1993 to complete the Tigertown renovation.

The team has trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and the City of Lakeland is the longest-lasting relationship between a major league baseball team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers record at Marchant Stadium is 233-196-6 and 1,786,781 fans have paid to see Tiger Grapefruit League games since the park opened.
